Recycling of Used Agricultural Plastics in New York

Nate Leonard is the NYS Field Coordinator for NY RAPP. New York supports a vibrant agriculture system that generates lots of different types of plastic waste. The Recycling Agricultural Plastics Project (RAPP) works in collaboration with agricultural producers and organizations, agencies and businesses that support agriculture, environmental protection, regional economic development, and waste management to increase recycling of these plastic materials in our state.

Monday, February 1, 2016 ~ 12:20 – 1:20PM
Stratton Hall Room 209

All Sustainability Perspectives series events are free and open to the public.
The series explores the concept of sustainability from a variety of viewpoints.

Wells is committed to providing access to all events; anyone needing assistance should contact Marian Brown, Center for Sustainability and the Environment, at 315-364-3304 or by email at mbrown@wells.edu, as soon as possible.
