Wells College is approved by the New York State Education Department for the training of veterans and other eligible persons. Wells College is accredited by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education, 3624 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104.

Wells College welcomes students of every origin to all the privileges, programs, and activities available to every Wells student. Wells College does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, creed, age, marital status, sexual orientation, disability, national or ethnic origin in administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs, athletic programs, employment or other College administered programs. Inquiries may be directed to the Title IX and Section 504 Coordinator, Kit Van Orman at 315.364.3317.

Wells College reserves the right to add, delete or change, in their entirety or in part, policies, programs, curricular structures, courses, requirements, regulations, rules and/or fees noted in this catalog at any time. Changes shall become effective whenever the proper authorities so determine and will, unless expressly noted to the contrary, apply not only to prospective students but also to those who at that time are matriculated in the College. The College also reserves the right to publish this catalog in an electronic version and to make changes to the electronic version that take precedence over this print copy.

WELLS COLLEGE MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Wells College is to educate students to think critically, reason wisely, and act humanely as they cultivate meaningful lives. Through Wells' academic program, residential atmosphere, and community activities, students learn and practice the ideals of the liberal arts. The Wells experience prepares students to appreciate complexity and difference, to embrace new ways of knowing, to be creative, and to respond ethically to the interdependent worlds to which they belong. Committed to excellence in all areas of its reach, Wells College equips students for lifelong learning and for sharing the privileges of education with others.

To fulfill this mission, Wells College has instituted institutional and program goals (see p. 28).

COMMUNITY STANDARDS STATEMENT

Wells College strives to become a diverse and inclusive community where individuals live, work, teach and learn with a goal of promoting and maintaining an atmosphere of respect. Membership is a privilege that requires all individuals to treat others humanely, and with mutual understanding and tolerance. Wells College fosters an environment in which free speech, openness, acceptance, and inclusion—even of those ideas or beliefs that may be controversial—are appreciated and considered in their appropriate settings.

Discrimination on the basis of (but not limited to) race, color, religion, ethnic or national origin, sex, age, varying physical or mental abilities, sexual orientation, gender identity, or political beliefs will not be tolerated. Verbally or physically abusive or harassing behavior that makes the College atmosphere intimidating, hostile, or threatening is unacceptable. All community members are subject to the laws that govern the rest of society.

Information about the implementation of the Community Standards Statement in the classroom, workplace and residence halls, as well as responding to violations of the Community Standards Statement, can be found in the Community Handbook.

STUDENT LIFE

Investment in the Wells College community requires courteous regard for self and others through words, actions, behaviors and choices. In accordance with the Wells College Mission, Community Standards Statement and Honor Code, the Division of Academic and Student Life aspires to cultivate a socially responsible community comprising knowledgeable students of integrity. Staff partner with students to design policies, programs, practices and opportunities to assist students in developing life skills, perspective, civility, competence, compassion, responsibility and vision for citizenship in an intercultural society. In addition, staff members in academic and student life strive to embody a collaborative, cooperative and sustainable team approach that expects personal and interoffice accountability.

The students of Wells College are impressively diverse in their academic interests, their choices of lifestyles, their co-curricular pursuits, and their political and religious concerns. They share, however, a high regard for student independence, responsibility, and self-governance. With the support of the faculty, administration, and board of trustees, the student body, under the leadership of the Collegiate Cabinet and the guidance of the dean of students, is responsible for creating policies and programs that benefit all Wells students.

HONOR CODE

Community Honor shall be the basis of student government at Wells College. The principle of Community Honor is based upon the pledge of each member of the student body to be honest and trustworthy in the conduct of her or his collegiate life as it is defined or encompassed by the Collegiate Rules. Wells College students are under community obligation and pledge not to lie, cheat, steal, deceive or conceal in the conduct of their collegiate life.

Experiential Learning

OFF-CAMPUS STUDY

Wells has both domestic and international off-campus study options available. Most Wells students participate in either the Wells College program (Wells in Florence) or an approved program. Wells in Florence is administered by Wells College and enrolls both Wells and non-Wells students. About 20 additional approved programs are available to Wells students, but Wells does not run these other programs on its own and instead helps students to access the educational offerings of an institution abroad or a program provider who offers courses abroad or elsewhere in the United States.

A student who studies off campus is expected to maintain satisfactory academic standards. Grades earned on a Wells College program or on an approved program appear on a student's Wells transcript and are included in the Wells grade point average. If enrolled in a non-approved program the student is responsible for the submission of official transcripts to the registrar of Wells College; courses are treated at Wells as transfer work (minimum grade of C- required) and are subject to approval.

While acceptance into a program is dependent upon the specific program to which you apply, Wells College has some general regulations for approval to study off campus that must be met by all students. These include:

- A minimum cumulative GPA of 2.8.
- As a general rule students must complete at least one year in residence (on campus) at Wells College. Students transferring in with fewer than 60 credit hours must complete two consecutive semesters at Wells College before studying off-campus. Students transferring in with 60 or more credit hours must complete one semester at Wells College and must receive written approval from their academic advisor, the Director of International Programs, and the Dean of Students before studying off campus.
- Student must be in good academic and behavioral standing at Wells.
- Student's financial account must be under $1000 or if the student is on the payment plan, the account must be current.
- Enrollment in or completion of OCS 271 and OCS 272: Cross-Cultural Preparation and Cross-Cultural Reflection (if you are studying abroad).
- All students must return to Wells for at least one semester after studying off campus.

Wells College Programs and Approved Programs

Students participating in Wells College or approved off-campus study programs pay Wells College tuition, room, board, and fees. Students receive their institutional aid for one semester when studying on a Wells College or approved program; should a student choose to study abroad for more than one semester on a Wells College or an approved program, the student will be charged Wells College tuition, room, board, and fees, but institutional aid will not be available. Wells will cover the cost of tuition, room, and board on the Wells College or approved program. If program fees exceed the cost of tuition, room, and board at Wells, students will be billed for the cost difference.

Non-approved Programs

If the Wells College or approved programs do not fit your academic or cultural objectives, you may apply to study on a non-approved program. Students applying to a non-approved program must meet the same eligibility requirements and general regulations for approval as students on a Wells College or an approved program. Your institutional aid will not be available and you must withdraw from the College for the semester. Students participating in non-approved programs must pay the College an administrative fee of $150. Please note that credits earned on a non-approved program will be treated as transfer credit. This means the credits only, not the grades, will transfer and that only courses in which grades of C- or better are earned will transfer. Students may not be approved for a non-approved program if Wells offers a Wells College or an approved program with similar learning objectives. Students exploring non-approved programs should speak with the Director of International Programs before applying to any program.

Intercession Off-Campus Study

Students may also study off campus over January during intercession through faculty-led courses. These short courses introduce students to areas of interest both aligned with and outside the faculty's normal course offerings. The topics, which change annually, have included genealogy research in Salt Lake City taught by a professor of chemistry, anthropology studies in Hawaii taught by a professor of anthropology, tutoring on a Navajo reservation led by a professor of education, and study of theatre in London led by a professor of performing arts.

INTERNSHIPS

One of Wells' most successful and popular ways to meet the experiential learning requirement is through the Internship Program. Almost every Wells student will complete at least one internship during her or his years at Wells; many will complete more than one. Students may elect to participate in credit-bearing internships with individuals, organizations, or businesses. A student plans an internship by working closely with a faculty sponsor, the experiential learning and career services staff, and an on-site sponsor who supervises and evaluates the on-site work. In many cases, Wells alumnae/i help to arrange internships and act as sponsors. Internships may take place during January intercession, a semester, or summer. For each semester hour of credit, a student must work 40 hours. For students to earn academic credit for the internship, they must complete all necessary paperwork to register for the appropriate course. Students work with their faculty sponsors and on-site supervisors to develop learning contracts. The contracts as well as the internship agreement forms must be submitted to the Office of Experiential Learning and Career Services prior to registration. Deadlines are the last day of add/drop for internships occurring in the fall and spring semesters and the last day of classes of the preceding semester for January intercession. Registration for summer and intercession internships is on a rolling basis but students must register and turn in their contract within the first six days of their experience. Students who turn in internship paperwork after the deadline must petition in order to earn academic credit for their internship.

Internships for First-Year Students

From the moment they arrive on campus, Wells students are encouraged to explore career options. First-year students can complete internships during January Intercession through either discipline-based internships or the course WLLS 190 that allows students to explore their interests through individually-arranged field experiences.

Institutional and Academic Program Goals

Student Learning Goals

At Wells, the development of each individual student is supported through an exploration of how to understand the world in intellectual and personal pursuits and how to apply that knowledge in an interconnected and ever-changing world. The breadth of a liberal arts foundation, depth of focused knowledge, and a developed skill set prepare students for their futures.

Content

1. Breadth of knowledge: Understanding the physical world, cultures, individuals, personal health and well being
2. Depth in field: Developing expertise in a chosen major field
3. Career preparation: Acquiring substantive and professional competence

Essential Skills

1. Fundamental literacies
 - The ability to read critically across the disciplines
 - The ability to employ effectively oral, written and expressive communications
 - The ability to identify and evaluate relevant information
2. Critical thinking and application
 - The ability to use reasoning and evaluative skills in distinctive modes of inquiry and analysis
3. Ethical decision making
 - The ability to reason wisely and act humanely
4. Creativity
 - The ability to transcend established understandings to discover something new
5. Metacognitive
 - The ability to use self- reflective skills to understand what one knows, how one learns, and how to use resources effectively and to seek help
6. Skills and beliefs to navigate living and working in community
 - The ability to engage in problem solving and to work in a team environment
 - The ability to manage time effectively and to possess a positive work ethic
 - The ability to offer and accept constructive criticism, to possess self-confidence, be flexible, adapt quickly and work well under pressure

When Students Graduate

They leave as being lifelong learners with the ability and initiative to create, share, and apply knowledge prepared for the life ahead of them. They are aware of the responsibility they have to themselves and others to share the privilege of their education. With a communal consciousness, they are motivated to make a difference and improve the world around them. They understand the past and the present in order to envision the future.

Institutional Responsibilities

In order for students to achieve the above learning goals, Wells College will:

1. Provide a student-centered learning environment
 - Curricular and co-curricular offerings that provide solid fundamentals to help students forge their educational paths preparing them for their careers and responsible citizenship
 - Hands-on opportunities that expand learning beyond the classroom and beyond Wells
 - Learning resources and services to facilitate students' achievement
 - A personalized education achieved through advising and mentoring in which students discover their capabilities and they become accountable for themselves, their education, and for their future as individuals and citizens
 - An environment for students that not only allows mistakes but supports risk taking as an essential element to learning.

2. Provide a talented faculty and staff who create community, practice inclusiveness, and hold students and themselves to high standards
3. Maintain an infrastructure for the College that supports the learning environment both in and out of the classroom in terms of its facilities and technologies and managing the College's resources prioritizing teaching and learning.
4. Have clear policies and user-friendly procedures that meet the needs of the campus community
5. Provide a safe, congenial environment for all of its members

Institutional Core Values

As an institution of higher education, Wells College values:

1. Learning founded on challenging and intellectual inquiry, requiring active student engagement, done with honor, and resulting in a transformative experience.
2. Continuing emotional, intellectual, and social development which involves self-reflection and continual adaptation
3. Community and the relationships and social interactions built in community
4. An awareness and sensitivity to differences that encourages open-mindedness and responsible action
5. Creativity
6. People as unique individuals

BACHELOR'S DEGREE

Wells College has an integrative liberal arts curriculum designed to prepare students for the leadership roles they will assume in all areas of life. The academic program includes a core curriculum, Sustainable Community, and majors that integrate related disciplines.

Liberal Arts Foundations: From the beginning to the end of their enrollment at Wells College, students participate in a liberal arts foundation sequence, Sustainable Community (SC), exploring what it means to be a member of interconnected communities. Four themed seminars enhance students' ability to communicate, both orally and through writing, using relevant technology. Students also learn quantitative skills and how to reason clearly while making logical arguments; they come to appreciate what is distinctive about scientific explanations; they develop an appreciation for languages and cultures in a global context; they develop awareness of the physical body and what practices help maintain health; they engage in experiential learning; and in the senior year, they explore different perspectives on a seminal idea or theory related to sustainable community in an interdisciplinary capstone experience.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

In order to be recommended by the faculty for the Bachelor's Degree, a student must successfully: 1) complete a minimum of 120 semester hours; 2) complete two years in residence at Wells (60 semester hours, which may include up to 20 semester hours in Wells College approved programs); 3) complete the College requirements, including those for the major; 4) maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0 and a minimum GPA of 2.0 for courses taken for the major.

COLLEGE REQUIREMENTS

NOTE: This description of requirements assumes students are entering Wells as first-year college students.

(1) Themed seminars (12 semester hours). Seminars on designated themes, described below, develop students' communication skills, both written and oral, their information literacy, and their knowledge of appropriate technology for group presentations. Students choose two seminars in the first year—SC 101 in the fall, restricted to first-year students, and a seminar on the designated first year theme in the spring semester; one in the sophomore year, either fall or spring semester; one in junior year, either fall or spring semester. Only one themed seminar can count toward a student's major. Faculty advisors will work with students to choose themed seminars that introduce them to the arts, humanities, and social sciences.

First year: Crafting Meaningful Lives

The first year Wells experience is designed to root students in the creative, transformative world of learning. These writing attentive seminars examine the way engagement in social issues, political action, creative work in the arts and sciences, and the pursuit of knowledge bring meaning and focus to individual lives.

Fall: SC 101 is designed to teach writing, analysis and interpretation in a small, topic-focused seminar.

Spring: One designated CML theme seminar

Second year: Local & Global Interconnections

"Think Globally. Act Locally" is more than just a bumper sticker. Since the 1970s when the phrase originated, it's been argued that global problems can be turned into action only by considering variations in the ecology, economy, and culture of local surroundings. In these sophomore seminars, students will develop an understanding of interconnections between local and global experiences in the past, present, and future.

Fall or Spring: One designated LGI theme seminar

Third Year: Contemporary Challenges & Ethical Engagement

The world in which we live is full of challenges--poverty, war, political unrest, gender inequality, illness, illiteracy, and environmental degradation, to name a few. In third year seminars, students will examine the concepts and processes of ethical reasoning through focus on concrete social or global issues. The accompanying service learning component will encourage a deeper understanding of the impact of individual actions and choices as students engage with selves and others.

Fall or Spring: One CCEE designated theme seminar

(2) SC 100 Wellness, Engagement, and Lifelong Learning for Success (WELLS) (3 semester hours).

Students will be introduced in a holistic manner to the values, resources, and support services of Wells College. Staff and Peer Leaders will help students develop healthy habits for living, learning, and being a contributing member of the Wells community. Students will engage in hands-on and participatory experiences both inside and outside of the classroom which will help them to better understand themselves and the community.

(3) Quantitative reasoning (QR) (3 semester hours). One course on mathematical concepts and skills develops students' understanding of how real-world problems are approached and solved. Most courses in mathematics, as well as designated courses in other disciplines, fulfill this requirement.

(4) Critical analysis and reasoning (CAR) (3 semester hours). Students choose one designated course in which they learn to apply higher order analytic and creative cognitive processes to arrive at reasoned and supportable conclusions and to apply knowledge within and across academic disciplines.

(5) Natural Sciences (NS) (3 or 4 semester hours). One laboratory course involving hands-on learning develops students' understanding of the reasoning involved in developing, supporting, and discarding scientific theories and elucidates the distinction between scientific and other types of explanations.

(6) Modern Languages (6 to 8 semester hours). Two courses at the college level in a single language other than English develop students' appreciation for languages and cultures in a global context. Students may also fulfill this requirement by placement through examination to the 200-level.

(7) Physical Education activities. At least one physical activity each year to develop students' bodily-kinesthetic intelligence (i.e., awareness of the body and what to do to take care of it) and encourage them to engage in healthy behaviors which facilitate the cultivation of meaningful lives. PE courses and participation in select dance classes can be used to fulfill this requirement.

(8) Experiential Learning (3-8 semester hours). Experiential learning, generally achieved through internships, off-campus study, or student teaching, enables students to apply course-based learning to situations outside the classroom. By critically reflecting on their experiences and sharing what they have learned with others, students deepen their knowledge of the liberal arts as well as their own career and personal goals. Wells students are required to complete two experiential learning opportunities during their time at Wells. At least one experiential learning activity must be off campus and only one can be for one semester hour of credit. For students transferring in with 60 credits or more, only one (off-campus) experiential learning activity is required. Options that can be used to fulfill the Experiential Learning Requirement:

- Credit-bearing internships (domestic or international), including WLLS 190, 290, and 390 will satisfy one or more of the experiential learning requirements.
- Off-campus study abroad will satisfy one experiential learning requirement per country.
- Off-campus study in the U.S. will satisfy one experiential learning requirement when fieldwork or an internship is associated with the off-campus study.
- Experiential learning seminars and service-based learning independent studies (separate from regular Wells courses) will each satisfy one or more of the experiential learning requirements.
- Student teaching will count as one of the experiential learning requirements.

Please note that all experiences that fulfill the objectives can be counted as long as a faculty member agrees to sponsor the activity and to ensure the objectives are met.

(9) Senior year, Sustainable Community capstone (2 semester hours). All seniors in the first half of the spring semester will choose a designated multidisciplinary capstone that explores different perspectives on key ideas or problems such as climate instability, evolution, or globalism. Students will use a variety of critical approaches to focus on interdisciplinary connections, reflecting on and integrating liberal arts in the service of lifelong learning.

Note: Students should carefully plan when they will complete all requirements for their degree. An up-to-date list of courses that fulfill the college requirements can be found on the Registrar's page on the Globe. Students who delay completion of college requirements until their senior year risk taking longer than the expected years in residence at Wells to complete their degree. The Registrar will evaluate transfer students' files on case by case basis in order to determine remaining college requirements. Students have access to track their progress on the Globe.

Course Requirements and semester hour limitations:

1. Students must successfully complete a minimum of 120 semester hours of college level credit.
2. At least 60 semester hours must be taken on campus at Wells College or in Wells College approved programs. While students may take more than 20 semester hours in Wells off-campus programs, no more than 20 semester hours will be counted toward the 60 semester hour requirement.
3. At least 6 courses (3-4 semester hours each) in a major must be taken at Wells College or through an approved program. For students declaring a minor, at least 4 courses (3-4 semester hours each) in that minor must be taken at Wells College.
4. Students, whether first-year or transfer, are expected to satisfy College requirements, the requirements of the major, and the requirements of any minor as stated in the catalog in effect at the time of first matriculation at Wells College. Students who cease to attend the College for two years or more will be expected to meet the requirements as stated in the catalog in effect at the time of return.
5. For the degree of Bachelor of Arts no more than 45 semester hours in any one discipline shall be included in the 120 semester hours required for the degree. For the degree of Bachelor of Science no more than 55 semester hours in any one discipline shall be included in the 120 semester hours required for the degree.
6. Students shall maintain a minimum Grade Point Average of 2.0 for all Wells and Wells-approved courses.
7. Students may earn no more than 4 semester hours of credit during any given January Intercession and no more than 8 semester hours during the summer.
8. No more than six semester hours of courses graded "S/U" may be used toward the major.
9. A student may not elect a double concentration within a major.
10. There is a limit of eight semester hours of credit toward the minimum 120 semester hours of credit required for graduation for courses that bear fewer than three semester hours of credit in the following two categories: physical education courses, and arts and performance courses (except those taken to meet requirements toward the major or minor).
11. There is a maximum of 12 semester hours of credit for internships and 12 semester hours of credit for independent study counts toward the 120 required for graduation.
12. There is a maximum of 8 semester hours of credit for tutorials counts toward the 120 required for graduation.

Semester hours in excess of the above stated limits will require the same number of semester hours in excess of 120 in order to graduate.

Degree Expected

Except for students in 3/2 or 3/4 articulation programs, students with senior standing may participate in Commencement activities "degree expected" if all requirements for the major, the senior comprehensive evaluation and at least 114 semester hours will have been completed. Such students are expected to complete the remaining work by the end of the calendar year. Students in a 3/2 or 3/4 articulation program are expected to follow the terms of the program and may participate in Commencement activities when the work at Wells is completed. The Registrar determines eligibility to participate in Commencement activities degree expected.

The Major

Each Wells student must elect a major to assure exploration of an area of interest in-depth, and to develop the knowledge and skills involved in the mastery of a field. If a student's educational goals are better met by developing an individualized major than by electing an established major, the student may, with the advice of her or his faculty advisor and other appropriate faculty members, develop an Individualized Major.

No major for the Bachelor of Arts will require more than 65 semester hours. No major for the Bachelor of Science will require more than 75 semester hours. A student may not elect a double concentration within a major.

Double Major

If a student feels her or his plans necessitate a double major or double degree rather than a major and a minor, she or he must file a double major/double degree proposal form with the registrar. This proposal must indicate how the student's proposed plan of study meets the College's goals for a sound liberal arts program, including courses that satisfy the Core Requirements. The proposal must be approved by an advisor from each major. The student must have a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.0 at the time of the proposal. Final approval rests with the Academic Standing, Advising, and Admissions Committee.

GPA Requirement

To be eligible for graduation, a student must have earned a GPA of at least 2.0 in the work in the major.

The Minor

Although minors are not required, a student desiring a minor shall declare it on a Declaration of Minor form, available in the Registrar's Office or online, no later than the last day of classes of the first semester of his or her senior year. The declaration must be approved by the student's major advisor and the faculty coordinator for the minor. Requirements of the minors can be found in the section of the Catalog devoted to Majors and Minors. In order to have a minor noted on the transcript, a student must earn an overall GPA of 2.0 or better in courses used for the minor. No more than 50% of the semester hours to be applied to the minor may also be applied to the major.

