Restoration and Reciprocity: Finding Common Ground between Scientific and Traditional Ecological Knowledge

Robin Wall Kimmerer directs the Center for Native Peoples and the Environment at SUNY College of Environmental Science and Forestry. The Center for Native Peoples and the Environment has as its mission to create programs that draw on the wisdom of both indigenous and scientific knowledge in support of our shared goals of environmental sustainability.

Monday, September 21, 2015 ~ 12:20 – 1:20PM
Stratton Hall Room 209

This talk is presented in conjunction with the Peachtown Native American Festival.
All Sustainability Perspectives series events are free and open to the public.
The series explores the concept of sustainability from a variety of viewpoints.

Wells is committed to providing access to all events; anyone needing assistance should contact Marian Brown, Center for Sustainability and the Environment, at 315-364-3304 or by email at mbrown@wells.edu, as soon as possible.

The education of an extraordinary life.
