

Some students have been having difficulties signing up for the Wells Express Alert system. If you are using Internet Explorer as your web browser, please follow the directions below to access the alert system:

1. Log into the Globe and then From the main Globe page you can click on the "Click Here" link or the Wells Express Alert logo to access the alert system. Remember, you must be logged into the Globe in order to access the Express Alert system!

2. A window will open (shown below) asking you "Do you want to view only the webpage content that was delivered securely?" CLICK "NO" and the system will open for you to set up your account. If you click "Yes," you will get an blank screen and/or error message.