Each minor must be approved by the faculty coordinator for the minor. A minimum of 50% of the courses must be unique to each minor. A minimum of four courses (12 semester hours) must be taken at Wells College or in an approved program to complete a minor. No more than four semester hours graded "S/U" may be used toward the minor. Wells does not offer individualized minors.

PRE-PROFESSIONAL PROGRAMS

Students having a particular professional goal that they wish to pursue during their years at Wells can take advantage of a number of programs (described below) that offer the possibility of challenging future careers; some will give the student professional certification; others will lead to a second degree in addition to the Wells degree.

Pre-law

Advisor: Associate Professor Frazier

Wells College is a member of the Northeast Association of Pre-law Advisors and offers counseling to students who wish to pursue the graduate study of law. The pre-law advisors assist students in planning their undergraduate programs, preparing for the LSAT, and completing law school applications. Students intending to prepare for law school may begin working with the advisors in their first year. Special programs held on campus will introduce students to representatives from law schools and to Wells College alumnae/i who have completed law school. Wells College also participates in Law School Day at Cornell University each fall.

The preparation for law school at Wells is based upon the Association of Law Schools' recommendation that a broad liberal arts curriculum, such as that at Wells, best prepares students for the multi-disciplinary study of law. In addition to the student's major area of study, the student is encouraged to participate in the Wells College internship program and gain practical experience in a law-related setting.

Health professions including medicine, nursing, dentistry, veterinary medicine, and other health professions

Medical and other health programs recommend an undergraduate preparation that combines a thorough grounding in science, breadth and depth of study in the liberal arts, and a major that matches the interest and aptitude of the student.

The academic program at Wells includes extensive internship and abundant research opportunities both on and off campus. The combination of academic program, practical experience, and comprehensive individual advising has given Wells students an excellent record in admission to schools in the health professions.

Wells College is a member of the Northeast Association of Advisors for Health Professions (www.neeahp.org) and is also affiliated with the Central New York Area Health Education Center (www.cnyahec.com).

Members of the Wells College Health Professions Advising Committee serve as supplementary advisors in matters related to preparing for careers in the health sciences. Contact them at prehealth@wells.edu.

Educational Studies Program

The Wells education program is designed to train professional educators for the demands of the 21st century. Wells prepares teachers to have a critical understanding of current theory and to be responsive and skilled practitioners. The program at Wells is registered with New York State and accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP). Students who complete the Inclusive Childhood Education major and pass the required New York State examinations qualify for initial New York State certification in general Childhood Education (grades 1-6) and Teaching Students with Disabilities (grades 1-6). Students who complete the Adolescence Education Certification Program (the Adolescence Education minor, a major in the supporting content area, and a full semester of student teaching) and pass the required New York State examinations qualify for initial certification (grades 7-12).

Notes

- During the 2015-2016 academic year, 14 students were formally enrolled in the Wells College Certification Program in Inclusive Childhood or Adolescence Education. These students applied for admission and were accepted into the Certification Program at the end of their sophomore year. Five of these students participated in student teaching during that academic year, teaching an average of 30 hours per week for a period of 14 weeks. Five students completed the teacher education certification program at Wells during 2015-2016 and 100% of these students passed the New York State EAS (Educating All Students Test) and CST (Content Specialty Tests). 100% of these students also passed the edTPA (Teaching Performance Assessment).

General Requirements

- Application for acceptance in the education program takes place in the second semester of a student's sophomore year.
- Students must have completed at least 40 semester hours of coursework with a minimum GPA of 3.0 and earned a B- or higher in EDUC 105 (Teaching in a Diverse Society) or its equivalent at another college.
- In addition, students must provide the name of a faculty reference and a statement describing why they would like to complete the certification program.
- All candidates for certification are required to do an internship in an educational setting and take EDUC 408 Student Teaching Reflective Seminar along with EDUC 410 Student Teaching.
- Students must complete required course work and 100 hours of field experience in education prior to student teaching. In addition, to qualify for student teaching they must have a minimum GPA of 3.0 and earned a B- or higher in the required methods courses (Inclusive Childhood: EDUC 301, 302, 304, 307, 405 or Adolescence: EDUC 304, 331, 332, 406). Student teaching placement will be determined by Wells faculty in cooperation with regional school personnel. No placement will be approved without the Wells faculty involvement. Student teachers are required to teach for 12 weeks, full-time in two classrooms suitable to the certification area sought. NOTE: Student teachers will be expected to provide their own housing, if necessary, as well as transportation.
- Students will be required to attend seminars on substance abuse, child abuse, school violence and harassment/bullying.
- Candidates for initial teaching certification will be required to take standardized tests sponsored by the New York State Education Department in addition to the courses required by the program and submit to a fingerprint screening prior to student teaching .

Childhood Education

Additional requirements for certification:Multi-Subject Core Requirements:

In addition to the Education Core students must complete a minimum of 30 credit hours across the liberal arts. These credit hours may overlap with general college requirements and 6 of these credits may overlap with the chosen minor. The 30 liberal arts credits must address learning in the following areas and be approved by an education faculty advisor:

- Artistic expression
- Humanities
- Concepts in history and social sciences
- A language other than English
- Written analysis and expression
- Scientific and mathematical processes
- Information retrieval
- Communication skills

3/2 AND 4+1 ARTICULATION PROGRAMS

General Requirements:

- Application for acceptance into an articulation program must be made to the appropriate major program, and a Major Declaration must be filed no later than the end of the first year at Wells College.
- Major requirements and Comprehensive Evaluation commitments should be arranged through the major program faculty at the time of declaration.
- The approval of the Academic Standing, Advising, and Admissions Committee is required for participation in the program. A major GPA of 3.0 or better is generally required.
- Graduation arrangements should be completed during the fourth year; students in articulation programs may march in Commencement at the end of their fourth year.
- Although the Wells degree includes the work of the fourth year, no Wells financial aid is available the fourth year. It is the student's responsibility to see that all official transcripts are sent to the Registrar's Office prior to receipt of the Wells degree.

Education (4+1): B.A. Wells/M.A.T. or M.S. University of Rochester

Advisor: Professor Wansor

Wells College has a formal agreement with the Margaret Warner Graduate School of Education at the University of Rochester. We have developed a 4+1 program (4 years at Wells and 1 year at the Warner School) for Wells College undergraduates that would result in a B.A. from Wells College and a Master's degree from the Warner School. This program would also meet all the academic requirements for obtaining Professional Teaching Certification from New York State. It is appropriate for two groups of Wells students:

- those who will have completed their initial certification within their bachelor's degree program, but who need a master's degree for professional certification, and
- those who decided to pursue a teaching career too late in their program at Wells to enable them to get their initial teaching certification as part of their bachelor's degree. The Warner program offers these students the option of completing both their certification and their master's degree at the same time.

Wells students can apply either during their junior or senior year. One advantage of the program is that Wells students may apply for early admission during their junior year, an opportunity not afforded to students from other undergraduate colleges. Wells students admitted to the program may begin taking classes at the Warner School during the summers after both their junior and senior years.

Engineering (3/2): B.A., Major in Physics or other approved major/B.S. in Engineering

Advisor: Professor Heinekamp

The student interested in engineering may combine technical courses with the more broadening experience of study at a liberal arts college by undertaking our 3/2 program in engineering at Wells.

The arrangements with Cornell University in Ithaca, Clarkson University in Potsdam, New York, and Columbia University in New York City, lead to the Bachelor of Arts from Wells College, as well as the Bachelor of Science in engineering from these universities. A student may easily arrange, with the approval of the Engineering Committee, a program with engineering colleges other than those with formal 3/2 arrangements with Wells.

The major at Wells is ordinarily physics, followed by study in the area of interest within the engineering field at the coordinate institution (in some cases, an alternative Wells science major would be more appropriate). After three years at Wells, a student transfers to the coordinate institution. There, in the fourth year, any remaining Wells B.A. requirements are completed as part of the engineering curriculum. At the end of the fifth year, the Bachelor of Science in engineering from the university will be awarded, along with a degree from Wells. Exceptionally talented students may earn the master's degree in engineering at Columbia University by completing additional courses during summer sessions.

Students will complete all major and distribution requirements of Wells College before entering Columbia. They may seek an exception to this requirement by writing to the SEAS Dean (School of Engineering and Applied Science). The request must be accompanied by a letter of support from the dual-degree engineering director at the participating institution. Exceptions will be made at the sole discretion of the SEAS's dean.

Business Administration (4+1): B.A., Major in Economics and Management or other approved major/M.B.A.

Advisor: Professor Uddin

Wells has a formal articulation (transfer) agreement with Clarkson University in Potsdam, New York, under which Wells students graduating with a B.A. and who have taken the required business foundation courses specified in the agreement may apply for a one-year M.B.A. program at Clarkson and, if accepted, can complete the program within one academic year. (One or all of the foundation courses may be taken in the Summer Business Concepts Program at Clarkson in the summer prior to beginning the M.B.A. program.) The Clarkson M.B.A. program is intensive and rigorous with an integrated curriculum that focuses on the global environment, technology in the work place, teamwork, leadership, and integrity. Tracks within the M.B.A. program other than the general M.B.A. are global supply chain management, environmental management, and innovation and new venture management.

Nursing (4+1+2): BA/BS from Wells, BS in Nursing, Nurse Practitioner Masters from University of Rochester

Advisor: Pre-health Advising Group

Wells has an early acceptance program with University of Rochester School of Nursing program. Students will complete a BA/BS at Wells, including prerequisites for Nursing courses. After graduation, students will spend one year earning a BS in Nursing and then move on to enter the Nurse Practitioner Master's Program which can be completed in two years.

Students must have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better and can choose to end the program after earning the BS in Nursing.

CROSS-REGISTRATION AGREEMENTS

A student may register for one course a semester at no extra charge, up to a total of four courses, at one of the area institutions below. Courses taken under these agreements will appear on the Wells transcript and will be included in the Wells grade point average. (Summer work taken at these institutions is not included in the cross-registration agreements.)

Cornell University — Undergraduate Cross-Registration Program

Wells full-time matriculated students may register for courses offered by any of the seven undergraduate colleges of Cornell University that do not duplicate a Wells course. This option is open to students in good academic standing after completing the first semester. Wells students may register for four courses during their years at Wells, taking one course per semester after approval by the academic advisor and the Wells registrar. Except with prior approval from the advisor and the registrar, students should not expect to fulfill College distribution or major requirements by taking courses under this program. For summer work taken at Cornell, or any work during the semester for which the student pays Cornell tuition, the courses will be treated as any other transfer work. Students taking a course at Cornell under the exchange agreement may not take a course in the same semester at Cayuga Community College (CCC) under the exchange agreement with CCC, nor at Ithaca College (IC) under the exchange agreement with IC.

Students interested in engineering can undertake a 3/2 program with Cornell University. This leads to a Bachelor of Arts from Wells College, as well as a Bachelor of Science in Engineering from Cornell (see 3/2 and 3/4 Articulation Programs).

Cayuga Community College Cross-Registration Program

As part of the Wells College-Cayuga Community College Exchange Program, full-time matriculated students may register for courses offered by CCC that do not duplicate a Wells course and are acceptable for transfer to Wells College. This option is open to students with a minimum cumulative grade point average of at least 2.0 and after completing the first semester. A student may take one course a semester at CCC, but no more than four throughout her or his career at Wells, and must be granted permission by the academic advisor and the registrar. Except with prior approval from the advisor and the registrar, students should not expect to fulfill College distribution or major requirements by taking courses under this program. For summer work taken at CCC, or any work during the semester for which the student pays CCC tuition, the courses will be treated as any other transfer work. Students taking a course at CCC under the exchange agreement may not take a course in the same semester at Cornell University under the exchange agreement with Cornell, nor at Ithaca College under the exchange agreement with IC. At the conclusion of the course, students are responsible for ordering and paying for a transcript to be sent to Wells from CCC.

Ithaca College — Undergraduate Cross-Registration Program

Under the Wells College-Ithaca College Exchange Program, full-time matriculated students may register for courses offered by Ithaca College that do not duplicate a Wells course and are acceptable for transfer to Wells College. This option is open to students with a minimum cumulative grade point average of at least 2.0 and after completing the first semester. A student may take one course per semester at IC, but no more than 12 semester credits total (CU and CCC programs each allow four courses) throughout her or his career at Wells, and must be granted permission by the academic advisor and the registrar. A student should not expect to fulfill College distribution or major requirements by taking courses under this program, except with prior approval from the advisor and the registrar. For summer work taken at IC, or any work during the semester for which the student pays IC tuition, the courses will be treated as any other transfer work. Students taking a course at IC under the agreement may not take a course in the same semester at Cornell University under the agreement with CU, nor at Cayuga Community College under the agreement with CCC.

OTHER ACADEMIC INFORMATION

Accreditation

Wells College is fully accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools, Commission on Higher Education, and by the New York State Department of Education. Current documents concerning the College's accreditation are available for review upon request to the Office of the President.

The Calendar

Wells College organizes its academic year on the semester system, with two semesters. Each semester has 14 weeks of classes, plus a week of finals.

Semester Hours

Most Wells College courses are three or four semester hours; students must earn a minimum of 120 semester hours to graduate. Each semester hour represents one 50-minute class period, or one period of two to three hours each week, for a semester. Some courses carry fewer than three semester hours; these include courses in physical education, theatre, dance, music, research, and tutorials.

Normal Course Load/Full-Time Status

The normal course load is 15 hours per semester; 12 semester hours will be considered full-time. Students holding state or federal loans, scholarships, or grants are required to carry a minimum of 12 semester hours each semester.

Overloads

Students who wish to take 18-20 semester hours in one semester must have a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.8, advisor approval, and registrar approval. First year, first semester students who wish to take more than 16 credits, students wishing to take more than 20 credits, and students with a cumulative GPA below a 2.8 must file a petition.

Attendance

It is the general policy of the College that class attendance is expected, but instructors have the right and the obligation to set their own policies regarding absences.

Catalog in Effect

Each student, whether first-year or transfer student, is expected to satisfy College requirements, the requirements of her or his major, and the requirements of her or his minor (if applicable) as stated in the catalog in effect at the time they first matriculate at Wells College. If, however, a student ceases to attend the College for two years or more, they will be expected to meet major, minor, and College requirements as stated in the catalog in effect at the time they return.

Time Limit

Each student is expected to complete the requirements for the degree within seven years of matriculation at Wells.

Accelerated Programs

Wells College prefers students experience a four year residency but may allow students to advance as their ability and preparation permit. Students who have completed advanced work in secondary school or by private study, or who have satisfactorily completed courses of an acceptable nature at other institutions, can apply for advanced standing for academic credit under the rules for credit for prior experience.

Degree with Honors

The traditional Latin honors, cum laude, magna cum laude, and summa cum laude, are awarded at graduation for excellence in course work throughout a student's Wells College career. The degree of Bachelor of Arts is awarded cum laude to those who have a Wells grade point average of 3.50 to 3.749; magna cum laude to those who have a Wells grade point average of 3.75 to 3.899; and summa cum laude to those who have a Wells grade point average of 3.90 or above.

Distinction in the Major

The degree will be awarded With Distinction in the major field to any student who 1) has shown outstanding ability (GPA of 3.50 or above) in course work in the major field in the sophomore, junior, and senior years; 2) has shown the capacity to do independent work with a high degree of initiative, genuine intellectual curiosity, and a sense of responsibility; 3) is recommended by faculty in the major field.

Academic Advising and Registration

The College's academic advising system strikes the balance between making advisors easily accessible and encouraging student initiative in seeking advice. Upon entering Wells, each student is assigned an academic advisor. It is the special responsibility of these advisors to encourage each student to choose a program of study within the liberal arts that is varied and broad. Upon declaration of major, each student selects or is assigned an advisor from the major field who will help guide her or his studies. Although a student is assigned to one particular advisor, students are encouraged to consult with anyone or with several advisors to gain opinions, expertise, and perspectives.

All students register for classes on-line through the Globe. New students will have the opportunity to become acquainted with the College community, consult with a faculty advisor regarding a degree program, and register for classes at Wells Warm-up or during orientation sessions. Continuing students register for fall classes during the designated registration period in the spring semester, and register for spring classes during the designated registration period in the fall semester. During the period of academic advising just prior to registration, the student's schedule for the semester shall be planned with, and approved by, the student's faculty advisor.

Each student is responsible for registering on-line on or before the deadline set by the registrar.

A late registration fee of $150 will be incurred by any student who does not register before the first day of classes, unless exempted by the dean of the college or the registrar, who must receive a written request from the student stating the reasons for late registration. The fee does not apply to revisions of previously submitted programs that are made during the drop/add period.

Adding, Dropping, Withdrawing from Courses

A student may add a class through the first ten days of classes (the instructor's signature is required after the fifth class day), and drop a class (with no record) through the 10th class day (the 5th class day for 7-week classes). A student may withdraw from any course after the end of the established drop period and before the end of the ninth week of classes with the signature of the instructor and the academic advisor. The withdrawal will appear on the student's transcript with a grade of "W." After the ninth week of classes, and before the end of classes, a student who wishes to withdraw from a class must petition the dean of the college. If the petition is approved, the student will receive a grade of "W" or "WF" (withdraw or withdraw failing) based on work to date except in cases by which — in the judgment of the dean of the college — the withdrawal was required for medical or other grave personal reasons. In such cases the student will receive a grade of "W" (see also Withdrawal from the College).

Prerequisites

A student is expected to have the prerequisites and corequisites stated in a course description in order to enroll in a course unless she or he obtains written permission from the instructor to waive the pre- or corequisite. A student may not move backward in a prerequisite sequence; in other words, a student may not receive credit for a course that is listed as a prerequisite for a course that has already been taken or for which credit has been granted.

Repeating a Course

Students may only repeat courses for which they have previously earned a grade of "U" or a grade of "D+" or lower, or courses that are designated "repeatable."

In the case of a course designated "repeatable," every grade earned shall be posted on the transcript and be calculated into the semester, cumulative, and major grade point averages. This is true even when a grade of "U" or "F" is received.

In the case of a course not designated "repeatable," and for which the student received a grade of "U" or a grade of "D+" or lower, the following regulations apply:

- A course can only be repeated once;
- Repeats are limited to courses taken on the Wells campus or on Wells approved programs only;
- The college will only award credit for a repeated course once;
- Both grades will be posted on the transcript;
- Only the second grade earned will be calculated into the semester, cumulative and major grade point averages. This is true even when the second grade is lower than the first grade;
- Students may take a repeated course pass/fail.

Note: Because repeating courses may have financial aid implications, students are not be able to use the GLOBE to self-register to repeat courses. Instead, students must consult with the Registrar in order to register for a repeated course.

Auditing a Course

A student may visit a course on mutual agreement between her- or himself and the instructor. If they register for an "audit," they must participate actively in the course and must complete all work specified by the instructor at the beginning of the course. A student desiring to audit a course shall get permission of both the faculty advisor and the instructor of the course no later than the 10th class day.

Under either of the following circumstances, students must petition the dean of the college: if they wish to audit more than one course in a semester or if the request to audit a course is made after the 10th class day. Approval is not automatic, and normally petitions to change the status of a course to an audit will not be approved after the sixth week of classes, unless there are medical reasons.

Independent Study, Research

Students at Wells have rich opportunities to conduct independent study and research. Students pursue independent work through research courses in the sciences, independent study courses, advanced creative work, tutorials, and through the senior comprehensive requirement. Independent work may involve laboratory or library research, creative projects, or other appropriate study.

Independent study courses are available for those students who have demonstrated an ability to work without close supervision. The purpose of independent study is to supplement the more structured methods of regular courses with the opportunity for the student of high initiative and responsibility to apply her or his abilities to new material with a minimum of guidance. While there are not formal course prerequisites for such work, it is the normal expectation that independent projects will involve explorations in-depth of some specific topic within a general area in which the student has done extensive prior work.

Exceptions may be made in cases where a student of generally demonstrated capability wishes to do exploratory work in a field in which she or he has little or no background, in a manner not provided for by the regular curriculum. Independent study normally is conducted at the 300 level as [Topic of Study] 399. Under exceptional circumstances and at the discretion of the instructor, students may undertake independent study with the designation [Topic of Study] 199 or 299, to indicate that the work is not at a level sufficiently advanced to warrant a 300-level designation. In cases of utterly irreconcilable schedule conflicts, a course from the regular curriculum can be taken as an independent study with the regular course number, but only at the discretion of the instructor and with approval from the Curriculum Committee.

First year students in their second semester, sophomores, juniors or seniors may pursue one Independent Study Project during any semester. Students who have a plan for Independent Study should consult with the instructor under whose guidance the work is proposed. If the instructor approves the project, a brief description of the project and the amount of credit proposed for it, approved by the instructor and advisor, must be submitted on the Independent Study Form available through the Registrar's Office. Final approval of all projects rests with the Curriculum Committee; copies of the proposal shall be distributed to the instructor and student upon approval or disapproval. Students should not assume approval until formally so notified.

There is a $1,175 per semester hour charge for a Wells independent study course taken in the summer.

