

Sustainability Perspectives

The importance of getting outdoors, and why it's not always so simple.

Rachel Danford recently completed her PhD in Environmental Conservation and Policy at UMass-Amherst and now directs outdoor and environmental education at The Discovery Museums in Acton, MA. Her talk will focus on the benefits of engaging with nature for both children and adults and the social, spatial and psychological obstacles to getting outdoors.

Monday, October 3, 2016 ~ 12:20 – 1:20PM
deWitt Lecture Hall, Zabriskie Hall Room 106

All Sustainability Perspectives series events are free and open to the public. The series explores the concept of 'sustainability' from a variety of viewpoints.

Wells is committed to providing access to all events; anyone needing assistance should contact Marian Brown, Center for Sustainability and the Environment, at 315-364-3304 or by email at mbrown@wells.edu, as soon as possible.
