

Spring 2010 Arts & Events Calendar

FEBRUARY

- 2 Art Opening • 6-8 p.m.
Works on exhibit by local artist L. Jamie Ormiston display the “folkloric connotations of compost.” Exhibit runs through March 7. Lower Level, Long Library
- 10 Art Exhibit
Wells College visual arts annual exhibition of student work. Exhibit runs through March 10. String Room Gallery, Main Building
- 18 Lecture • 4:40 p.m.
Dr. James Dwyer will deliver the science, health, and values talk, “Obesity and Responsibility.” Art Exhibit Room, Macmillan Hall
- 19 & 20 Gospel Choir Weekend
Local singers are welcome to join with Wells’ gospel choir Appointed and two expert conductors. Rehearsals Friday evening and Saturday morning; concert Saturday evening. Registration required. Barler Recital Hall
- 20 Concert • 7 p.m.
The 9th annual gospel choir weekend culminates in a concert featuring Wells’ gospel choir Appointed and local community singers. Phipps Auditorium
- 25 Lecture • 12:30 p.m.
Dr. Stephanie Waterman, Juliana James Native American Visiting Scholar, will speak on “The College Experience through a Culturally Centered Lens.” Art Exhibit Room, Macmillan Hall
- 26 Lecture • 5 p.m.
Dr. Gregory Michie will discuss ways that accountability has affected public schools and impacted students. Chapel, Main Building

MARCH

- 5 Concert • 7:30 p.m. $
The Arts and Lecture Series presents the String Trio of New York, an American jazz chamber ensemble. Phipps Auditorium, Macmillan Hall

- 11 Beckman Lecture • 4:30 p.m.
Dr. Gustav Niebuhr, associate professor in religion and the media at Syracuse University, will open this year’s Activism Symposium with a talk on “Why Be Tolerant in an Age of Terror?” Phipps Auditorium, Macmillan Hall

11 & 12 Activism Symposium

The 9th annual Activism Symposium, “Equality/Equity: Get the Difference,” features 20+ workshops and demos throughout the day. Campus-wide

12-14 Art Event

“Mythology,” a performance installation by Siouxsie Grady and Jeannie Goddard. String Room Gallery, Main Building

17 Poetry Reading • 7 p.m.

Poet and fiction writer Steve Huff will read from his work. Art Exhibit Room, Macmillan Hall

31 Reading • 7:30 p.m.

Nahid Rachlin, fiction writer and memoirist, will read from her work. Art Exhibit Room, Macmillan Hall

31 Art Exhibit

Monoprints by Neil Berger. Exhibit runs through May 9. String Room Gallery, Main Building

APRIL

2 Textile Sale • 11:30 a.m.

A Mayan textile sale will be followed by a talk from Syracuse University students who run this nonprofit venture. Dining Hall

7 Poetry Reading • 4:30 p.m.

Poet Charles Martin will read from his translation of Ovid’s Metamorphosis. Art Exhibit Room, Macmillan Hall

9 & 10 Dance Performance • 7:30 p.m. $

“Transformations,” the Wells College Spring Faculty Dance Concert, will be directed by Professor Jeannie Goddard. Phipps Auditorium, Macmillan Hall

14 Reading • 7:30 p.m.

Tina Post ’99, director of media relations for the College, will read from her nonfiction work. Art Exhibit Room, Macmillan Hall

15-16 Outdoor Celebration

Merce’s Birthday: A Celebration for Merce Cunningham. Conceived and directed by Jeannie Goddard. Outdoors at Campbell Fine Arts Building

21 Comedy Performance • 7:30 p.m. $

Chicago City Limits, New York City’s legendary improvisational comedy group, will bring their unique style to campus. Phipps Auditorium, Macmillan Hall

21 Reading • 7:30 p.m.

Poets, fiction writers, and nonfiction writers from Stone Canoe, Issue #4, an annual magazine of the arts published by Syracuse University. Art Exhibit Room, Macmillan Hall

30-May 1 Theatre Performance • 7:30 p.m.

Matt Brown ’10 will direct his senior thesis performance, an abridged performance of “Romeo and Juliet.” Phipps Auditorium, Macmillan Hall

MAY

17 Art Exhibit

Senior Thesis Exhibition. Exhibit runs through May 28. String Room Gallery, Main Building

Wells College is pleased to share these special cultural events with the greater community. All are cordially invited to campus for these offerings, which are free unless noted with a $. Additional events are added regularly; please check the Web site. There is plenty of free event parking in the Woods lot.

Wells College
170 Main Street Aurora, NY 13026

Events are subject to change.
For more information:
315.364.3266 • www.wells.edu