Credit for Prior Study and Life Experience

Students who have completed advanced work in secondary school or by private study, or who have satisfactorily completed courses of an acceptable nature at other institutions may receive advanced standing or academic credit toward the Wells degree in the following ways:

- Transfer Courses: Passing a college-level, non-remedial course in the Liberal Arts or Sciences with a grade of C- or better taken from an accredited college or university regardless of the mode of delivery. Students entering Wells College under an articulation agreement shall be granted credit according to the agreement. Coursework from non-regionally accredited institutions will be evaluated on a case by case basis.
- Articulation Agreements: Entering with an Associate degree under an articulation agreement. Such students will be granted credit according to the agreement.
- Advanced Placement Exams: Scoring a grade of three, four or five on the Advanced Placement exam in a liberal arts field.
- British A-level Examinations: Students who complete three A-level examinations with grades of C or above are eligible for sophomore standing (30 semester hours).
- International Baccalaureate: A student who earns results of 30 or better on the full International Baccalaureate diploma program and has no score lower than four in any one of the six examination groups will receive sophomore standing (30 semester hours). If a score of 30 or better is not achieved, credit for higher level (HL) exams with a score of 5 or better may be considered (5 semester hours per exam). No credit is given for standard level (SL) exams. To evaluate IB credit, Wells College needs the IB diploma or transcript sent directly from the IB organization to the Wells College Registrar's Office.
- Other External Programs: For similar external programs, credit will be awarded at the discretion of the registrar and the committee on Academic Standing and Advising, with appropriate consultation with relevant disciplines; applicability to a major/minor or placement in advanced courses rests with the major advisor or minor coordinator. Each program is to be reviewed individually.
- CLEP: Passing a College-Level Examination Program (CLEP) student examination in a subject covered in the Wells College curriculum, and prior to enrollment at Wells, with at least the minimum score recommended by the American Council of Education. Normally no more than two courses (4-8 semester hours) of such credit may be applied toward a Wells degree.
- Credit by Examination: At the discretion of the instructor, taking and passing an examination designed by the instructor of a Wells course to cover the material of that course. Normally no more than two courses (6-8 semester hours) of such credit may be applied toward a Wells degree. Examination so requested must be taken during the student's first year of attendance and must be taken before further credit is completed in the discipline.

- Prior Experience Internship Credit: Submitting material in evidence of previous professional experience (paid or non-paid) for approval for internship credit by the relevant discipline internship coordinator and by the Academic Standing and Advising Committee. Such approval is normally given only for work completed after high school graduation and is based on written material submitted by the student, describing in detail the experience gained and its relationship to her or his academic work, and a letter of evaluation from a supervisor or employer. Credit so earned is limited to a maximum of two internships (6-8 semester hours).
- Credit by Portfolio: Submitting portfolios that demonstrate learning and document experience. Such portfolios shall be presented, developed, and articulated in consultation with a faculty member. Portfolios approved by the faculty member shall be submitted to the Academic Standing, Advising, and Admissions Committee within the student's first semester at Wells for approval for credit. Credit so earned is limited to a maximum of two courses (6-8 semester hours).

In all cases, placement in advanced courses and applications to the requirements for the major will be at the discretion of the major field chair.

No grades will be entered on a student's Wells College record for semester hours earned through these means.

Declaration of Major

Entering students may indicate a single intended major from those listed in the Catalog. Upon meeting with a faculty member in the major during or after their first semester on campus, enrolled students may officially declare their major. Students must declare a major by the end of the seventh week of the semester in which they expect to have earned 60 credit hours. Failure to declare a major by this deadline will result in a registration hold. Students transferring in with 60 or more credit hours must declare a major on entry.

Policy on Individualized Majors

Students may propose a self-designed individualized major if they have an educational objective that would be better served than by pursuing one of the established majors at Wells College or by pursuing an established major and minor. Each individualized major is expected to meet the philosophical and educational goals of Wells College and to afford the student maximum exposure to the breadth and depth of a liberal education as well as an opportunity to undertake advanced work in an area of special interest. The individualized major must have a clear focus, and at least two disciplines must be substantially represented. The Curriculum Committee will approve or reject these programs.

Regulations for Individualized Majors

The proposed individualized major must have a minimum of 36 semester hours, a maximum of 45 semester hours on one discipline, and a maximum of 65 semester hours overall, including the senior essay/project, IM 401 (4 semester hours). It must include a minimum of 18 semester hours of work at the 300-level or above. The minimum required cumulative GPA at the time of application is 2.7.

Grades

Criteria

Grades at Wells College are recorded in terms of the letters A, B, C, D, F with additional gradation for the letters "A" through "D," indicated by plus or minus signs. The grade of "A+" is the highest possible grade; the grade of "D-" is the lowest passing grade; and the grade of "F" indicates failure. The numerical equivalents of these letter grades are as follows: A+ = 97-100; A = 93-96; A- = 90-92; B+ = 87-89; B = 83-86; B- = 80-82; C+ = 77-79; C = 73-76; C- = 70-72; D+ = 67-69; D = 63-66; D- = 60-62; F = 59 and below.

Any grade in the "A" range indicates work of the highest quality; such work will generally be characterized not only by accuracy, but also by excellence in such qualities as comprehensiveness, insight, and originality. Any grade in the "B" range indicates work of good quality; such work will often show some of the qualities that characterize "A" work. Any grade in the "C" range indicates work of satisfactory quality; such work will generally be reasonably accurate, but may show only limited comprehensiveness, insight, and originality. Any grade in the "D" range indicates work that is below average in quality but acceptable; such work may be unsatisfactory in certain aspects, but will be satisfactory in others. Grades of "F" or "U" indicate work that is unsatisfactory.

Conspicuous Failure

In case of a conspicuous failure in a final examination, when the student, in the opinion of the instructor, fails to show anything like a satisfactory comprehension of the subject, the student may be marked as failing the course even though the numerical value of the classwork would yield a grade of D-.

Grade Reports

At the close of each semester, grades will be available for students to view on the Globe. Students who have not returned library books or have an outstanding financial obligation to the College will not be issued a transcript until the block is cleared, but they can view their grades online. The financially responsible parent may also request grade reports providing that he/she certifies to the registrar that the student is carried as a dependent on the most current federal income tax return.

Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory

Instructors may designate courses to be graded Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory. A grade of "S" shall be the equivalent of the letter grades "A" through "D" (and associated pluses and minuses). A grade of "U" shall be the equivalent of an "F" in letter-graded courses. It is a course instructor's right and duty to determine course grades.

No more than six semester hours of courses graded S/U may be used for a major. No more than four semester hours of courses graded S/U may be used for a minor. Grades of "S" are not included in computation of the GPA.

Pass/Fail Option

Students may choose to take courses pass/fail. The following regulations apply:

- At the time of registration, or within the first 10 days of either semester, students may designate courses that are normally graded on a letter scale to be graded Pass or Fail. A first-year student may elect one course on a pass or fail basis, in the Spring Semester. A sophomore, junior, or senior may elect up to one course per semester for which a grade of Pass or Fail may be earned.
- After the first 10 days in either semester, students must petition the Academic Standing, Advising, and Admissions Committee to change the basis of grading a course, either from a letter grade to a grade of pass or fail, or from a grade of pass or fail to a letter grade. After the sixth week of classes, such petitions shall be approved only in unusual circumstances, such as when there are medical reasons.
- Students may not take courses for the major or the minor as pass/fail.
- In the computation of grade point averages, all grades of P shall be disregarded by the Registrar and all grades of F shall have the numerical equivalent of 0.
- Pass/fail courses are not included in the 12 graded hours required each semester to be eligible for that semester's dean's list.
- In determining eligibility to return for another year, or candidacy for the degree, courses with a grade of Pass are included in the total hours of satisfactory work.

Grade Appeal

If a student feels that there is a mistake in the grade earned, he or she must meet with the instructor before the end of the second full week of the subsequent semester. If a course instructor is no longer at the College, the student shall meet with the chair of the major involved. If an instructor wishes to change a recorded grade, he or she will submit to the dean of the college a request for the change.

Grades will be changed only because of the instructor's corrected calculation of the grade or because of the instructor's decision to consider lost work submitted by the student. Upon approval by the dean, the change will be recorded by the registrar.

Incompletes

- 1) Under extraordinary circumstances an instructor may request a grade of I (Incomplete) be assigned if a student is unable to complete the work of a course on schedule but will be able to complete it at a later date without further class attendance. The extraordinary circumstances must be beyond the student's control (e.g., reasons of health or severe personal contingencies), and they must be documentable. The need for the Incomplete must have become apparent after the withdrawal period, and the student must have been passing the course at that time.
- 2) The student must file the incomplete grade request and contract form with the Registrar by the last day of the final exam period. Both the student and the instructor must sign the contract. The incomplete grade request and contract form shall specify the requirements yet to be completed and the deadline for completion (no later than the end of the eighth week of the subsequent semester). The form shall also specify what the grade shall be if the work is not completed. If a contract is not submitted, the instructor may not assign an incomplete but shall assign the grade that the student would earn without completing the remaining work for the course. In order for the incomplete grade request to be granted, it must be approved by the Registrar and Director of Academic Advising and Success.

3) When faculty do not submit a grade, or an Incomplete Grade and Contract Form in lieu of a grade, or in cases where they indicate the student has dropped or withdrawn, but the registrar has no record of this, the registrar shall assign a grade of F* or U* (administrative assignment of a failing or unsatisfactory grade), which has the same effect on the GPA as a grade of F or U.

Grade Point Average

For the computation of academic standing, a grade point system is used. In this system A+ = 4.3; A = 4.0; A- = 3.7; B+ = 3.3; B = 3.0; B- = 2.7; C+ = 2.3; C = 2.0; C- = 1.7; D+ = 1.3; D = 1.0; D- = 0.7; F = 0; and U = 0. Unless designated otherwise, courses are graded in terms of the letters, A, B, C, D, F, with additional gradation for the letters "A" through "D" indicated by plus or minus signs. Certain courses are graded as: "S" (satisfactory), "U" (unsatisfactory); these courses are so designated in the Courses of Instruction section. All internships are graded "S/U".

The calculation of a student's GPA is based on grades earned in all Wells courses, courses taken at Cornell University, Ithaca College, and Cayuga Community College through the cross-registration agreements, and courses taken through Wells approved programs. Grades of "I" (incomplete), "NR" (not reported), "P" (pass), "S" (satisfactory), "W" (withdraw), "WF" (withdraw failing), and "Z" (successful audit) are not included in the GPA calculation.

For courses that a student elects as Pass-Fail courses, grades of "A+" through "D-" shall be converted to a grade of "P." In the computation of the GPA the registrar shall disregard any grades of "P" (after conversion); a grade of "F" shall be given the numerical equivalent of 0 in the calculation of the GPA. See also Repeating a Course.

Class Standing

Classification for academic purposes shall be based solely on progress toward the degree as shown by the official records in the Office of the Registrar. Sophomore, junior and senior classification will be granted to students who have successfully passed 30, 60, and 90 semester hours respectively.

Dean's List

At the end of each semester, full-time students who have earned a GPA of 3.5 or above for that semester are honored by being placed on the dean's list, provided the student has completed at least 12 hours of graded work (pass/fail and S/U-graded courses are not included). Students with "I" grades are not eligible for the dean's list, regardless of date of completion. All graded courses taken at Wells and in Wells approved programs (including Cornell University, Ithaca College, and Cayuga Community College cross-registration) will be used in determining eligibility for the dean's list.

Access to Records

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. § 1232g; 34 CFR Part 99) is a law that pertains to the privacy of student education records and gives parents certain rights with respect to their children's education records. The law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education. FERPA grants students access to their academic and educational records, an opportunity to seek to have any information (thought by the student to be inaccurate or misleading) amended, and some control over disclosure of information from the record.

The information below describes generally the provisions of FERPA, a law that is enforced solely by the U.S. Department of Education through specified procedures. The complete text of that Act is available at www.ed.gov/policy/gen/guid/fpco/ferpa/index.html. By providing the following description, the College is not in any sense undertaking contractual or other obligations, or acceding to any enforcement methods or forum(s), beyond the Department of Education procedures and obligations imposed by law.

Privacy of Records and Information

Academic Records

Wells College releases information regarding a student's academic record/performance to a student's parents/guardians in accordance with FERPA. That means that academic information can be released only if the College has written authorization from the student or if the student is listed as a dependent for tax purposes. Academic information includes copies of grade reports, attendance reports and any other information pertinent to an individual student's academic record. Members of the faculty and administrative officers have access to the above records on a need-to-know basis for the purpose of evaluation of student achievement and determining special needs of individual students for educational purposes.

Records of a Non-Academic Nature

Two sets of records for each currently enrolled student are maintained in the Dean of Students Office. One record tracks a student's non-academic accomplishments and records, such as College housing information, campus achievements and appropriate correspondence. Records are maintained for currently enrolled students. Records are then transferred to the Office of Alumnae and Alumni Relations upon graduation. A second record is maintained for disciplinary proceedings and incidents that violate the Wells College Student Conduct Code. These records are maintained in the Dean of Students Office for seven years in compliance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act. At the discretion of the dean of students, a disciplinary record for severe violations of the Student Conduct Code or violations of local, state and federal laws may be maintained by the College indefinitely.

Members of the faculty and administrative officers have access to non-academic records on a need-to-know basis as determined by the dean of students for the purpose of evaluation of student achievement and determining special needs of individual students for purposes related to the enrollment of the student at the College.

Education Records

With certain exceptions, an education record is any record (1) from which a student can be personally identified and (2) maintained by the College. Education records include any records in whatever medium (handwriting, computer media, print, e-mail, magnetic tape, film, diskette, microfilm and microfiche, video or audio tape, etc.) in the possession of any school official.

Education records excluded from student access and this definition include, for example:

- confidential information placed in the record before January 1, 1975;
- medical and psychological information;
- private notes and procedural matters retained by the maker or substitutes;
- financial records of parents or guardians.

Release of Records:

Exceptions Not Requiring the Student's Written Consent

FERPA states that education records may not be released without the written consent of the student to any individual, agency or organization except, for example, in circumstances including the following:

- to parents, if the student is a dependent as defined by Section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1974;
- to Wells College faculty and staff who have an educational interest in the student;
- to officials of other schools in which student seeks to enroll (transcripts);
- to parents, for disciplinary proceedings involving alcohol and/or other drugs;
- to certain government agencies specified in the legislation;
- to an accrediting agency in carrying out its function;
- to agencies contracted by the College to act on behalf of the institution; such agencies are well versed in FERPA and will protect the privacy of the information we provide to them according to FERPA regulations;
- in emergency situations where the health or safety of the student or others is involved;
- to educational surveys where individual identification is withheld;
- in response to a judicial order;
- in a campus directory unless the student requests otherwise in writing, as described above;
- in connection with financial aid;
- disciplinary records of violent crime or non-forcible sex offense (disclosure is limited to the name of the violator, the type of violation and the sanction).

Directory Information May Be Released Without Written Consent

The College may, without prior written consent from the student, release the following directory information at the discretion of the College:

- Parents' names and addresses; student's name, address(es), including e-mail address and telephone number(s); date and place of birth; participation in officially recognized activities and sports; enrollment status (i.e., full-time or part-time); dates of attendance; major field(s) of study; anticipated year of graduation; degrees, honors and awards received; most recent previous school attended; athletic team members: height, weight and position played; photographs (non-captioned); sex.

Process for Withholding Directory Information

The previous information may be released for any purpose at the discretion of Wells College. However, FERPA states that each student has the right to withhold any or all of the information. Wells College will honor the student's request to restrict the release of directory information. Once restricted, that information cannot be released without the written consent of the student. A student may make such a request in the Registrar's Office. Requesting the withholding of directory information does not prevent the College from releasing educational records and information to a parent or guardian or to a College official with a need to know as outlined under the other provisions of FERPA.

To prevent disclosure of any or all categories of directory information, the student must submit a written request to Prevent Disclosure of Directory Information in writing to the registrar. A new form for non-disclosure must be completed for each academic year.

Student Access to Academic Records

- Present as well as former students must submit a request in writing to the registrar for access to their individual academic records. These requests, with signed acknowledgment of compliance, will become part of the student's record.
- The registrar or designated agent will inform the student within seven business days when the requested record will be available. However, every effort will be made to make the records available within a few days of the request.

Student Access to Non-Academic Records

- Present as well as former students must submit a request in writing to the dean of students for access to their individual records. These requests, with signed acknowledgment of compliance, will become part of the student's record.
- The dean of students or designated agent will inform the student within seven business days when the requested record will be available. However, every effort will be made to make the records available within a few days of the request.

Challenges to Student Records

A student has the right to request an amendment of her or his educational records if the student believes that inaccurate or misleading information is contained therein. A student may request, in writing, an opportunity to review the official educational records maintained by the College. The student should write the College official responsible for the record, clearly identify the part of the record they want changed and specify why it is inaccurate or misleading. The College has five business days to respond to the student request. If the College decides not to amend the record as requested by the student, the College will notify the student of the decision and advise the student of his or her right to a meeting regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the meeting procedures will be provided to the student when notified of the right to a meeting.

Student's Right to Waiver of Access

A student may waive his or her right of access to confidential academic statements (i.e., recommendations) by signing the appropriate waiver form.

The waiver shall be valid only if:

- upon the student request, the names of all persons making confidential recommendations are provided;
- such recommendations or statements are used only for the purpose for which they were specifically intended. The College may not demand such a waiver as a condition of admission, award of financial aid, or the receipt of any other services and/or benefits.

A student may also waive his or her right to privacy of the academic or disciplinary record by signing a Release of Information form (available in the Office of Student Life) indicating the nature and type of information to be released and to whom it may be released, or by other forms that may be used in connection with College athletics or other programs.

A student may file a written complaint regarding an alleged FERPA violation by Wells College with the Family Policy Compliance Office, U.S. Department of Education, 400 Maryland Avenue, S.W., Washington, DC 20202-4605.

Transcript of Academic Record

Official transcripts of the academic record will be available for a fee to each student or alum. Requests for transcripts must be submitted in writing to the registrar, and must include the student's signature or via HYPERLINK "<http://www.getmytranscript.com>" www.getmytranscript.com. Transcripts will not be issued to students who are indebted to the College. Unofficial transcripts are available on the Globe.

The College makes notations on the transcript in the case of some academic prizes, Dean's List, academic standing, and some suspensions/expulsions for code of conduct violations. In accordance with New York State Law, Wells College includes notations on the official transcripts for students found responsible through the institution's conduct process for crimes of violence, including, but not limited to, sexual violence, as set forth in 20 U.S.C. 1092(f)(1)(F)(i)(I)-(VIII) of the Clery Act. For information on how to appeal a transcript notation, contact the Registrar's office.

Academic Standing

After the close of each semester, the registrar will prepare the Registrar's List for the use of the Committee on Academic Standing, Advising, and Admissions. The Registrar's List will consist of the names of students whose cumulative and/or major grade point averages are below 2.0.

The Committee on Academic Standing, Advising, and Admissions shall review student records after each semester to ascertain if students are achieving a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.0. Students whose cumulative and/or major grade point average is below 2.0 shall be notified.

The Committee on Academic Standing, Advising, and Admissions will normally issue an Academic Warning to any student whose cumulative and/or major grade point average falls below 2.0 for the first time. The Committee will normally issue an Academic Probation to any student whose cumulative grade point average falls below 2.0 for the second time, and a second Academic Probation to any student whose cumulative grade point average falls below 2.0 for the third time. The Committee shall evaluate students who have a major GPA below a 2.0 for a second time on a case-by-case basis.

For a student whose cumulative grade point average falls below 2.0 for a fourth time, the Committee on Academic Standing, Advising, and Admissions will normally issue an Academic Suspension for a minimum period of two semesters. In addition, the Committee on Academic Standing, Advising, and Admissions will consider for suspension at any time any student who is deemed to have failed to make satisfactory progress toward the degree. Suspended students must apply for readmission to the dean of the college. Readmission is at the discretion of the dean of the college. The dean of the college may set expectations that the student must satisfy upon return, based on the student's academic progress thus far.

The dean of the college or the Committee on Academic Standing, Advising, and Admissions shall dismiss a student permanently from the College for academic reasons if that student returns from an academic suspension and then fails to earn a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 any semester after return, or who fails to meet other expectations as outlined by the dean of the college for that students' readmission from suspension.

Academic Conduct Probation

The Academic Standing, Advising and Admissions Committee may place on academic conduct probation any student who has been found responsible of a conduct offense and for whom such probation has been recommended by Community Court. Length of probation will be determined by the committee upon recommendation of Community Court.

Dismissal of Students

The continuation of each student on the rolls of Wells College, the issuing of grades or other academic reports, and the conferring of any degree or the granting of any diploma, are subject to the discretionary powers of the College. The College expressly reserves the right, and the student expressly concedes to the College the right, to require the withdrawal of or impose the suspension of any student at any time for any reason deemed sufficient by the College. No reason for requiring such withdrawal need be given. Unless a student is financially independent, her or his parents will be notified of the dismissal.

In addition, a student whose behavior indicates to the dean of the college or the dean of students a need for professional consultation, may at any time be required to obtain psychiatric evaluation and clearance as a condition of continued enrollment.

Leave of Absence

A leave of absence is granted to a student who must be absent during the semester but anticipates returning to complete course work. A leave of absence for medical or other personal reasons may be granted by the dean of students for a maximum of 15 days; only one such leave may be granted during a 12-month period.

Approved Off-Campus Study

A student studying off-campus is participating in one of the following options.

- Wells College Programs — Wells College programs are administered by Wells College. Students are registered full-time through the College; thus, Wells College can certify enrollment.
- Approved Programs — Approved programs have been reviewed and approved by the Wells College faculty, but Wells does not directly administer the programs. Students are registered full-time through the College; thus, Wells College can certify enrollment.
- Field Experience — Field Experience is an approved semester-long internship or independent study experience. Students register for such an experience through the College; thus, Wells College can certify enrollment according to the number of semester hours for which the student is registered.
- Non-Approved Programs — Non-Approved Programs are administered by other institutions and have not been reviewed or approved by the Wells College faculty. Students are registered at the offering institution and not at Wells College; thus, Wells College cannot certify enrollment.

Withdrawal from the College

A student withdraws when s/he is not planning to return to Wells College or when s/he needs an extended leave of absence (beyond 15 days).

When a student withdraws from the College, the transcript will read as follows:

- Before the end of the drop period for the semester in progress, no record is entered.
- From the end of the drop period through the official withdrawal period for the semester in progress, the registrar will assign a “W” for each course.
- After the official withdrawal period for the semester in progress, students who withdraw from the College shall receive grades from their instructors of “W” or “WF” depending on progress to date, except in cases by which — in the judgment of the dean of the college — the withdrawal was required for medical or other grave personal reasons.

