A Living Experiment: What We Can Learn from EcoVillage Ithaca

Liz Walker is executive director and co-founder of EcoVillage Ithaca. Over the past 26 years an experiment in sustainable community living has been quietly unfolding in Ithaca, NY. Residents enjoy a very high quality of life, while using only 36% of the resources of typical Americans. Come find out more about this integrated model of cohousing neighborhoods, organic farms, state-of-the-art green buildings, and hands-on education...and learn why ecovillage principles are catching on around the world.

Monday, October 30, 2017 from 12:20 – 1:20PM
deWitt Lecture Hall, Zabriskie Hall Room 106

All Sustainability Perspectives series events are free and open to the public.
The series explores the concept of 'sustainability' from a variety of viewpoints.

Wells is committed to providing access to all events; anyone needing assistance should contact Marian Brown, Center for Sustainability and the Environment, at 315-364-3304 or by email at mbrown@wells.edu, as soon as possible.