A student who is not intending to return to Wells College needs to complete the withdrawal form and Exit Interview Questionnaire indicating the reasons for leaving the College. The student will also meet with the dean of students to review the withdrawal form and Exit Interview Questionnaire.

Readmission

A student who withdraws from Wells College and wishes to return must submit an application of readmission available in the Dean of Students Office. Applications for readmission will be reviewed by the dean of students and other appropriate staff.

A student who is suspended from college for academic reasons may be readmitted by the dean of the College.

A student who is suspended from the College for non-academic reasons may be readmitted by the dean of students.

PHI BETA KAPPA

PHI BETA KAPPA, XI OF NEW YORK CHAPTER — Phi Beta Kappa is the oldest and most distinguished of academic honorary societies. Founded in 1776 at the College of William and Mary, its purpose is to recognize and encourage excellence in the liberal arts. The Wells College chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, XI of New York, was founded in 1932. It recognizes seniors whose academic achievements have been distinguished, and whose cultural interests are broad. Students elected to Phi Beta Kappa must demonstrate, in addition to academic excellence, breadth of study outside the major field and a knowledge of mathematics or science and of a language other than English. Candidates must have completed at least three semesters of work at Wells and be fully registered for the fourth. Also taken into account are the character, achievements, originality, and breadth of interest of each candidate. Election to Phi Beta Kappa is the highest and most widely recognized of academic honors.

Majors and Minors

AFRICANA MINOR

As a field of inquiry, Africana analyzes experiences of people of African descent wherever they live or have lived. It is inherently comparative, international, and multidisciplinary in approach, embracing humanities, arts, and the social sciences.

The total number of courses required for the minor is 6 (18 semester hours).

REQUIRED COURSES

- The following (3 sem. hrs.)
INTL 160 Introduction to Africana Studies (3 sem. hrs.)
- Five of the following, with at least two courses at the 300-level (15 sem. hrs.)
FMS 220 Post-Colonial African Cinema (3 sem. hrs.)
HIST 361 Voices of African-American Women (3 sem. hrs.)
HIST 372 Colonial Encounters (3 sem. hrs.)
HUM 305 Post-Colonial African Literature (3 sem. hrs.)
POLS 268 Comparative Governments and Politics: Cases of Predominantly Black Nations (3 sem. hrs.)
SOC 277 Social Inequality: Class and Ethnicity (3 sem. hrs.)
Independent Study or Internship in an appropriate discipline (3 sem. hrs.)

ANTHROPOLOGY

See sociology and anthropology major.

ANTHROPOLOGY MINOR

Anthropology is the study of humankind, which encompasses such topics as the origin and development of human society; the nature of human diversity in the past and present; ethnocentrism, world view and the roots of culture; and the differing ways in which peoples have adapted to environments and to other human groups.

Students majoring in sociology and anthropology may not minor in anthropology. The total number of courses required for the minor is 6 (18-19 semester hours).

REQUIRED COURSES

- The following (3 sem. hrs.)
ANTH 161 Introduction to Anthropology (3 sem. hrs.)
- One of the following (3-4 sem. hrs.)
ANTH 260 Ethnographic Methods (4 sem. hrs.)
ANTH 330 Culture, Fieldwork, and Ethnography (3 sem. hrs.)
- Two courses from the following list from two different regions for a comparative perspective (6 sem. hrs.)
OCS 300 The Anthropological Experience in Hawaii (3 sem. hrs.)
OCS 305 The Anthropological Experience in Belize (3 sem. hrs.)
ANTH 250 Hawaii: Colonialism and Tourism (3 sem. hrs.)
ANTH 345 Maya Ethnography (3 sem. hrs.)
- Two other ANTH designated courses (or RELG 330) (6 sem. hrs.)

ART CONCENTRATION

See visual arts major: concentration in studio art.

ART (STUDIO) MINOR

See studio art minor.

ART HISTORY CONCENTRATION

See visual arts major: concentration in art history.

ART HISTORY MINOR

Students concentrating in studio art may not use the same courses for both the studio art concentration and the minor in art history. Those students should consult with their advisor and the coordinator of the minor to decide appropriate substitutions. The total number of courses required for the minor is 6 (18 semester hours).

REQUIRED COURSES

- Two of the following (6 sem. hrs.)
 ARTH 101 Prehistoric to Renaissance Survey (3 sem. hrs.)
 ARTH 102 Renaissance to Contemporary Survey (3 sem. hrs.)
 ARTH 105 Art of Non-Western Cultures Survey (3 sem. hrs.)
- All of the following (12 sem. hrs.)
 Two studio art courses (6 sem. hrs.)
 Two additional art history courses (6 sem. hrs.)

BIOCHEMISTRY AND MOLECULAR BIOLOGY MAJOR (B.A., B.S.)

The number of courses required for the major is the equivalent of 17 courses of 3-4 semester hours (63-65 semester hours); at least 7 of these courses (18 semester hours) are at the 300-level or above.

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (56-58 sem. hrs.)
 BCS 290/390 Internship in the B&CS (2-4 sem. hrs.)
 BCS 403 Senior Seminar (4 sem. hrs.)
 BIOL 114L Anatomy & Physiology I (4 sem. hrs.)
 BIOL 130L Biology of Organisms (4 sem. hrs.)
 BIOL 226L Genetics (4 sem. hrs.)
 BIOL 312L Molecular Biology (4 sem. hrs.)
 CHEM 107L General Chemistry (4 sem. hrs.)
 CHEM 108L Chemical Analysis (4 sem. hrs.)
 CHEM 213L Organic Chemistry I (4 sem. hrs.)
 CHEM 214L Organic Chemistry II (4 sem. hrs.)
 CHEM 301 Physical Chemistry (3 sem. hrs.)
 CHEM 323L Biochemistry (4 sem. hrs.)
 CHEM 326 Biochemical Pathways (3 sem. hrs.)
 MATH 111 Calculus I: Introduction to Calculus (4 sem. hrs.)
 PHYS 111L Fundamentals of Physics I (4 sem. hrs.)
- One additional 300-level course in chemistry (3-4 sem. hrs.)
- One additional 300-level course in biology (4 sem. hrs.)

BIOLOGICAL AND CHEMICAL SCIENCES PROGRAMS

The study of biological and chemical sciences (including biology, chemistry, and biochemistry and molecular biology) provides a foundation in the fundamental areas of biology, the study of life, and chemistry, the study of matter, and offer electives in a variety of advanced subjects ranging from the interface of biology with psychology to the interface of chemistry with physics. In all courses the application of the scientific method to achieve an understanding of the natural world is stressed. The Senior Capstone courses (BCS 403) offer all majors the opportunity to develop intellectual independence and the ability to think creatively. Students completing these majors will be prepared for a variety of careers in biology, medicine, biotechnology, environmental science, and chemistry. In addition, these students will be well equipped for advanced, specialized study in any health professions school or in graduate school.

BIOLOGICAL AND CHEMICAL SCIENCES MAJOR (B.A.)

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (38-40 sem. hrs.)
 BCS 290/390 Internship in the Biological & Chemical Sciences (2-4 sem. Hrs.)
 BCS 403 Senior Seminar in the Biological and Chemical Sciences (4 sem. hrs.)
 BIOL 114L Anatomy and Physiology I (4 sem. hrs.)

BUSINESS MAJOR (B.S.)

The goal of the business program is to provide students with fundamental understanding of key interdisciplinary business concepts. The program also seeks to enhance the knowledge in business decision-making approaches in relation to most current business practices applied locally and globally.

The focus of the business major is surrounded with a few key schools such as economics, marketing, management, statistics, accounting, human resources, organizational behavior, and innovation. The total courses required for the business major is 18 (54-56 semester hours).

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (42-44 sem. hrs.)
 BUS 100 Principles of Business (3 sem hrs)
 BUS 111 Personal Financial Management (3 sem hrs)
 BUS 201 Principles of Management (3 sem hrs)
 BUS 202 Principles of Marketing (3 sem hrs)
 BUS 213 Accounting I – Intro to Financial Accounting (3 sem hrs)
 BUS 230 Intro to Human Resource Management (3 sem hrs)
 BUS 290/390 Internship in Business (2-4 sem hrs)
 BUS 303 Entrepreneurship and Small Business Management (3 sem hrs)
 BUS 305 Legal Environment of Business (3 sem hrs)
 BUS 310 Corporate Finance (3 sem hrs)
 BUS 402 Senior Report in Business (4 sem hrs)
 ECON 101 Principles of Macroeconomics (3 sem hrs)
 ECON 102 Principles of Microeconomics (3 sem hrs)
 MATH 151 Elementary Statistics (3 sem hrs)
- Four of the following electives (12 sem. hrs.)
 BUS 203 Social Entrepreneurship (3 sem hrs)
 BUS 214 Accounting II - Intro to Managerial Accounting (3 sem hrs)
 BUS 220 International Business (3 sem hrs)
 BUS 231 Principles of Project Management (3 sem hrs)
 BUS 250 Innovation, Creative Problem Solving (3 sem hrs)
 BUS 253 Investment Management (3 sem hrs)
 BUS 302 Brand Management (3 sem hrs)
 BUS 350 Business Strategy (3 sem hrs)
 BUS 360 Strategic Marketing, Data & E-Comm. (3 sem hrs)
 BUS 365 Management for a Small Planet (3 sem hrs)
 BUS 368 Sales & Sales Management (3 sem hrs)
 ECON 286 Money, Banking & Capital Markets (3 sem hrs)
 ECON 302 Managerial Economics (3 sem hrs)
 ECON 330 The World Economy: Trade and Finance (3 sem hrs)
 PHIL 240 Ethics (3 sem hrs)

BUSINESS MINOR

The total courses required for the business minor is 7 (21 sem. hrs).

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (15 sem. hrs.)
 BUS 201 Principles of Management
 BUS 202 Principles of Marketing (prereqs ECON 102 and BUS 201)
 BUS 213 Principles of Accounting I
 BUS 250 Innovation & Creative Problem Solving
 MATH 151 Elementary Statistics
- One of the following (3 sem. hrs.)
 ECON 101 Principles of Macroeconomic
 ECON 102 Principles of Microeconomics

- One of the following (3 sem. hrs.)

BUS 214	Principles of Accounting II (prereq BUS 213)
BUS 230	Introduction Human Resource Management (prereq BUS 201)
BUS 365	Management for a Small Planet (prereq BUS 201 and 302)
BUS 368	Sales and Sales Management (prereqs BUS 201, 202, MATH 151 OR MATH 251)
ECON 101	Principles of Macroeconomics (if not taken for above)
ECON 102	Principles of Microeconomics (if not taken for above)
ECON 295	Technology and the Labor Process (prereqs ECON 101 or 102 or SOC 228)
PSY 306	Organizational Behavior (prereq PSY 101)
THDA 201	Arts Management

CHEMISTRY MAJOR (B.A.)

The number of courses required for the major is the equivalent of 16 (51-56 semester hours); at least 6 of these courses (18 semester hours) are at the 300-level or above.

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (44-46 sem. hrs.)

BCS 290/390	Internship in the B&CS (2-4 sem. hrs.)
BCS 403	Senior Seminar 4 sem. hrs.)
CHEM 107L	General Chemistry (4 sem. hrs.)
CHEM 108L	Chemical Analysis (4 sem. hrs.)
CHEM 213L	Organic Chemistry I (4 sem. hrs.)
CHEM 214L	Organic Chemistry II (4 sem. hrs.)
CHEM 301	Physical Chemistry (3 sem. hrs.)
CHEM 308LL	Laboratory in Physical Chemistry (1 sem. hr)
CHEM 315L	Inorganic Chemistry (4 sem. hrs.)
CHEM 327L	Instrumental Analysis (4 sem. hrs.)
MATH 111	Calculus I: Introduction to Calculus (4 sem. hrs.)
PHYS 111L	Fundamentals of Physics I (4 sem. hrs.)

- Three of the following (9-12 sem. hrs.)

BIOL 325L	Limnology (4 sem. hrs.)
CHEM 303	Medicinal Chemistry (3 sem. hrs.)
CHEM 323L	Biochemistry (4 sem. hrs.)
CHEM 326	Biochemical Pathways (3 sem. hrs.)
CHEM 331	Solid State Chemistry (3 sem. hrs.)
CHEM 385	Topics in Chemistry (3-4 sem. hrs.)
PHYS 212L	Fundamentals of Physics II (4 sem. hrs.)
PHYS 302	Modern Physics (3 sem. hrs.)
PHYS 307	Special Relativity and Intermediate Quantum Mechanics (3 sem. hrs.)

CHEMISTRY MAJOR (B.S.)

The number of courses required for the major is the equivalent of 17 (60-64 semester hours); at least 6 of these courses (18 semester hours) are at the 300-level or above.

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (54-56 sem. hrs.)

BCS 290/390	Internship in the Biological and Chemical Sciences (2-4 sem. hrs.)
BCS 403	Senior Seminar in the Biological and Chemical Sciences (4 sem. hrs.)
CHEM 107L	General Chemistry (4 sem. hrs.)
CHEM 108L	Chemical Analysis (4 sem. hrs.)
CHEM 213L	Organic Chemistry I (4 sem. hrs.)

MATH 112	Calculus II (4 sem. hrs.)
PHYS 111L	Fundamentals of Physics I (4 sem. hrs.)
PHYS 212L	Fundamentals of Physics II (4 sem. hrs.)

Two of the following (6-8 sem. hrs.)

CHEM 303	Medicinal Chemistry (3 sem. hrs.)
CHEM 326	Biochemical Pathways (3 sem. hrs.)
CHEM 331	Solid State Chemistry (3 sem. hrs.)
CHEM 385	Topics in Chemistry (3-4 sem. hrs.)
PHYS 302	Modern Physics (3 sem. hrs.)
PHYS 307	Special Relativity and Intermediate Quantum Mechanics (3 sem. hrs.)

CHEMISTRY MINOR

The minor program in chemistry furnishes an overview of the areas which traditionally comprise the discipline. This program provides a suitable background for those students who seek to apply this knowledge in a variety of fields.

Students majoring in biology or biochemistry and molecular biology may not minor in chemistry. The total number of courses required for the minor is 7 (26-27 semester hours).

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (23 sem. hrs.)

CHEM 107L	General Chemistry (4 sem. hrs.)
CHEM 108L	Chemical Analysis (4 sem. hrs.)
CHEM 213L	Organic Chemistry I (4 sem. hrs.)
CHEM 214L	Organic Chemistry II (4 sem. hrs.)

- Three or four additional courses in chemistry above the 100-level (9-16 sem. hrs.)

COGNITIVE AND BRAIN SCIENCES MINOR

This interdisciplinary minor provides a focused study of the cognitive products of biological and non-biological computational systems (e.g., humans and computers) including perception, attention, learning, memory, language, reasoning, decision making, problem solving, creativity, and action, as well as the instantiation of these functions in neural 'hardware.' Coursework across the disciplines allows for an examination and exploration of these issues at different levels of analysis and explanation (concrete to abstract).

The total number of courses required for the minor is 7 (20-23 semester hours).

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (9 sem. hrs.)

PSY 101	General Psychology (3 sem. hrs.)
PSY 343	Neuropsychology (3 sem. hrs.)
PSY 347	Cognitive Psychology (3 sem. hrs.)

- Two of the following (6-7 sem. hrs.)

BIOL 114L	Anatomy and Physiology I (4 sem. hrs.)
CS 131	Programming I: Procedural Methods (3 sem. hrs.)
PHIL 325	Belief and Knowledge (3 sem. hrs.)
OR PHIL 331	Mind (3 sem. hrs.)

- One course from the following (3 sem. hrs.)

PSY 340	Psycholinguistics (3 sem. hrs.)
PSY 349	Cognition and Culture (3 sem. hrs.)
PSY 370	Sensation and Perception (3 sem. hrs.)

- One course from the following (3-4 sem. hrs.)

BIOL 324L	Animal Behavior (4 sem. hrs.)
PSY 242	Drugs and Behavior (3 sem. hrs.)
PSY 342	Biological Bases of Behavior (3 sem. hrs.)

COMMUNICATION STUDIES MINOR

The field of communications, broadly defined, includes any profession which requires clear and persuasive writing or speaking, such as journalism, public relations, advertising, and broadcasting. The curiosity, research skills and analytical thought encouraged within any liberal arts major are basic tools for the professional communicator.

The minor requires courses that relate to theoretical aspects of communication and courses that involve practical applications. Courses in writing, interpersonal communication, mass media, and the Internet are augmented by independent work, tutorials, and internships. The coordinator will work individually with each student to plan the minor, including a consultation prior to registration for each semester.

The total number of courses required for the minor is 7 (18.5-23 semester hours).

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (11-13 sem. hrs.)
 - COMM 290 Internship in Communications (2-4 sem. hrs.)
 - or COMM 390 Advanced Internship in Communications (2-4 sem. hrs.)
 - FMS 270 Writing for the Mass Media (3 sem. hrs.)
 - SOC 151 Principles of Sociology (3 sem. hrs.)
 - SOC 331 Mass Media and Society (3 sem. hrs.)
- Two of the following from different disciplines (4.5-7 sem. hrs.)
 - ART 119 Visual Organization (3 sem. hrs.)
 - ART 261 Photographic Digital Imaging (3 sem. hrs.)
 - ART/BKRT 127 Introduction to Graphic Design (3 sem. hrs.)
 - BKRT 220 Digital Book and Graphic Design (3 sem. hrs.)
 - CS 105 HTML (1.5 sem. hrs.)
 - FMS 101 Introduction to Film and Media Studies (3 sem. hrs.)
 - PSY 280 Psychology of Art (3 sem. hrs.)
 - SS 294 Research Methods for the Social Sciences (4 sem. hrs.)
- One of the following (3 sem. hrs.)
 - FMS 220 Post-Colonial African Cinema (3 sem. hrs.)
 - FMS 241 Reading Popular Film (3 sem. hrs.)
 - FMS 281 Film and Literature (3 sem. hrs.)
 - PHIL 329 Aesthetics (3 sem. hrs.)
 - SPAN 204 Conversation and Composition Through Film (3 sem. hrs.)

COMPUTER SCIENCE MAJOR

The number of courses required for the major is 14 (43-45 semester hours). At least four of these courses (12 semester hours) must be at the 300-level or above. Internships may not be used to fulfill major requirements.

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (31 sem. hrs.)
 - CS 131 Programming I: Procedural Methods (3 sem. hrs.)
 - CS 132 Programming II: Advanced Design (3 sem. hrs.)
 - CS 225 Computer Organization and Assembly Language Programming (3 sem. hrs.)
 - CS 233 Object Oriented Programming (3 sem. hrs.)
 - MATH 111 Calculus I: Introduction to Calculus (4 sem. hrs.)
 - MATH 112 Calculus II: Introduction to Calculus (4 sem. hrs.)
 - MATH 267 Discrete Mathematics (3 sem. hrs.)
 - MPS 402 Senior Seminar in Mathematical and Physical Sciences I (2 sem. hrs.)
 - MPS 403 Senior Seminar in Mathematical and Physical Sciences II (2 sem. hrs.)
 - PHYS 111L Fundamentals of Physics I (4 sem. hrs.)
- Three of the following (9 sem. hrs.)
 - CS 310 Software Engineering (3 sem. hrs.)
 - CS 322 Algorithms: Design and Analysis (3 sem. hrs.)
 - CS 341 Linux Systems Administration (3 sem. hrs.)
 - CS 345 GUI Programming (3 sem. hrs.)
 - CS 285/385 Topics in Computer Science (3 sem. hrs.)
 - MATH 301 Applied and Computational Mathematics (3 sem. hrs.)
- Two courses in mathematics, computer science, or physics above the 100-level. (6-8 sem. hrs.)

COMPUTER SCIENCE MINOR

Students majoring in physics or mathematics may minor in computer science. Internships may not be used to fulfill minor requirements. The total number of courses required for the minor is 6 (18 semester hours).

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (12 sem. hrs.)
 - CS 131 Programming I: Procedural Methods (3 sem. hrs.)
 - CS 132 Programming II: Advanced Design (3 sem. hrs.)
 - CS 225 Computer Organization and Assembly Language Programming (3 sem. hrs.)
 - MATH 267 Discrete Mathematics (3 sem. hrs.)
- Two more computer science courses above the 100-level. A course in a related field may be substituted for one of these by permission. (6 sem. hrs.)

CREATIVE WRITING CONCENTRATION

See English major: concentration in creative writing.

CREATIVE WRITING MINOR

Students majoring in English may not minor in creative writing. The total number of courses required for the minor is 6 (18 semester hours).

REQUIRED COURSES

- One of the following (3 sem. hrs.)
 - ENGL 104 Introduction to Literature (3 sem. hrs.)
 - ENGL 206 British Literature 1100-1800 (3 sem. hrs.)
- Two of the following (6 sem. hrs.)
 - CREA 271 Short Story Writing (3 sem. hrs.)
 - CREA 272 Poetry Writing (3 sem. hrs.)
 - CREA 275 Creative Nonfiction (3 sem. hrs.)
- One of the following (3 sem. hrs.)
 - CREA 371 Advanced Fiction Writing (3 sem. hrs.)
 - CREA 372 Advanced Poetry Writing (3 sem. hrs.)
 - CREA 375 Advanced Creative Nonfiction (3 sem. hrs.)
- Two additional literature courses (6 sem. hrs.)

CRIMINAL JUSTICE MAJOR

This major critically examines the social, cultural and individual-level factors which impact crime rates and the formal social control mechanisms (e.g., the police, the courts, and the penal system) charged with reducing these rates. The total number of courses required for the major is 13 (40-42 semester hours).

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (28-30 sem. hrs.)
 - CRIM 115 Introduction to Criminology (3 sem. hrs.)
 - CRIM 290/390 Internship in Criminal Justice (2-4 sem. hrs.)
 - CRIM 301 Criminal Justice (3 sem. hrs.)
 - CRIM 302 Corrections (3 sem. hrs.)
 - CRIM 401 Senior Research Seminar (4 sem. hrs.)

DANCE CONCENTRATION

See theatre and dance major.

DANCE MINOR

The minor in dance allows the student to explore theoretical, historical, compositional, performance, and production elements of the discipline of dance within a multidisciplinary framework.

The total number of courses required for the minor is 9-12 (22-25 semester hours).

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (8-10 sem. hrs.)

DANC 106	Get Moving! (3 sem. hrs.)
THDA 100	Introduction to Performing Arts (4 sem. hrs.)
THDA 225 or 325	Production Practical (1-3 sem. hrs.)

TECHNIQUE AND PERFORMANCE COURSES (8-9 sem. hrs.)

- Technique: (A combination of the following for a total of 5-6 sem. hrs.)

DANC 205	Modern Dance Technique I (2 sem. hrs.)
DANC 206	Ballet Technique I (2 sem. hrs.)
DANC 209	Jazz Dance Technique (1 sem. hr.)
DANC 305	Modern Dance Technique II (2 sem. hrs.)
DANC 306	Ballet Technique II (2 sem. hrs.)

Students must take classes in at least two different genres to satisfy this requirement.

- Performance: (for a total of 3 sem. hrs.)

DANC 281 Rehearsal and Performance/Dance (1-3 sem. hrs.)

and/or

DANC 350 Advanced Rehearsal and Performance/Dance (1-3 sem. hrs.)

THEORY AND CREATIVE PROCESS COURSES (3 sem. hrs.)

- One of the following:

DANC 316 Dance History (3 sem. hrs.)

DANC 325 Dance Composition and Laban Movement Analysis (3 sem. hrs.)

ELECTIVES (3 sem. hrs.)

- One of the following:

THDA 201 Arts Management (3 sem. hrs.)

THEA 255 Stage Management (3 sem. hrs.)

or any faculty-approved DANC, THEA, MUS, ARTS, VART or ARTH course

ECONOMICS MINOR

Students majoring in economics and management may not minor in economics.

The total number of courses required for the minor is 8 (24 semester hours).

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (18 sem. hrs.)

ECON 101 Principles of Macroeconomics (3 sem. hrs.)

ECON 102 Principles of Microeconomics (3 sem. hrs.)

ECON 295 Technology and the Labor Process (3 sem. hrs.)

or BUS 201 Principles of Management (3 sem. hrs.)

ECON 303 Intermediate Microeconomic Theory (3 sem. hrs.)

ECON 306 Intermediate Macroeconomic Theory (3 sem. hrs.)

MATH 151 Elementary Statistics (3 sem. hrs.)

or MATH 251 Mathematical Statistics (3 sem. hrs.)

- Two additional economics or management courses, at least one of which must be at the 300-level (6 sem. hrs.)

Either ECON 290 Internship in Economics and Business or ECON 390 Advanced Internship in Economics and Business, but not both, can be counted toward the minor.

ECONOMICS AND MANAGEMENT MAJOR

The goal of the economics and management major is to provide students with thorough knowledge of basic principles, methods of inquiry and awareness of contemporary issues in economics and business. Individual and business decision-making is presented in a domestic and global context aimed at developing students' intellectual curiosity, and analytical and critical capabilities. The curriculum includes core theory courses, cognates emphasizing quantitative skills, and electives in specific fields of the discipline with the conviction that a basic knowledge of economic and business decision-making is essential for numerous purposes. The major is multidisciplinary by nature, serving the needs of other majors including international studies, environmental science, and mathematical and physical sciences.

The total number of courses required for the major is 15 (44-53 semester hours). At least seven of these courses (21 semester hours) must be at the 300-level or above.

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (17 sem. hrs.)

ECON 101 Principles of Macroeconomics (3 sem. hrs.)

ECON 102 Principles of Microeconomics (3 sem. hrs.)

ECON 314 Econometrics (3 sem. hrs.)

ECON 402 Senior Seminar in Economics and Management (4 sem. hrs.)

MATH 111 Calculus I: Introduction to Calculus (or exemption or higher-level course in calculus) (4 sem. hrs.)

- One of the following (3 sem. hrs.)
 MATH 151 Elementary Statistics (3 sem. hrs.)
 MATH 251 Mathematical Statistics (3 sem. hrs.)

CONCENTRATIONS

The student will choose a concentration in economics or in management.

EDUCATION: INCLUSIVE CHILDHOOD EDUCATION MAJOR

Students who major in Inclusive Childhood Education will be able to teach in both general and special education classrooms, grades 1-6, after successfully completing the required courses and student teaching and passing the required New York State certification exams. This major provides a strong base in current, effective pedagogy rooted in field-based methods courses that develop Wells students into reflective, knowledgeable educators.

REQUIRED COURSES

• Education Core Requirements (54-55 sem. hrs.)

PSY 101	General Psychology (3 sem. hrs.)
PSY 210	Child Development (3 sem. hrs.)
EDUC 105	Teaching in a Diverse Society (3 sem. hrs.)
EDUC 215	Issues in Multicultural and English Language Learner Education (3 sem. hrs.)
EDUC 216	The Inclusive Classroom (3 sem. hrs.)
EDUC 225	Technology in the Classroom (3 sem. hrs.)
EDUC 226	Building Classroom Community (3 sem. hrs.)
EDUC 301	Primary Literacy and Diverse Learners (3 sem. hrs.)
EDUC 302	Literacy for Diverse Upper Elementary Classrooms (3 sem. hrs.)
EDUC 301 and 302 must be taken in sequence
EDUC 304	Inclusive Instruction and Assessment (3 sem. hrs.)
EDUC 305	Literacy in the Social Studies (3 sem. hrs.)
EDUC 307	Teaching Students with Disabilities (3 sem. hrs.)
EDUC 308	Students with Disabilities Practicum (1 sem. hr.)
EDUC 309	Elementary Methods Practicum (1 sem. hr.)
EDUC 405	Elementary Methods: Teaching Math and Science (3 sem. hrs.)
EDUC 408	Student Teaching Reflective Seminar (2 sem. hrs.)
Taken concurrently with student teaching
EDUC 410	Student Teaching: Preparation and Analysis (12 sem. hrs.)

• One of the following (2-3 sem. hrs.)

EDUC 290	Internship in Education (2-3 sem. hrs.)
EDUC 390	Internship in Education (2-3 sem. hrs.)

• Additional Requirements for Certification

Multi-Subject Core Requirements:

In addition to the Education Core students must complete a minimum of 30 credit hours across the liberal arts. These credit hours may overlap with general college requirements and 6 of these credits may overlap with the chosen minor. The 30 liberal arts credits must address learning in the following areas and be approved by an education faculty advisor:

- Artistic expression
- Humanities
- Concepts in history and social sciences
- A language other than English
- Written analysis and expression
- Scientific and mathematical processes
- Information retrieval
- Communication skills

EDUCATION MINORS

Students who are interested in education but either do not wish to or do not have time to complete the certification program may minor in education. Students completing the minor alone will have a strong foundation in education but will NOT be eligible for certification. They may, however, use this course work as a basis for graduate school in MAT programs. See the director of elementary and secondary education for further information. All students, including those in the certification program, must declare their education minor no later than the last day of classes of their junior year. For more information on teacher certification see p. 36.

CHILDHOOD EDUCATION MINOR (Grades 1-6)

The total number of courses required for the minor is 7 (20-21 semester hours).

NOTE: Completing the minor alone does not qualify a student for initial certification.

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (18 sem. hrs.)
 - EDUC 105 Teaching in a Diverse Society (3 sem. hrs.)
 - EDUC 215 Issues in Multicultural and English Language Learner Education (3 sem. hrs.)
 - EDUC 216 The Inclusive Classroom (3 sem. hrs.)
 - EDUC 301 Primary Literacy and Diverse Learners (3 sem. hrs.)
 - EDUC 304 Inclusive Instruction and Assessment (3 sem. hrs.)
 - PSY 210 Child Development (3 sem. hrs.)

ENGLISH MAJOR

English as a major includes the investigation of texts from British and American literature for their cultural and historical importance, for the manner in which they embody and express literary types and values, and for the ways in which they relate to the lives of those who experience them. The study of literature in all its forms enhances a student's ability to think critically and observe closely. English students practice writing in different forms, including expository, critical, and imaginative. The ability to write clearly and effectively is essential for success in communication with others and in advancing in a field or career. Both literature and writing are a source of lifelong satisfaction which enables students to continue to discover and explore their selves and their place in the world, and thereby lead a richer, fuller, more examined life.

The number of courses required for the major is 15-17 (46-52 semester hours). At least six of these courses (18 semester hours) must be at the 300-level or above.

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (16 sem. hrs.)
 - ENGL 104 Introduction to Literature (3 sem. hrs.)
 - ENGL 206 British Literature 1100-1800 (3 sem. hrs.)
 - ENGL 215 American Literature and Culture (3 sem. hrs.)
 - ENGL 225 Shakespeare (3 sem. hrs.)
 - ENGL 250 British Literature 1800 to the Present (3 sem. hrs.)
 - ENGL 401 Senior Thesis in English (4 sem. hrs.)

CONCENTRATIONS

The student may choose a concentration in literature or in creative writing.

LITERATURE

- One of the following (3 sem. hrs.)
 - CREA 271 Short Story Writing (3 sem. hrs.)
 - CREA 272 Poetry Writing (3 sem. hrs.)
 - CREA 275 Creative Nonfiction Writing (3 sem. hrs.)
- Six of the following (including at least one course from each of the groups) (18 sem. hrs.)

ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE MAJOR

The major in environmental science guides students in examination and analysis of the earth and the human-environment interaction, and develops the technical and scientific skills necessary to build a career related to the environment. Required courses in the major examine the following types of questions: What is the nature of the earth and its ecosystems? What is the nature of environmental problems? What is the scientific and technical basis for environmental problem-solving and mitigation of the human impact on planet earth? How are scientific findings used in society's decision-making about environmental resources? How can science and technology help us be better stewards of earth, its ecosystems, and its natural resources?

The number of courses required for the major is 14 (45–50 semester hours). Off-campus study courses may substitute for some of the requirements below.

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (32-34 sem. hrs.)
 BIOL 119L Ecology and Evolution (4 sem. hrs.)
 ENVR 101L Introduction to Environmental Science (4 sem. hrs.)
 ENVR 102L Conservation of Biodiversity (4 sem. hrs.)
 ENVR 131L Physical Geology (4 sem. hrs.)
 ENVR 195 Tutorial in Geographic Information Systems (1 sem. hr.)
 ENVR 290/390 Internship in Environmental Science (2-4 sem. hrs)
 ENVR 303 Environmental Impact Assessment (3 sem. hrs.)
 ENVR 340 Sustainable Agriculture (3 sem. hrs.)
 ENVR 403 Senior Thesis in Environmental Science (4 sem. hrs.)
 MATH 151 Elementary Statistics (3 sem. hrs.)
 or MATH 251 Probability and Statistics (3 sem. hrs.)
- Area of Specialization: Four courses in Biology OR four courses in Chemistry OR four courses in Physics, as indicated below (13-16 sem. hrs.):

BIOLOGY SPECIALIZATION

BIOL 130L	Biology of Organisms (4 sem. hrs.)
BIOL 304L	Vertebrate Zoology (4 sem. hrs.)
BIOL 305	Terrestrial Field Biology (3 sem. hrs.)
BIOL 324L	Animal Behavior (4 sem. hrs.)
BIOL 325L	Limnology (4 sem. hrs.)
BIOL 363	Advanced Ecology (3 sem. hrs.)

CHEMISTRY SPECIALIZATION

CHEM 107L	General Chemistry (4 sem. hrs.)
CHEM 108L	Chemical Analysis (4 sem. hrs.)
CHEM 213L	Organic Chemistry I (4 sem. hrs.)
CHEM 214L	Organic Chemistry II (4 sem. hrs.)
CHEM 301	Physical Chemistry I (3 sem. hrs.)
CHEM 315L	Inorganic Chemistry (4 sem. hrs.)
CHEM 327L	Instrumental Analysis (4 sem. hrs.)

MATHEMATICAL AND PHYSICAL SCIENCES SPECIALIZATION

MATH 111	Calculus I: Introduction to Calculus (4 sem. hrs.)
MATH 112	Calculus II: Introduction to Calculus (4 sem. hrs.)
MATH 211	Calculus III: Multivariable Calculus (3 sem. hrs.)
PHYS 106	Introductory Astronomy (3 sem. hrs.)
PHYS 111L	Fundamentals of Physics I (4 sem. hrs.)
PHYS 212L	Fundamentals of Physics II (4 sem. hrs.)
PHYS 221L	Principles of Electronics (4 sem. hrs.)

ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE MINOR

The discipline of environmental science is fundamental to efforts to improve the health of planet earth and enhance human well-being. The minor in environmental science introduces students to the tenets of a scientific approach to understanding the human-environment interaction, environmental problems and effective environmental problem-solving; it also equips students with career-ready skills that will complement any major.

The number of courses required for the minor is six (18-20 semester hours).

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (12 sem. hrs.)

ENVR 101L	Introduction to Environmental Science (4 sem. hrs.)
ENVR 102L	Conservation of Biodiversity (4 sem. hrs.)
ENVR 195	Tutorial in Geographic Information Systems (1 sem. hr.)
ENVR 303	Environmental Impact Assessment (3 sem. hrs.)

- Two of the following (6-8 sem. hrs.)

BIOL 119L	Ecology and Evolution (4 sem. hrs.)
BIOL 130L	Biology of Organisms (4 sem. hrs.)
BIOL 305	Terrestrial Field Biology (3 sem. hrs.)
BIOL 324L	Animal Behavior (4 sem. hrs.)
BIOL 325L	Limnology (4 sem. hrs.)
BIOL 363L	Advanced Ecology (4 sem. hrs.)
ENVR 131L	Physical Geology (4 sem. hrs.)
ENVR 340	Sustainable Agriculture (3 sem. hrs.)
ENVR 385/385L	Topics in Environmental Science (3-4 sem. hrs.)

FILM AND MEDIA STUDIES MAJOR

Through critical analysis of print and visual media, students who major in film and media studies learn the cultural implications of living in a "mediated society." As they produce their own works in journalistic and creative non-fiction writing, or in film, advertising, and public relations, students reflect their relationship with the culture of the media. Students who complete the major may adopt careers in advertising, public relations, journalism, freelance writing, film criticism, film production, screen or playwriting, or may choose to enter graduate programs in any of these areas.

Total credit hours for the major are 37.5-40.5; students must take at least 6 courses at the 300 level. Students are strongly urged to choose a minor field. The total number of courses required for the major is 13.

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following: (25.5-27.5 sem. hrs.)

CS 105	HTML (1.5 sem. hrs.)
FMS 101	Introduction to Film and Media Studies (3 sem. hrs.)

FMS 241	Reading Popular Film (3 sem. hrs.)
FMS 270	Writing for the Mass Media (3 sem. hrs.)
FMS 290 or 390	Internship in Film and Media Studies (2-4 sem. hrs.)
FMS 401	Senior Project in Film and Media Studies (4 sem. hrs.)
SOC 228	Social Problems (3 sem. hrs.)

- At least one course from each of the following areas (15 sem. hrs.)

FIRST NATIONS AND INDIGENOUS STUDIES MINOR

The number of courses required for the minor is 6 (18 semester hours).

The title of the minor, First Nations and indigenous studies, indicates a primary focus on the peoples of North and South America while being inclusive of connections with indigenous peoples in other parts of the world such as Hawaii, Aotearoa (New Zealand), and Australia. The minor is multidisciplinary and reflects a wide range of academic viewpoints originating from psychology, history, anthropology, women's and gender studies, and sociology, among others. Emphasized areas include histories, contemporary issues, environmental justice, social justice, oral and written literature, art, and law.

REQUIRED COURSES

- Six courses from the following, including at least one FNIS course:

ANTH 210	Material Culture and Museums
ANTH 250	Hawaii
ANTH 345	Maya Ethnography

ANTH 359	Pacific and Cultural Survival
FNIS 212	Home Lands
FNIS 285/385	Topics
HIST 372	Colonial Encounters
PSY 330	Indigenous Psychologies
WGS 260	Indigenous Women's Experience

FRENCH MINOR

Total number of courses required for the minor is 6 (18-20 semester hours).

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (14 sem. hrs.)

FREN 101	Introductory French I (4 sem. hrs.)
FREN 102	Introductory French II (4 sem. hrs.)
FREN 123	Intermediate French I (3 sem. hrs.)
FREN 124	Intermediate French II (3 sem. hrs.)
- At least six semester hours at the 200-level or above, taught in French, normally taken off campus in a Wells-approved program or via cross-registration or by transfer credit. These courses must be approved by the minor coordinator. (6 sem. hrs.)

A period of study in a French-speaking country is strongly recommended.

GENDER STUDIES

See women's and gender studies major; women's and gender studies minor.

HISTORY MAJOR

History is the study of human societies, their changes and continuities. It attempts to make sense of the human experience, its complexities and ironies. History is truly interdisciplinary in its enquiry and, of necessity, in the nature of the tools used to understand people in the past. Historians do not merely compile data to tell a sequential tale. To be informed as well as is possible is the prerequisite to the equally important task of interpretation. The goal of historians is thus multifaceted.

Students who choose to major in history receive the training to develop skills in a number of areas. Some of them are how to research effectively; how to write on a complex topic in a way that is generally understandable, not mystifying; how to state one's case orally as well as in written form; to discuss and defend one's point of view drawing from evidence to substantiate and strengthen the argument; how to sift through large bodies of evidence to discover which is of more, which of lesser, importance to making sense of the topic; to develop the immensely valuable faculty of thinking historically, of seeing the fluidity and evolution over time of women, men, their attitudes and values, and the societies they have created and which contain them.

Many of those who majored in history have, over the years, been disproportionately represented in leadership roles in society. The training and skills instilled in history students are designed to develop the individual's capacity for judgment and decision-making.

The number of courses required for the major is 14 (36-42 semester hours). At least six of these courses (18 semester hours) must be at the 300-level or above.

REQUIRED COURSES• All of the following (7 sem. hrs.)

INCLUSIVE CHILDHOOD EDUCATION MAJOR

See education: inclusive childhood major.

INDIGENOUS STUDIES MINOR

See first nations and indigenous studies minor.

INDIVIDUALIZED MAJOR

Students may propose a self-designed individualized major if they have an educational objective that would be better served than by pursuing one of the established majors at Wells College or by pursuing an established major and minor. Each individualized major is expected to meet the philosophical and educational goals of Wells College and to afford the student maximum exposure to the breadth and depth of a liberal education as well as an opportunity to undertake advanced work in an area of special interest. The individualized major must have a clear focus, and at least two disciplines must be substantially represented. The Academic Standing, Advising, and Admissions Committee will approve or reject these programs.

Regulations for Individualized Majors: The proposed individualized major must have a minimum of 36 semester hours, a maximum of 45 semester hours on one discipline, and a maximum of 65 semester hours overall, including the senior essay/project, IM 401 (4 semester hours). It must include a minimum of 18 semester hours of work at the 300-level or above. The minimum required cumulative GPA at the time of application is 3.0.

INTERNATIONAL STUDIES MAJOR

The major in international studies introduces students to contemporary international systems, the complex political, economic, environmental and cultural factors that affect relations among nation-states and peoples globally. Students majoring in international studies will acquire a knowledge of particular global and international issues and paradigms, as well as the ability to work effectively, innovatively, and creatively, in at least two geo-political and cultural areas of the world. Familiarity with a language other than ones native tongue and a balanced cultural knowledge are important components of this major. The major is designed to prepare Wells students to assume professional roles in our complex global environment.

Beyond courses essential to the core of International Studies, the student must take several courses that will give her/him an understanding of global issues and systems. She/he is also required to take courses that provide an understanding and appreciation of cultures and languages of a specific region. Students must take 6 courses at the 300 level. Students must work closely with their advisor to plan a curriculum that makes sense for the area in which s/he wishes to specialize.

The number of courses required for the major is 13 (33-34 semester hours).

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (12 sem. hrs.)

CORE COURSES IN INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

INTL 151	Introduction to International Studies (3 sem. hrs.)
INTL 290/390	Internship in International Studies (3-4 sem.hrs)
INTL 402	Senior Seminar in International Studies (4 sem. hrs.)
OCS 271	Cross-Cultural Preparation (.5 sem. hr.)
OCS 272	Cross-Cultural Reflection (.5 sem. hr.)
POLS 210	The United Nations Simulation (1 sem. hr.)

- Three of the following, at least two courses must be at the 300 level (9 sem. hrs.)

GLOBAL SYSTEMS AND ISSUES

ANTH 161	Introduction to Anthropology (3 sem. hrs.)
ARTH 105	Art of Non-Western Cultures Survey (3 sem. hrs.)
ECON 209	Introduction to Political Economy (3 sem. hrs.)
ECON 255	The Political Economy of Globalization (3 sem. hrs.)
ECON 330	World Economy (3 sem. hrs.)
ECON 350	Economy of Developing Nations (3 sem. hrs.)
HIST 103	History of the World Civ 1650-Present (3 sem. hrs.)
INTL 350	Comparative Environmental Policy (3 sem. hrs.)
POLS 262	Politics in Developing Nations (3 sem. hrs.)
POLS 267	International Organizations (3 sem. hrs.)
POLS 320	Liberalism and Its Critics (3 sem. hrs.)
POLS 332	Old and New Paradigms in World Politics (3 sem. hrs.)
POLS 355	Approaches to International Relations (3 sem. hrs.)
POLS 365	Government and Politics in Industrialized Nations

- Geo-Political and Cultural Areas: These courses provide social and cultural understandings (12 sem. hrs.:

Students must take two courses from two of the following categories. At least one course should be at the 300 level. The language in which s/he demonstrates or reaches 200-level skills in (see below) should be prevalent in one of these areas. Students must work closely with their advisors to develop a curriculum that makes sense for the region in which they specialize. Courses taken during the semester immersion (see below) may substitute for courses in this section.

AFRICA

FMS 220	Post-Colonial African Cinema (3 sem. hrs.)
INTL 160	Africana Studies (3 sem. hrs.)
POLS 268	Politics of Predominantly Black Nations (3 sem. hrs.)

ASIA

ANTH 359	Pacific and Cultural Survival (3 sem. hrs.)
POLS 340	Politics of the Emerging Nations in Asia (3 sem. hrs.)
RELG 275	Religions of Asia (3 sem. hrs.)

EUROPE

ENGL 250	British Literature 1800 to Present (3 sem. hrs.)
HIST 210	Women and Gender in Europe 1550 to present (3 sem. hrs.)

INDIGENOUS

ANTH 345	Contemporary Maya (3 sem. hrs.)
ANTH 359	Pacific and Cultural Survival (3 sem. hrs.)
FNIS 212	Home Lands (3 sem. hrs.)
PSY 330	Indigenous Psychologies (3 sem. hrs.)
RELG 330	Native Americans and the Environment (3 sem. hrs.)
WGS 260	Indigenous Women's Experiences (3 sem. hrs.)

LATIN AMERICA AND CARIBBEAN

HUM 360	Latin American Literature, Revolution and History (3 sem. hrs.)
HUM 378	Women and Literature in Latin America (3 sem. hrs.)
SPAN 385	Topics (if relevant) (3 sem. hrs.)

- Language:

Wells College requires two language courses or placement into 200-level language courses through examination. For International Studies students this language must be prevalent in one of the regions in which they wish to specialize. Bilingual students must demonstrate skills at the 200-level in a language other than English.

- Semester Immersion:

International studies majors must study for one semester in one of the regions s/he is specializing in. Classes taken while in that region may substitute for classes in the Geo-political and Cultural Areas listed above. Be sure to consult with your advisor for appropriate semester-long immersion experiences.

Nota Bene: International studies students are highly encouraged to write their senior theses on a topic related to their geo-political region of speciality.

ITALIAN MINOR

The total number of courses required for the minor is 6 (18-20 semester hours).

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (14 sem. hrs.)

ITAL 101	Elementary Italian I (4 sem. hrs.)
ITAL 102	Elementary Italian II (4 sem. hrs.)
ITAL 123	Intermediate Italian I (3 sem. hrs.)
ITAL 124	Intermediate Italian II (3 sem. hrs.)

- Two courses at the 200- or 300-level, taught in Italian, normally taken off campus in a Wells approved program, or via cross-registration agreements. (6 sem. hrs.)

JAPANESE MINOR

The total number of courses required for the minor is 6, plus two one-semester-hour tutorials (20-22 semester hours).

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (16 sem. hrs.)

JPN 101	Elementary Japanese I (4 sem. hrs.)
JPN 102	Elementary Japanese II (4 sem. hrs.)
JPN 123	Intermediate Japanese I (3 sem. hrs.)
JPN 124	Intermediate Japanese II (3 sem. hrs.)
JPN 195	Tutorial in Japanese (1 sem. hr.-corequisite with JPN 123)
JPN 195	Tutorial in Japanese (1 sem. hr.-corequisite with JPN 124)

- At least six credit hours at the 200- or 300-level, taught in Japanese, normally taken off campus in a Wells-approved program. Japanese Language C at Doshisha Women's College will fulfill this requirement; Cornell University's or other institutions' courses must be approved in advance by the minor coordinator. One course in Japanese culture is strongly recommended. (6 sem. hrs.)

JOURNALISM MINOR

As the influence of media moves from the page to the internet, writing and stylistic skills become even more important. The foundation of the Journalism minor is a introductory course in media theory and its application, an writing course which emphasizes formal conventions and clarity, followed by two writing attentive workshops. Other courses allow students to explore other media writing opportunities or to broaden the scope of their writing expertise by applying that skill and methodology to real-world problems. (eight courses required for the minor: 21-22 credit hours).

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (13 sem. hrs.):

FMS 101	Introduction to Film and Media Studies (3 sem. hrs.)
FMS 270	Writing for the Mass Media (3 sem. hrs.)
JOUR 101	Writing to be Read (3 sem. hrs.)
JOUR 301	Projects in Journalism (3 sem. hrs.)
WLLS 121	Research Tools and Skills (1 sem. hr.)
- One of the following (2-4 sem. hrs.):

CREA 275	Creative Non-Fiction (3 sem. hrs.)
JOUR 290/390	Internship in Journalism (2-4 sem. hrs.)
- One of the following (3 sem. hrs.):

ART 260	Introduction to Photography (3 sem. hrs.)
ART 261	Photographic Digital Imaging (3 sem. hrs.)
ART/BKRT 127	Introduction to Graphic Design (3 sem. hrs.)
- One of the following (3 sem. hrs.):

HIST 357	Modern America (3 sem. hrs.)
PHIL 240	Ethics (3 sem. hrs.)
POLS 155	American Politics (3 sem. hrs.)
SOC 228	Social Problems (3 sem. hrs.)
SOC 355	Social Movements and Social Change (3 sem. hrs.)

LITERATURE

See majors in English: concentration in English literature; Spanish major.

MANAGEMENT MAJOR

See economics and management major: concentration in management.

MANAGEMENT MINOR

Students majoring in economics and management may not minor in management. The total number of courses required for the minor is 8 (22-27 semester hours).

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (15 sem. hrs.)

ECON 101	Principles of Macroeconomics (3 sem. hrs.)
ECON 102	Principles of Microeconomics (3 sem. hrs.)
ECON 295	Technology and the Labor Process (3 sem. hrs.)
or BUS 201	Principles of Management (3 sem. hrs.)
ECON 302	Managerial Economics (3 sem. hrs.)
MATH 151	Elementary Statistics (3 sem. hrs.)
or MATH 251	Mathematical Statistics (3 sem. hrs.)
- Students will choose three additional courses from the following list. At least two of these courses must be at the 300-level. (7-12 sem. hrs.)

BUS 202	Principles of Marketing (3 sem. hrs.)
BUS 213	Principles of Accounting I (3 sem. hrs.)
BUS 214	Principles of Accounting II (3 sem. hrs.)
BUS 220	International Business (3 sem. hrs.)
BUS 230	Introduction to Human Resource Management (3 sem. hrs.)
BUS 253	Investment Management & Strategies (3 sem. hrs.)
BUS 303	Entrepreneurship & Small Business Management (3 sem. hrs.)
BUS 305	Legal Environment of Business (3 sem. hrs.)
BUS 310	Corporate Finance (3 sem. hrs.)

BUS 385	Topics in Contemporary Business Issues (for a total of 3 sem. hrs.)
ECON 286	Money, Banking, and Capital Markets (3 sem. hrs.)
ECON 290	Internship in Economics and Business (2-4 sem. hrs.)
ECON 303	Intermediate Microeconomics (3 sem. hrs.)
ECON 306	Intermediate Macroeconomic Theory (3 sem. hrs.)
ECON 314	Econometrics (3 sem. hrs.)
ECON 330	The World Economy: Trade and Finance (3 sem. hrs.)
ECON 390	Advanced Internship in Economics and Business (2-4 sem. hrs.)
MATH 305	Operations Research (3 sem. hrs.)

Either ECON 290 Internship in Economics and Business or ECON 390 Advanced Internship in Economics and Business, but not both, can be counted toward the minor.

MATHEMATICAL AND PHYSICAL SCIENCES MAJORS

The majors in mathematical and physical sciences combine purely logical and analytical reasoning, as exemplified by mathematics and computer science, with the study of nature at its most fundamental, the science of physics.

In the past, human curiosity about the phenomena of science and engineering has spurred the creation of new mathematics. Today, this dialogue is not only between mathematics and the physical sciences, but includes economics, the social sciences, and research into artificial intelligence. Computer research is yielding powerful new methods of analysis and visualization, with significant impact on mathematics and the physical sciences. The way is now being paved for a similar computer-spurred revolution in the rest of the liberal arts.

The student who chooses one of the majors in mathematical and physical sciences will receive well-rounded yet intensive preparation for a career or postgraduate work. A major in physics prepares students for professional training in engineering (see Wells College's articulation programs); a major in mathematics or computer science with additional work in economics prepares students for careers in business.

MATHEMATICS MAJOR

The number of courses required for the major is 14 (43-46 semester hours). At least four of these courses (12 semester hours) must be at the 300-level or above. Internships may not be used to fulfill major requirements.

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (25 sem. hrs.)

CS 131	Programming I: Procedural Methods (3 sem. hrs.)
MATH 111	Calculus I: Introduction to Calculus (4 sem. hrs.)
MATH 112	Calculus II: Introduction to Calculus (4 sem. hrs.)
MATH 212	Linear Algebra (3 sem. hrs.)
MATH 267	Discrete Mathematics (3 sem. hrs.)
MPS 402	Senior Seminar in Mathematical and Physical Sciences I (2 sem. hrs.)
MPS 403	Senior Seminar in Mathematical and Physical Sciences II (2 sem. hrs.)
PHYS 111L	Fundamentals of Physics I (4 sem. hrs.)

- One of the following (3 sem. hrs.)

MATH 312	Real Analysis (3 sem. hrs.)
MATH 313	Abstract Algebra (3 sem. hrs.)

- Two of the following (6 sem. hrs.)

MATH 211	Calculus III: Multivariable Calculus (3 sem. hrs.)
MATH 213	Ordinary Differential Equations and Applications (3 sem. hrs.)
MATH 251	Mathematical Statistics (3 sem. hrs.)
MATH 300	Probability Theory (3 sem. hrs.)
MATH 301	Applied and Computational Mathematics (3 sem. hrs.)
MATH 305	Operations Research (3 sem. hrs.)
MATH 312	Real Analysis (if not taken above) (3 sem. hrs.)
MATH 313	Abstract Algebra (if not taken above) (3 sem. hrs.)

- Three of the following (9 sem. hrs.)

Courses in mathematics, computer science, or physics above the 100-level (3-4 sem. hrs.), or
CHEM 301	Physical Chemistry (3 sem. hrs.)
CS 132	Programming II: Advanced Design (3 sem. hrs.)
ECON 314	Econometrics (3 sem. hrs.)

MATHEMATICS MINOR

Students majoring in physics or computer science may minor in mathematics. Internships may not be used to fulfill minor requirements.

The total number of courses required for the minor is 6 (20 semester hours).

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (20 sem. hrs.)

- MATH 111 Calculus I: Introduction to Calculus (4 sem. hrs.)
- MATH 112 Calculus II: Introduction to Calculus (4 sem. hrs.)
- Four more mathematics courses above the 100-level (12 sem. hrs.)

MUSEUM STUDIES MINOR

This interdisciplinary program provides an exploration of theoretical, historical, and applied knowledge pertaining to museum management and programming. Given the broad relevance of Museum Studies skills, students may approach the minor from a variety of disciplines, with particular parallels with social and physical sciences, history, and art. Total courses required is six.

REQUIRED COURSES

- Introduction to Museum Studies:

- MSEU 100 Introduction to Museum Studies (3 sem. hrs.)

- Management Skills (one of the following):

- BUS 201 Principles of Management (3 sem. hrs.)
- BUS 303 Entrepreneurship & Small Business Management (3 sem. hrs.)
- THDA 201 Arts Management (3 sem. hrs.)

- Education Skills:

- EDU 105 Teaching in a Diverse Society (3 sem. hrs.)

- Conservation and Presentation Skills (one of the following):

- ART 118 Three-Dimensional Design (3 sem. hrs.)
- ART 260 Introduction to Darkroom Photography (3 sem. hrs.)
- ART 261 Photographic Digital Imaging (3 sem. hrs.)
- ART/BKRT 127 Introduction to Graphic Design (3 sem. hours)
- BKRT 115 Hand Bookbinding I (3 sem. hrs.)
- BKRT 220 Digital Book and Graphic Design (3 sem. hrs.)
- THDA 220 Principles of Design (3 sem. hrs.)
- THDA 225/325 Production Practical (1-3 sem. hrs.)
- VART 315 Professional Visual Arts Practices (3 semester hrs.)

- Local and Global Perspectives of History, Art, and the Museum (one of the following):

- ANTH 280 World Archaeology (3 semester hrs.)
- EDU 215 Issues in Multicultural and English Lang. Learner Education (3 semester hrs.)
- HIST 357 Modern America (3 semester hrs.)
- HIST 375 Writing History: Theory and Practice (3 semester hrs.)
- OCS 110 January at the Arts Students League-New York City (3 semester hrs.)
- OCS 215 London Theatre (3 semester hrs.)
- OCS 300 The Anthropological Experience in Hawaii (3 semester hrs.)
- OCS 305 The Anthropological Experience in Belize (3 semester hrs.)

One OCS course from one of the Wells College Programs and Approved Programs (with permission of the Museum Studies minor coordinator(s)). Examples include, but are not limited to:

- Florence Program-
 - ART230- The World of Museums: Museology (3 sem. hrs.)
 - ART360- Museum Experience (3 sem. hrs.)
 - ART450- Museum Education (3 sem. hrs.)
 - ART460- Museum: Ethics & the Law (3 sem. hrs.)

- Internship experience at one or more museum, art gallery, archaeological lab, or archival library:

- MSEU 290/390 Internship in Museum Studies (2-4 sem. hrs.)

PHILOSOPHY MAJOR

The major in philosophy focuses on developing rigorously critical and creative thinking across a wide range of issues, from the purely theoretical to the specific and practical, from such questions as the nature of objectivity to whether meat-eating is morally permissible.

It emphasizes problem-solving, methods for resolving conflicting positions, and cultivation of the moral imagination and expansion of human sympathies. It also advances understanding and appreciation of relationships between the various disciplines and fields of study. It accomplishes these goals by means of a combination of historical, analytical, and synthesizing studies. This kind of philosophical work prepares students for a variety of positions that call for clear, rigorous, creative, and humane analysis and judgment.

Fifteen courses (45 semester hours) are needed to complete the major. At least six courses (18 semester hours) must be taken at the 300-level.

REQUIRED COURSES

- Core: All of the following (24 sem. hrs.):
 - PHIL 100 Philosophy (3 sem. hrs.)
 - PHIL 114 Logic and Critical Thinking (3 sem. hrs.)
 - PHIL 230 Ancient and Medieval Philosophy (3 sem. hrs.)
 - PHIL 235 Modern and Post-Modern Philosophy (3 sem. hrs.)
 - PHIL 240 Ethics (3 sem. hrs.)
 - PHIL 325 Belief and Knowledge (3 sem. hrs.)
 - PHIL 331 Mind (3 sem. hrs.)
 - PHIL 402 Research and Thesis in Philosophy (3 sem. hrs.)
- Meaning, Aesthetics, Religion: One of the following (3 sem. hrs.):
 - PHIL 245 Meaning (3 sem. hrs.)
 - PHIL 329 Aesthetics (3 sem. hrs.)
 - PHIL 300 Philosophy of Religion (3 sem. hrs.)
 - RELG 255 Islamic Civilization and Culture (3 sem. hrs.)
 - RELG 269 History, Myth and Religion (3 sem. hrs.)
 - RELG 330 Native Americans and the Environment (3 sem. hrs.)
- Modernity and Post-Modernity: One of the following (3 sem. hrs.):
 - ARTH 270 A Survey of Modern Art (3 sem. hrs.)
 - ENGL 380 Writing Literary Criticism: Methods and Theory (3 sem. hrs.)
 - HIST 228 The Making of Modernity, 1815-1914 (3 sem. hrs.)
 - HIST 330 The Enlightenment and the French Revolution (3 sem. hrs.)
 - RELG 321 Faith and Post-Modern Culture (3 sem. hrs.)
 - RELG 375 Body and Soul: From Antiquity to Post-Modernity (3 sem. hrs.)
 - SOC 363 Sociological Theory (3 sem. hrs.)
- Mind: One of the following (3 sem. hrs.):
 - PSY 224 Social Psychology (3 sem. hrs.)
 - PSY 275 Positive Psychology (3 sem. hrs.)
 - PSY 338 Psychotherapy (3 sem. hrs.)
 - PSY 340 Psycholinguistics (3 sem. hrs.)
 - PSY 347 Cognitive Psychology (3 sem. hrs.)
 - PSY 349 Cognition and Culture (3 sem. hrs.)
- Body, Gender, Power: One of the following (3 sem. hrs.):
 - ANTH 222 Anthropology, Religion and Colonialism (3 sem. hrs.)
 - ANTH 359 The Pacific and Cultural Survival (3 sem. hrs.)
 - PHIL 310 Ethics, Law, and Social Policy (3 sem. hrs.)
 - PHIL 342 Sexual and Reproductive Ethics (3 sem. hrs.)
 - SOC 235 Social Deviance (3 sem. hrs.)
 - SOC 277 Social Inequality: Class and Ethnicity (3 sem. hrs.)
 - SOC 315 Men and Masculinities (3 sem. hrs.)
 - WGS 245 Body Politics (3 sem. hrs.)
 - WGS 301 Feminist Theory (3 sem. hrs.)
 - WGS 310 Feminist Methodologies: Intersectionalities (3 sem. hrs.)
- Three additional courses from any of the courses listed above (9 sem. hrs.) or PHIL 395 Tutorial in Philosophy and/or PHIL 399 Independent Study in Philosophy

PHILOSOPHY AND RELIGION MINOR

The minor in philosophy and religion is an integrated selection of courses designed to underscore the importance of free inquiry, critical reflection, and reasoned discourse in the interchange of ideas and issues between these areas.

The total number of courses required for the minor is 7 (21 semester hours).

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (12 sem. hrs.)
 - PHIL 100 Philosophy (3 sem. hrs.)
 - PHIL 300 Philosophy of Religion (3 sem. hrs.)
 - PHIL 325 Belief and Knowledge (3 sem. hrs.)
 - RELG 100 Gods and Creation: East and West (3 sem. hrs.)
- Three additional courses from the following (9 sem. hrs.)
 - ANTH 222 Anthropology, Religion and Colonialism (3 sem. hrs.)
 - PHIL 240 Ethics (3 sem. hrs.)
 - PHIL 245 Meaning (3 sem. hrs.)
 - RELG 269 History, Myth and Religion (3 sem. hrs.)
 - RELG 275 Religions of Asia (3 sem. hrs.)
 - RELG 321 Faith and Post-Modern Culture (3 sem. hrs.)
 - RELG 375 Body and Soul: From Antiquity to Post-Modernity (3 sem. hrs.)
 - WGS 245 Body Politics (3 sem. hrs.)

PHYSICS MAJOR

The number of courses required for the major is 17 (54-58 semester hours). At least four of these courses (12 semester hours) must be at the 300-level or above. Internships may not be used to fulfill major requirements.

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (32 sem. hrs.)
 - MATH 111 Calculus I: Introduction to Calculus (4 sem. hrs.)
 - MATH 112 Calculus II: Introduction to Calculus (4 sem. hrs.)
 - MATH 211 Calculus III: Multivariable Calculus (3 sem. hrs.)
 - MATH 213 Ordinary Differential Equations and Applications (3 sem. hrs.)
 - MPS 402 Senior Seminar in Mathematical and Physical Sciences I (2 sem. hrs.)
 - MPS 403 Senior Seminar in Mathematical and Physical Sciences II (2 sem. hrs.)
 - PHYS 111L Fundamentals of Physics I (4 sem. hrs.)
 - PHYS 212L Fundamentals of Physics II (4 sem. hrs.)
 - PHYS 302 Modern Physics (3 sem. hrs.)
- Either of the following (3-4 sem. hrs.)
 - CHEM 107L General Chemistry (4 sem. hrs.)
 - CS 131 Programming I: Procedural Methods (3 sem. hrs.)
- Three of the following (9-10 sem. hrs.)
 - CHEM 301 Physical Chemistry I (3 sem. hrs.)
 - CS 132 Programming II: Advanced Design (3 sem. hrs.)
 - PHYS 221L Principles of Electronics (4 sem. hrs.)
 - PHYS 307 Special Relativity and Intermediate Quantum Mechanics (3 sem. hrs.)
- Two of the following (6-7 sem. hrs.)
 - Courses in mathematics, computer science, or physics above the 100-level, or
 - CHEM 301 Physical Chemistry (3 sem. hrs.)
 - CS 132 Programming II: Advanced Design (3 sem. hrs.)
 - PHYS 221L Principles of Electronics (4 sem. hrs.)
 - PHYS 307 Special Relativity and Intermediate Quantum Mechanics (3 sem. hrs.)
 - PHYS 340 Experimental Physics (3 sem. hrs.)

One of the following (3-4 sem. hrs.)

Any course in computer science, mathematics or physics above the 100-level.

PHYSICS MINOR

Students majoring in computer science or mathematics may minor in physics. Internships may not be used to fulfill minor requirements.

The total number of courses required for the minor is 6 (21-22 semester hours).

REQUIRED COURSES

- All of the following (21-22 sem. hrs.)

MATH 112	Calculus II: Introduction to Calculus (4 sem. hrs.)
PHYS 111L	Fundamentals of Physics I (4 sem. hrs.)
PHYS 212L	Fundamentals of Physics II (4 sem. hrs.)
PHYS 302	Modern Physics (3 sem. hrs.)
Two more physics courses above the 100-level (6-7 sem. hrs.)

POLITICAL SCIENCE MAJOR

At the heart of political science analysis is the question of the struggle for power. Thus, the major exposes students to changing paradigms and schools of thought centered on how institutional and individual power is gained, organized, used, lost or abused. The major introduces students to the various methods, concerns, and analytical issues in the basic subfields of the discipline: American politics, comparative politics, international relations, and political theory.

In this major, students will acquire broad skills regarding the analysis of, and critical knowledge about: the agencies, functions and structures of the institutions of power; the nature of political behavior; and the principles and processes of governance. It prepares students for careers in government, law, development, non-governmental organizations, educational institutions, and research areas.

Students can earn academic credit for internships in a range of settings such as the United Nations, multinational corporations, transnational financial institutions, cultural and political organizations, the White House, Capitol Hill, law offices and courts, political campaigns, and social service agencies. All students majoring in political science are encouraged to take part in a study abroad or exchange program to further broaden their academic experience.

The total number of courses required for the major in political science is 14 (43-45 semester hours).

PSYCHOLOGY MAJOR

The field of psychology addresses the questions of how humans act, know, develop, and interact. We focus on the scientific study and understanding of human behavior and the mind with an emphasis on developmental, social, cognitive, educational, and clinical aspects. Internships and service learning give students opportunities to learn experientially how to bridge theory and practice. Cross-cultural approaches are included in many courses and students are encouraged to experience another culture through off-campus study or study abroad. Psychology is a diverse discipline and thus provides a solid background for graduate studies at the master's and doctoral levels in a variety of fields, such as social work, law, teaching, medicine, forensics, and clinical and counseling psychology.

The total number of courses required for the major is 11 (33-36 semester hours). At least six of the courses (18 semester hours) taken for the major must be at the 300-level or above. No more than one internship may be taken to meet the requirements for the major.

SOCIOLOGY AND ANTHROPOLOGY MAJOR

Professor E. Olson, Chair

Anthropology and Sociology examine humanity from global systems to inter-personal interaction. These sister disciplines help us to understand social structures and individual roles within them, the effects of colonialism on colonies and colonial powers, oppression and privilege, imperialism and self-determination and local responses to global conditions. The sociological imagination and the anthropological perspective together help us to understand how we both affect and are affected by the social and physical world around us. This major provides students with an understanding of the dynamics of culture, cultural survival, ethnicity, race, gender, class, sexuality, etc., and the foundations for conducting research so they will be able to participate in the creation of a more equitable and sustainable world.

The total number of courses required for the major is 15 (43-48 semester hours). At least six of the courses (18-19 semester hours) taken for the major must be at the 300-level or above.

REQUIRED COURSES

• All of the following (22-24 sem. hrs.)

ANTH 161 Introduction to Anthropology (3 sem. hrs.)

VISUAL ARTS MAJOR

The visual arts as a major area of study offers students the opportunity to develop:

An understanding of artistic creativity through making art in a studio setting;

A responsive eye and a sense of visual literacy;

An understanding of the relationship between art and society;

An understanding of modern art concepts and contemporary trends as well as the major artistic epochs of the past.

The total number of courses required for the major is 15-16 (48-53 semester hours). At least six courses taken for the major must be at the 300-level or above.

Students majoring in the visual arts will benefit from the experience of study abroad and should consult the study abroad programs in this catalog. Because the senior seminar and essay or project must be accomplished on campus during both fall and spring semesters of the senior year, visual arts majors who wish to study abroad must do so before their senior year.

WOMEN'S AND GENDER STUDIES MAJOR

The objectives of the women's and gender studies major are: to acquaint students with historical and cultural perspectives on gender roles, particularly as experienced by women, in order to facilitate understanding of complex, interconnected systems of oppression; to investigate and explore the formation of gender/ed identities and the relationships between variously gendered persons within local communities and cross-culturally; to familiarize students with the ways in which women's and gender studies has incorporated questions of power and gender into the practice of academic scholarship; to inquire about and contribute to the on-going transformations of scholarly methods and approaches; to interrogate the neglect of women by traditional academic disciplines and to advocate for continual interdisciplinary change; and to analyze social and political issues as they pertain to the social construction of difference. The goal of these objectives is to prepare students to become active, affective, and effective agents in the world.

Courses of Instruction

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

Courses use letter grades unless otherwise indicated.

The College reserves the right to cancel any course not elected by a sufficient number of students.

ANTHROPOLOGY

ANTH 161. Introduction to Anthropology

This course introduces the fundamentals of anthropology: what does it mean to “think anthropologically”? Ethnographic case studies reveal the ways in which anthropology encourages us to confront critical issues of survival for indigenous peoples and local cultures. Offered annually fall semester. (3 sem. hrs.)

ANTH 210. Material Culture and Museums

The course examines anthropological scholarship on the complex relationship between lived cultures, their material objects, and museums/ethnic theme parks. It explores issues of cultural authenticity, ownership and preservation, political subordination and misrepresentation, and cultural change in a globalizing world. Prerequisites: ANTH 161 or MSEU 100 or POI. Every Spring semester. (3 sem. hrs.)

ANTH 222. Anthropology, Religion and Colonialism

An exploration of anthropological approaches to the study of religion. Particular attention is paid to “local” or indigenous religions from Africa, Asia, the Pacific, and elsewhere. Such local religions are studied in relation to world religions, colonization, and global influence. Offered alternate fall semesters. (3 sem. hrs.)

ANTH 230. Culture and Gardens

This course will travel through time and space to garden spaces and practices found in a wide range of cultures. (3 sem. hrs.)

ANTH 250. Hawaii: Colonialism and Tourism

This course is an anthropological examination of the cultures and religions of Hawaii, from pre-contact with the West to contemporary context. Particular attention is paid to the effects of colonialism and tourism. Prerequisite: any social science course. Offered annually fall semester. (3 sem. hrs.)

ANTH 260. Ethnographic Methods

A hands-on course for learning about and practicing ethnographic research methods. We will spend class time examining different styles of write-up, different approaches to getting information and different ways of interpreting data. Students must complete a research project. Prerequisite: one course in the social sciences and sophomore standing. Offered annually. (4 sem. hrs.)

ANTH 270. The Anthropology of Food

This course looks at human relationships with food — the meaning of food, the origins of food, the political economy of food, and food controversies — all with the eye of an anthropologist. Prerequisite: one course in the social sciences. Offered alternate years. (3 sem. hrs.)

ANTH 280. World Archaeology

This course is an introduction to world archaeology. The course provides a survey of archaeological methods and theory. The course highlights the development of the discipline and some of the great civilizations of the ancient world are considered from an archaeological viewpoint. Offered alternate fall semesters (3 sem. hrs.)

ANTH 290/390. Internship in Anthropology

The anthropology internship is designed to be an experience beyond the classroom. The internship might include archaeological fieldwork, service learning in an institution or community, or activism within a particular cultural context. Costs and arrangements are the responsibility of the student. Graded: S/U. Offered as needed. (2-4 sem. hrs.)

ANTH 330. Anthropological Theory and Ethnography

The course surveys contemporary anthropological theory and research. A close reading of several recent ethnographies allows for a critical examination of culture, fieldwork, and ethnographic representation via text, photography, film, and material display. theories and research methods. The course examines a number of anthropological texts that critically reflect on ideas about culture, fieldwork, and ethnographic representation. Offered every spring semesters. (3 sem. hrs.)

ANTH 345. Maya Ethnography

An exploration of Maya culture and society. We will focus on gender relations, traditional healing, religion and social problems (especially domestic violence and alcoholism). We will also discuss representations of Mayan peoples in academia, tourism and mass media. Prerequisite: one course in the social sciences. Offered alternate years.. (3 sem. hrs.)

ANTH 359. The Pacific and Cultural Survival

This course is a study of Pacific cultures and the social, economic, religious, political, and environmental challenges that threaten their survival. Topics such as global warming, depletion of the natural environment, political unrest, and economic crisis are considered in relation to local cultural responses. Prerequisite: one course in anthropology or sociology. Offered alternate years. (3 sem. hrs.)

ANTH 385. Topics in Anthropology

In-depth study of a selected topic in anthropology. Past topics included: Contemporary Native American Issues. May be repeated for credit with different topics. Offered as needed. (2-4 sem. hrs.)

ANTH 399. Independent Study in Anthropology

Prerequisite: permission of instructor and approval. May be repeated for credit. Offered as needed. (1-3 sem. hrs.)

ART

ART 118. Three-Dimensional Design

A fundamental sculpture design course with emphasis on experimentation with materials, forms, and images. Found objects, string, rope, twine, wire, glue, cardboard, foamcore, Styrofoam, wood, plaster, clay, etc. will be used. Wood cutting and carving, plaster mold-making, and ceramic processes will be introduced. Materials fee: $50. Offered alternate years. (3 sem. hrs.)

A general introduction to forensic science as applied to criminal investigation and related fields. Focuses on applied principles of physics, chemistry and biology, and on laboratory techniques and procedures. Offered alternate year spring semester. (4 sem. hrs.)

BCS 290. Internship in Biological and Chemical Sciences

These introductory internships provide an opportunity for well-qualified students considering careers in the biological and chemical sciences. Interns will work with professional scientists. Each student will give a public presentation of her or his internship upon her or his return to campus. Prerequisite: two 100-level BIOL courses or CHEM 107L and CHEM 108L, or permission of instructor. Graded: S/U. May be repeated for credit. Offered every semester. (2-4 sem. hrs.)

BCS 390. Advanced Internship in Biological and Chemical Sciences

This program is intended to encourage advanced students of biological and chemical sciences to discover the areas of overlap between academic study and the application of scientific knowledge and techniques. Work sites may include hospitals, foundations, clinics, and research laboratories of academic, government or industrial affiliation. Students will consult with the instructor during the development of their internships. Upon return to campus, interns will give a public presentation with written and oral components. Prerequisite: five courses in biology and/or chemistry, or permission of instructor. Graded: S/U. May be repeated for credit. Offered every semester. (2-4 sem. hrs.)

BCS 398. Independent Research in Biology and Chemistry

Supervised research in selected areas of biology and chemistry, which may include experimental work in the laboratory or field as well as in-depth library research. Prerequisite: four courses in biology and/or chemistry and permission of instructor. May be repeated for credit. Offered every semester. (1-4 sem. hrs.)

BCS 399. Independent Study in Biological and Chemical Sciences

BCS 401. Advanced Research

Original laboratory or field research on a biological or chemical problem. Prerequisite: junior or senior class standing and permission of instructor. May be repeated for credit. Offered every semester. (1 or 2 sem. hrs.)

BCS 402. Senior Research Paper in Biological and Chemical Sciences

Independent research paper on a biological or chemical problem, developed under the supervision of a BCS faculty member. Includes constructing a bibliography of relevant literature and writing a paper examining literature. Students who have performed independent laboratory or field research are encouraged to use their results as the focus of this paper. Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Offered annually fall semester. (2 sem. hrs.)

BCS 403. Senior Seminar in the Biological and Chemical Sciences

This capstone course covers current research literature in biological and chemical sciences. Students will write and present paper summaries for discussion that are appropriate for both a scientific and non-scientific audience. Post-graduate career opportunities, and how to pursue them, will be considered. Prerequisite: Senior standing. Offered annually fall semester. (4 sem. hrs.)

BIOLGY

Students may not take two 100-level courses in Biology concurrently.

BIOL 114L. Anatomy and Physiology I

Human anatomy and physiology of selected body systems including sensory systems, reproduction, locomotion, nutrition, and metabolism. Laboratories will include anatomical study specimens as well as physiological exercises using student volunteers. Offered annually fall semester. (4 sem. hrs.)

BIOL 119L. Ecology and Evolution

Organic evolution, the unifying concept in biology, and its relationship with ecology, the distribution and abundance of organisms. The role of ecology and evolution in environmental science and conservation biology. Offered annually fall semester. (4 sem. hrs.)

BIOL 130L. Biology of Organisms

The study of the diversity of organisms in all three domains, Archaea, Bacteria and Eukarya, focusing on the fungal, plant and animal kingdoms. The organ structure and functions of these organisms, their reproduction and their development will be studied in an evolutionary context. Offered annually spring semester. (4 sem. hrs.)

BIOL 185/285/385. Topics in Biology

In-depth study of a selected topic in biology. Investigation of biological topics of special interest to faculty or students. Areas of applied biology (e.g. health, agriculture, horticulture, conservation) or in-depth study of a particular taxon (e.g., ornithology, bryology, entomology) are likely topics. Level of instruction depends on the topic. Past topics have included "The Biology of Humans", "Ornithology", and "Enology: The Science of Wine". May be repeated for credit with different topics. Offered occasionally. (2-4 sem. hrs.)

BIOL 226L. Genetics

An introduction to principles of genetics ranging from molecules through populations, covering the genetics of various organisms, theory and practice of standard techniques, and consideration of the promise AND potential ethical dilemmas accompanying new genetic technologies and genomic analyses. Offered annually spring semester. Prerequisite: Chem 213L, 1 semester of any of the 100-level biology classes, or POI. (4 sem. hrs.)

BIOL 304L. Vertebrate Zoology

The classification, comparative morphology, and evolution of vertebrates. Demonstrations and dissections of selected vertebrates. Prerequisite: BIOL 130L or 114L and another 100-level BIOL course. (4 sem. hrs.)

BIOL 305. Terrestrial Field Biology

Modern and classical methodologies to understand classification and evolution of plants. Emphasis will be placed on the identification of seed plants of the northeastern United States. Prerequisite: BIOL 130L or permission of instructor. (3 sem. hrs.)

BIOL 309. Cellular Biology

A study of cell structure and function, emphasizing molecular components. Topics include metabolism, signaling, secretion, organelle function, growth and division, motility, and death. Laboratory exercises include light and fluorescent microscopy, immunostaining, protein analysis, and cell fractionation. Prerequisites: Biol 114L, Biol 130L, Biol 226L, Chem 107L, Chem 108L. Alternate Fall semester. (3 sem. hrs.)

BIOL 310L. Microbiology

The structure, physiology, genetics, and immunology of microorganisms and their applications to fields such as foods, sanitation, and medicine. The laboratory stresses bacteriological laboratory techniques as well as recombinant DNA technology. Prerequisite: BIOL 130L and BIOL 226L, plus CHEM 213L, or permission of instructor. (4 sem. hrs.)

BIOL 312L. Molecular Biology

A molecular genetics course covering structure, function, and regulation of prokaryotic and eukaryotic genomes. The laboratory focuses on applications of current nucleic acid and protein analyses and manipulations. Prerequisite: BIOL 126L and CHEM 214L. (4 sem. hrs.)

BIOL 324L. Animal Behavior

An ecological and evolutionary approach to animal behavior. Lectures and discussions cover feeding, sexual behavior, aggression, cooperation, communication, and the evolution of social behavior. Weekly laboratory and field sessions concentrate on the quantitative study of the behavior of captive and free-living animals. Prerequisite: BIOL 119L and BIOL 130L or POI. (4 sem. hrs.)

BIOL 325L. Limnology

The biological, chemical, geological, and physical aspects of fresh waters. Emphasis will be on the study of lakes and streams as ecosystems, although consideration will also be given to the biology of the organisms that inhabit these bodies of water. Prerequisite: BIOL 119L and BIOL 130L or ENVR 101, or POI. (4 sem. hrs.)

BIOL 330L. Anatomy and Physiology II

Basic physiological mechanisms in animals, including a detailed analysis of the physiology of neural control, excretion, movement, respiration, nutrition, thermoregulation, and reproduction. Prerequisite: BIOL 126L, BIOL 130L, BIOL 114L and CHEM 214L. (4 sem. hrs.)

BIOL 331. Developmental Biology

The patterns and mechanisms of development in animals including gametogenesis, totipotency, cellular interactions, and genetic control of development. Prerequisite: BIOL 130L, and BIOL 226L. (3 sem. hrs.)

BIOL 363. Advanced Ecology

The interactions that determine the distribution and abundance of organisms. Prerequisite: BIOL 119L and BIOL 130L or permission of instructor. May be repeated for credit with different topics. Offered alternate fall semesters. (3 sem. hrs.)

BIOL 395. Tutorial in Biology

In-depth study of an area of special interest. Topic determined jointly by a faculty member and student(s) in consultation. Meets weekly for one hour. May be repeated for credit. Offered as needed. (1 semester hour)

BIOL 399. Independent Study in Biology

Prerequisite: permission of instructor and approval. May be repeated for credit. Offered every semester. (1-3 sem. hrs.)

BOOK ARTSBKRT 105. Introduction to Calligraphy

An introduction to the principles of calligraphy through the study of three hands: Roman, Humanistic Miniscule and Italic. Emphasis is on practice and technique, with time devoted to the history of letter forms and to individual projects. Tool kit: $80. Offered annually fall semester. (3 sem. hrs.)

BKRT 115. Hand Bookbinding I

This course introduces students to traditional bookbinding techniques by familiarizing them with the tools, materials and techniques of the craft. Students are expected to produce a set of book models that are clean, structurally sound, and consistent with the class demonstration. Lab/Tool kit fee: $75. Offered every semester. (3 sem. hrs.)

BKRT 120. Letterpress Printing

Introduction to letterpress printing. Demonstrations, readings, and assignments on the mechanics of handsetting and printing from metal type. Traditional and artistically innovative approaches to using this medium will be covered. Each student will create her or his own individual projects: postcards, broadsides, book, etc. Prerequisite: permission of the director of the Book Arts Center. Lab/materials fee: $75. Offered every semester. (3 sem. hrs.)

BKRT 121. Hand Papermaking

Students will learn the basic techniques, materials, processes, and concepts used in the Papermaking Studio. Technique will be taught as a method of investigation, a material exploration of ideas. Projects will focus on using papermaking as an image making tool and sculptural material. Projects engaging micro-industry, environmental, and community building models will also be considered. Students will gain skills in harvesting and beating a variety of fibers, sheet forming, watermaking, pulp painting, and high-shrinkage techniques. Additional fee; $50 (1 sem. hr.)

ART/BKRT 127. Introduction to Print and Graphic Design

Fundamental principles of graphic design and visual communication. Content to include current techniques and tools, including digital processes along with historical processes and hands-on work. Materials fee: $50. Offered alternate years. (3 sem.hrs.)

BKRT 215. Hand Bookbinding II

As a continuation of Binding I we will discuss topics related to craftsmanship. While learning more complex structures we will learn experimental image-making techniques with contemporary letterpress printing. The students will create a series of editioned books. Prerequisite: permission of the director of the Book Arts Center. Lab fee: $75. Offered as needed. (3 sem. hrs.)

BKRT 220. Digital Book and Graphic Design

Students will explore classical design principles while learning the digital medium of Adobe InDesign, today's principal publishing and graphic arts design tool. Poster and brochure design will prepare students for the final project of a short, digitally produced hand-bound volume. Prerequisite: permission of the director of the Book Arts Center. Lab fee: $40. Offered annually. (3 sem. hrs.)

BKRT 225. The History of the Book

Surveys the development of the codex, from its beginnings as a parchment manuscript to a printed book on paper. Broad themes such as patronage, manufacture, usage and reception are considered, as well as the evolution of writing, papermaking and bookbinding. Prerequisite: permission of the director of the Book Arts Center. Offered as needed. (3 sem. hrs.)

BKRT 320. The Printed Book

Each student will produce an edition of letterpress printed books with text and images. Image-making using linoleum blocks, pressure printing, and polymer plates will be taught, as well as simple bookbinding techniques. collographs and polymer plates will be taught, we well as simple bookbinding techniques. Prerequisite: BKRT 120 or permission of the director of the Book Arts Center. Lab/materials fee: $75. (3 sem. hrs.)

BKRT 285/385. Topics in the Book Arts

In-depth study of a selected topic in the book arts. Topics may include paper making, marbling, calligraphy, publication, etc. Materials fee may be required. May be repeated for credit with different topics. Past topics have included: Inspiration and the Medieval Binding, and Introduction to Box Making. Prerequisite: permission of the director of the Book Arts Center. Offered as needed. (2-4 sem. hrs.)

BKRT 290/390. Internship in the Book Arts

Individually arranged participation in the work of an institution devoted to the book arts. May be repeated for credit. Graded: S/U. Offered every semester. (2-4 sem. hrs.)

BKRT 299/399. Independent Study in the Book Arts

Prerequisite: permission of the director of the Book Arts Center. Materials fee may be required. May be repeated for credit. Offered as needed. (1-3 sem. hrs.)

BUSINESSBUS 100. Principles of Business

This course emphasizes on the introduction to the business (profit and non-profit) and how it plays a collaborative role amongst all the related functions in an organization accomplishing overall business objectives. Students will be introduced to key concepts in finance, marketing, production, and other functional management areas. Every Fall semester. (3 sem. hrs.)

BUS 111. Personal Financial Management

Personal Financial Management teaches students the skills they need to make informed financial decisions in their life. Topics include transactional accounts, savings, loans, credit cards, mortgages and basic investments. Credit score management and living within one's means will be recurring themes. Offered annually. (3 sem. hrs.)

BUS 201. Principles of Management

Introduction to management. Topics include overview of the management process, management theory, the environment of business, planning and strategy, management functions, and organization design. Offered annually fall semester. (3 sem. hrs.)

BUS 202. Principles of Marketing

An analytical study of marketing fundamentals, with attention given to marketing as a business function, policies and institutions involved in the distribution of goods, product development, pricing and consumer behavior. Prerequisite: Econ 101 and BUS 201. Offered alternate fall semesters. (3 sem. hrs.)

BUS 203. Social Entrepreneurship

A practical and theoretical introduction to the field of social entrepreneurship in which entrepreneurs are using business methods to help solve social challenges often ignored by commerce. Topics include: developing initiatives to make a positive social impact, interpreting the underlying mission of B corporations, and comparing and contrasting opportunities for social intrapreneurship. Offered alternate Spring semester. (3 sem. hrs.)

BUS 213. Principles of Accounting I

An introduction to basic bookkeeping principles, including analysis of transactions, journal entries, posting to ledger accounts, computer applications, and preparation of the trial balance, income statement, balance sheet, and cash flow statements. Offered annually fall semester. (3 sem. hrs.)

BUS 214. Principles of Accounting II

A study of those accounting concepts employed by internal management. Cost-volume-profit relationships, budgeting, cost accounting, capital planning, and price estimating are some of the topics covered. Prerequisite: BUS 213 or equivalent. Offered alternate spring semesters. (3 sem. hrs.)

BUS 220. International Business

This course covers the socio-economic, political, cultural, and legal environments in which international business decisions are made. The course develops skill in methods and strategies of conducting international and multinational business in a global context. Prerequisite: ECON 101 and/or ECON 102 or BUS 201. Offered alternate spring semesters. (3 sem. hrs.)

BUS 230. Introduction to Human Resource Management

Principles of managing personnel in an organization. Topics include hiring, training, evaluating and compensating employees. Prerequisite: BUS 201. Offered annually fall semester. (3 sem. hrs.)

BUS 231. Principles of Project Management

This course will introduce students to project management fundamentals, with an emphasis on planning. Students will acquire knowledge on areas such as project life cycles, organization and charters, work breakdown structures, responsibility matrixes, and the planning, budgeting and scheduling of systems. Prerequisites: Bus 201 and Math 151. Every Fall semester. (3 sem. hrs.)

BUS 250. Innovation, Creative Problem Solving

Students learn a creative problem solving methodology consisting of developing empathy, prototyping process, collaboration, iteration, and feedback. The objective is to enable students to address challenges in business and other disciplines, such as the social and physical sciences. Offered annually. (3 sem. hrs.)

BUS 253. Investment Management & Strategies

An introduction to investments, markets asset classes and account types, combined with methodologies to develop investment strategies. Emphasis on practical knowledge in order to make personal investment decisions and guide the Wells Affiliates Portfolio. Prerequisite: BUS 100 or BUS 111 or BUS 213. (3 sem. hrs.)

BUS 302. Brand Management

Brand management is the discipline that links strategic business objectives, marketing, and operations. The fundamental focus of this course is to deliver theoretical and practical understanding of brand management in order to leverage marketing efficiencies in organizations. High performance companies (for-profit or not-for-profit) understand the importance of their brand and actively manage brand equity. This course will address the importance of brands building, measuring, and managing. Prerequisite: Econ 102, Bus 201, and Bus 202. (3 sem. hrs.)

BUS 303. Entrepreneurship & Small Business Management

A practical and theoretical introduction to the issues faced by small business people. Topics include: establishing and funding the business or social organization, finance, marketing and personnel management. Prerequisite: BUS 100 or BUS 201. (3 sem. hrs.)

BUS 304. Business Analytics

Business Analytics is the study of data through statistical and operations analysis, the formation of predictive models, application of optimization techniques and the communication of these results to customers, business partners and colleague executives. Students will master the skills of data analysis, modeling, and spreadsheet use with BUSINESS ANALYTICS when making business decisions in areas such as accounting, finance, human resources, marketing and operations management. This quantitative methods course provides students with the tools to succeed with a student-friendly writing style and complete Excel integration. (3 sem. hrs.)

BUS 305. Legal Environment of Business

Introduction to the legal system and business law. Students will learn about the legal system, constitutional and administrative law, contracts, torts, product liability, and employment law. Prerequisite: POLS 155 or BUS 201, or permission of instructor. Offered annually. (3 sem. hrs.)

BUS 310. Corporate Finance

A study of the theory and practice of corporate financial decision-making. Topics include investment decisions and securities analysis, capital structure and budgeting, working capital management, and strategic planning. Prerequisite: ECON 101 or ECON 102, BUS 201, BUS and 213. (3 sem. hrs.)

BUS 350. Business Strategy

A study of the theory and practice of corporate decision-making in areas of markets, products, competitive analysis, organizational design, differentiation, technology and other external and internal factors. Topics are taught using the case-study method. Prerequisite: ECON 101 and ECON 102, BUS 201. (3 sem. hrs.)

BUS 360. Strategic Marketing and E-commerce

A study of the theory and practice of utilizing databases and the internet to increase the effectiveness of sales and marketing for businesses and fundraising and servicing for social organizations. Topics are taught and extensively illustrated through use of internet. Prerequisite: Econ 101 or Econ 102, Bus 201, Math 151, and BUS 202. (3 sem. hrs.)

BUS 365. Management for a Small Planet

Course provided a unique focus regarding the burgeoning concern for sustainability and sustainable organizational practices. The course looks at how large multinational corporations, as well as smaller organizations, are making substantial commitments to the "triple bottom line" of economic success, social responsibility, and environmental protection. Prerequisite: BUS 201 and BUS 202. (3 sem. hrs.)

BUS 368. Sales and Sales Management

This course covers the important but increasingly complex skills necessary to both sell effectively and manage a sales force selling physical and intangible goods. Topics are taught and extensively illustrated through case-studies. Prerequisite: BUS 201, BUS 202, MATH 151 or MATH 251. (3 sem. hrs.)

BUS 385. Topics in Contemporary Business Issues

In-depth study of a selected topic in business. Application of economic theories and management principles to current business issues. Topics will vary with student interest, and the course may be taught by visiting faculty. Prerequisite: ECON 101 or ECON 102, and BUS 201. May be repeated for credit with different topics. Offered alternate spring semesters. (2-4 sem. hrs.)

BUS 290/390. Internship in Business

Individually arranged participation in the work of an institution devoted to business. May be repeated for credit. Graded: S/U. Offered every semester. (2-4 sem. hrs.)

BUS 395. Tutorial in Business

In-depth study of an area of special interest. Topic determined jointly by a faculty member and student(s) in consultation. Meets weekly for one hour. May be repeated for credit. Offered as needed. (1 semester hour)

BUS 402. Senior Report in Business & Entrepreneurship

Students complete a senior research report in an acceptable business format to completely explore a topic of current relevance in business or management. Research topic must be approved in advance by Business Center Director. Prerequisite: Completed all Business Major requirements and permission of Business Center Director. Offered annually spring semesters. (4 sem. hrs.)

CHEMISTRYCHEM 107L. General Chemistry

A study of the properties of matter with emphasis upon the relation of properties to structure: atomic theory, chemical bonding, the periodic table, and stoichiometry. Offered annually fall semester. (4 sem. hrs.)

CHEM 108L. Chemical Analysis

The second semester of the introductory chemistry sequence. A study of solutions, solubility, chemical equilibria, acid-base theory, oxidation-reduction reactions, kinetics, and thermodynamics. Quantitative analytical methods, such as volumetric, gravimetric, colorimetric, and electroanalytic techniques will be emphasized in the laboratory. Prerequisite: CHEM 107L. Offered annually spring semester. (4 sem. hrs.)

CHEM 213L. Organic Chemistry I

Structure, nomenclature, physical properties, stereochemistry, reactions, and reaction mechanisms of alkanes, alkyl halides, alkenes, alkynes, alcohols, ethers, and conjugated compounds will be studied. Introduction to infrared and nuclear magnetic resonance spectroscopy in structure determination. Prerequisite: CHEM 108L. Offered annually fall semester. (4 sem. hrs.)

CHEM 214L. Organic Chemistry II

A continuation of CHEM 213L. There will be an emphasis on reaction mechanisms, the chemistry of functional groups and the logic of synthesis. Additional topics include an introduction to infrared and nuclear magnetic resonance spectroscopy in structure determination. Prerequisite: CHEM 213L. Offered annually spring semester. (4 sem. hrs.)

CHEM 301. Physical Chemistry

Special emphasis on those aspects of the subject pertinent to biology and biochemistry. Gases and liquids; thermodynamics and thermochemistry; properties of solutions; chemical equilibria; electrode potentials; reaction kinetics. Prerequisite: CHEM 213L and MATH 111 and PHYS 111L or permission of instructor. Offered alternate fall semester (3 sem. hrs.)

CHEM 303. Medicinal Chemistry

The chemistry, biological evaluation, and mode of action of representative types of drugs; consideration of structure-activity relationships. Current topics selected for detailed study depend upon the interests of those enrolled in the class. Prerequisite: CHEM 214L or permission of instructor. Offered occasionally. (3 sem. hrs.)

CHEM 308LL. Laboratory in Physical Chemistry

Study of selected physicochemical topics in the laboratory. Examples include calorimetry, bond energies, order in liquid crystals and reaction kinetics. Three hours of laboratory per week. Prerequisite: CHEM 301. Offered alternate fall semester. (1 semester hour)

CHEM 315L. Inorganic Chemistry

A study of the bonding, structure, and reactions of inorganic complexes with particular attention to coordination compounds. Topics to be discussed include atomic structure, ionic and covalent bonding, valence bond theory, molecular orbital theory, and organometallic chemistry. Prerequisite: CHEM 108L or PHYS 212L or permission of instructor. Offered alternate spring semester. (4 sem. hrs.)

CHEM 323L. Biochemistry

A study of the structures of biomolecules and the dynamic aspects of biochemical reactions, especially the structure and reactions of proteins, carbohydrates and lipids, with emphasis on enzyme kinetics and mechanisms, biochemical thermodynamics. Three hours of laboratory per week. Prerequisite: CHEM 214L. Offered alternate fall semester. (4 sem. hrs.)

CHEM 326. Biochemical Pathways

A study of the reactions in the biochemical pathways of living organisms, especially metabolism and anabolism of carbohydrates, lipids and proteins, with an emphasis on regulation of interconnected pathways. Prerequisite: Chem 214L. Offered alternate year. (3 sem. hrs.)

CHEM 327L. Instrumental Analysis

Introduction to modern physicochemical methods of analysis with discussion of the theoretical concepts involved, and the application of these in the laboratory. Prerequisite: CHEM 214L or permission of instructor. CHEM 315L is highly recommended. Offered alternate spring semester. (4 sem. hrs.)

CHEM 331. Solid State Chemistry

A survey of topics in the field of solid state chemistry, including symmetry and group theory, crystallography, crystal lattice packing, and phase diagrams. Particular emphasis will be placed on the relationship of three-dimensional structure to physical and chemical properties. Prerequisite: CHEM 108L or PHYS 212L or permission of instructor. Offered alternate fall semester (3 sem. hrs.)

CHEM 385. Topics in Chemistry

In-depth study of a selected topic in chemistry. May be repeated for credit with different topics. Offered as needed. (2-4 sem. hrs.)

CHEM 395. Tutorial in Chemistry

In-depth study of an area of special interest. Topic determined jointly by a faculty member and student(s) in consultation. Meets weekly for one hour. May be repeated for credit. Offered as needed. (1 semester hour)

CHEM 399. Independent Study in Chemistry

Prerequisite: permission of instructor and approval. May be repeated for credit. Offered every semester. (1-3 sem. hrs.)

COMMUNICATION STUDIES

COMM 290. Internship in Communications

Participation in a field learning experience with a newspaper, magazine, radio, television station, publishing house, advertising agency, or a public relations department. Application to the organization, travel, and living costs and arrangements, are the responsibility of the student. Principally intended for students with a communications minor. Prerequisite: at least one course in the communications minor, preferably FMS 270, or SOC 331, and permission of instructor. Graded: S/U. Offered as needed. (2-4 sem. hrs.)

COMM 390. Advanced Internship in Communications

Participation in a field learning experience with a newspaper, magazine, radio, television station, publishing house, advertising agency, or a public relations department. Application to the organization, travel, and living costs and arrangements, are the responsibility of the student. Principally intended for students with a communications minor. Prerequisite: at least one course in the communications minor including one prior communications internship and permission of instructor. May be repeated for credit. Graded: S/U. Offered as needed. (2-4 sem. hrs.)

COMM 395. Tutorial in Communication Studies

In-depth study of an area of special interest. Topic determined jointly by a faculty member and student(s) in consultation. Meets weekly for one hour. Offered as needed. (1 semester hour)

COMPUTER SCIENCE

CS 105. HTML

An introduction to web page design and construction using the Hypertext Markup Language (HTML). This is a self-scheduled, half-semester course in which the student is responsible for completing a series of tutorials and a project. Graded: S/U. Offered every semester. (1.5 sem. hrs.)

CS 108. Excel Spreadsheets

An introduction to Excel spreadsheet software and applications. This is a self-scheduled, half-semester course in which the student is responsible for completing a series of tutorials and a project. Graded: S/U. Offered twice per semester. (1 semester hour)

CS 109. Access Databases

An introduction to Access database software and applications. This is a self-scheduled, half-semester course in which the student is responsible for completing a series of tutorials and a project. Graded: S/U. Offered annually fall semester. (1 semester hour)

CS 131. Programming I: Procedural Methods

An introduction to computer programming. The course will include basic data and control structures, an overview of program organization and problem solving using structured programming, and recursion. (3 sem. hrs.)

CS 132. Programming II: Object Orientation

This is the second course in computer programming and the continuation of CS 131. This semester deals with more advanced topics such as generative recursion while maintaining the strong focus on design principles learned in CS 131. (3 sem. hrs.)

CS 145. Game Design and Development

A non-programming study of theories, practices, and techniques of game creation. The focus will alternate between design and development stages. Please note that this course may not be taken concurrently with CS 345. Offered occasionally. (2 sem. hrs.)

CS 195. Tutorial in C++

Programming in C++. For students who have programming experience equivalent to CS 131, perhaps in another language, and wish to master C++ syntax as preparation for further work in computer science. Prerequisite: Programming experience equivalent to CS 131 and permission of instructor. Graded: S/U. Offered as needed. (1 semester hour)

CS 225. Computer Organization and Assembly Language Programming

A study of computer organization with an emphasis on assembly language programming and operating systems for representative microcomputers. Prerequisite: CS 131. Offered alternate spring semesters. (3 sem. hrs.)

CS 228. Programming Languages Survey

An introduction to differences among programming languages and commonalities among their features. Students will be introduced to and write basic programs in a handful of modern languages with varying support for static, dynamic, functional, procedural, and object oriented programming. Prerequisite: CS 131 or permission of instructor. Offered alternate fall semesters. (3 sem. hrs.)

CS 233 Object-Oriented Programming

This course explores object-oriented programming principles using programming language. Emphasis is placed on event-driven programming methods, including creating and manipulating objects, classes, and using object-oriented tools such as the class debugger. Prerequisites: CS 131 and CS 132.

CS 290. Internship in Computer Science

Individually arranged work relating to computers in an industrial, academic, or governmental setting. Primary responsibility rests with the student for making her or his own arrangements in consultation with the instructor. Prerequisite: Three hours or equivalent in computer science and permission of instructor. Graded: S/U. May be repeated for credit. Offered every semester. (2-4 sem. hrs.)

CS 310. Software Engineering

An introduction to the design and implementation of large software systems. Problem solving approaches are integrated with the software life-cycle considerations, including requirements specification, design, coding, and testing. Prerequisite: CS 132. Offered occasionally. (3 sem. hrs.)

CS 322. Algorithms: Design and Analysis

A study of algorithmic solutions to problems, including techniques used in the design of algorithms, analysis of complexity, and proof of correctness. Usual types of algorithms include greedy algorithms, divide and conquer, flow problems, and dynamic programming. Prerequisite: Math 267. Offered alternate spring semesters. (3 sem. hrs.)

CS 325. Database Systems

An introduction to database management systems with emphasis on the relational model. Topics include the entity-relationship model, relational algebra and calculus, principles of database design, query processing, and file organization. A project will be implemented in a commercial database package. Prerequisite: CS 132. Offered alternate spring semesters. (3 sem. hrs.)

CS 341. Linux Systems Administration

An introduction to Unix/Linux system administration and network administration using Linux and Virtual Machine software. Topics covered include basic operating system concepts, command line administration and utilities, file system management, process control, multitasking, and shell programming. A graphical interface for system administration and management will also be used. Students spend a portion of the class installing, configuring, and administering their own Linux system. (3 sem. hrs.)

CS 345. GUI Programming

Fundamentals of programming for a graphical environment. Programming topics include event-driven programming, user interface creation, responder chains, the Model-View-Controller pattern, and software library use. Students will implement a game or application using a framework such as Cocoa, flash, or Swing. Prerequisite: CS 132 required; CS 228 recommended. Offered alternate spring semesters. (3 sem. hrs.)

CS 285/385. Topics in Computer Science

In-depth study of a selected topic in computer science. Past topics have included: Discrete Mathematics with Computer Applications; Network Architecture and Programming. May be repeated for credit with different topics. Offered as needed. (3 sem. hrs.)

CS 390. Advanced Internship in Computer Science

Individually arranged work relating to computers in an industrial, academic, or governmental setting mainly for advanced students. Primary responsibility rests with the student for making her or his own arrangements in consultation with the instructor. Prerequisite: CS 290 and permission of instructor. Graded: S/U. May be repeated for credit. Offered every semester. (2-4 sem. hrs.)

CS 395. Tutorial in Computer Science

In-depth study of an area of special interest. Topic determined jointly by a faculty member and student(s) in consultation. Meets weekly for one hour. May be repeated for credit. Offered as needed. (1 semester hour)

CS 399. Independent Study in Computer Science

Prerequisite: permission of instructor and approval. May be repeated for credit. Offered every semester. (1-3 sem. hrs.)

CREATIVE WRITING

CREA 271. Short Story Writing

Practice in fiction writing, including exercises in point-of-view, dialogue, setting a scene, and introducing characters. Emphasis will be on student writing in a workshop format, but stories by outside authors, including visiting writers, will also be studied. Prerequisite: ENGL 104 or ENGL 206 or equivalent and permission of instructor. Offered annually spring semester. (3 sem. hrs.)

CREA 272. Poetry Writing

Practice in writing poems, with discussion focusing on imagery, rhythm, voice, and aspects of formal construction. Emphasis will be on student poetry in a workshop format, but poems by outside authors, including visiting writers, will also be studied. Prerequisite: ENGL 104 or ENGL 206 or equivalent. Offered annually fall semester. (3 sem. hrs.)

CREA 275. Creative Nonfiction

Practice in writing creative nonfiction, with emphasis on student essays in a workshop format. Discussion will focus on elements of craft, style, and discovery of individual voice and subject. Work by outside authors, including visiting writers, will also be studied. Prerequisite: ENGL 104 or ENGL 206 or equivalent. Offered annually. (3 sem. hrs.)

CREA 371. Advanced Fiction Writing

Advanced work in fiction writing for those who have distinguished themselves in CREA 271. Workshops and conferences. Some classes to be taught by visiting writers. Prerequisite: CREA 271 and permission of instructor. Offered alternate years. (3 sem. hrs.)

CREA 372. Advanced Poetry Writing

Advanced work in poetry writing for those who have distinguished themselves in CREA 272. Workshops and conferences. Some classes to be taught by visiting poets. Prerequisite: CREA 272 and permission of instructor. Offered alternate years. (3 sem. hrs.)

CREA 375. Advanced Creative Nonfiction

Advanced work in creative nonfiction writing for those who have distinguished themselves in CREA 275, workshops and conferences. Some classes to be taught by visiting writers. Prerequisite: CREA 275 and permission of instructor. Offered alternate years. (3 sem. hrs.)

CRIMINAL JUSTICE

CRIM 115. Introduction to Criminology

This course critically examines the development of classical and contemporary theories of crime, historical and contemporary crime trends in the U.S., official data sources, and the criminal justice system. Offered every Fall semester. (3 sem. hrs.)

CRIM 201. Juvenile Justice

While young people have always been involved in rule-breaking behavior, it was not until the early 19th century that the concept of the juvenile delinquent took shape. Through reading and discussion, we trace the development of this social category and explore the criminal justice system's response to this particular type of offender. (3 sem. hrs.)

CRIM 285/385. Special Topics in Criminal Justice

In-depth study of a selected topic in crime. May be repeated for credit with different topics. Offered as needed. (2-4 sem. hrs.)

CRIM 290. Internship in Criminal Justice

Individually arranged participation in work of institutions devoted to social control or criminal justice. The setting may include prisons, police departments, the courts, etc. Costs and arrangements are the responsibility of the student. Graded: S/U. Offered every semester. (3-4 sem. hrs.)

CRIM 301. Criminal Justice

This course provides an overview of the U.S. criminal justice system. The student will select a project that integrates and expands on material from earlier courses. The project proposal (to be implemented in MPS 403) will be completed by the end of the semester. Meets two hours a week. Prerequisite: senior MPS major in good standing or permission of instructor. Offered annually fall semester. (2 sem. hrs.)

MPS 403. Senior Seminar in Mathematical and Physical Sciences II

Continuation of MPS 402. Student implements proposal and presents project to group. Meets two hours a week. Prerequisite: MPS 402. Offered annually spring semester. (2 sem. hrs.)

MATHEMATICSMATH 105. Contemporary Mathematics

An introduction to some essential ideas, methods and applications of mathematics. Topics include logic and deduction, problem solving, and numbers and numeracy. Tilings and symmetry, voting systems, and game theory will be covered as time permits. Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Offered at least annually. (3 sem. hrs.)

MATH 109. Precalculus

An introduction to the algebra of sets and functions emphasizing polynomials, exponential, logarithmic and trigonometric functions. Applications to business, economics and biology. Can serve as preparation for calculus. Prerequisite: three years of high school mathematics, including two of algebra, and permission of instructor. Offered annually fall semester. (3 sem. hrs.)

MATH 111. Calculus I: Introduction to Calculus

Properties and graphs of algebraic and transcendental functions. Conceptual and analytical introduction to limits, continuity and derivatives, with applications. Prerequisite: MATH 109 or four years of secondary school mathematics, or permission of instructor. Offered every semester. (4 sem. hrs.)

MATH 112. Calculus II: Introduction to Calculus

Continuation of MATH 111. The fundamental theorem of calculus, methods of integration, and applications. Introduction to differential equations, partial derivatives, vectors, and vector functions. Prerequisite: MATH 111. Offered every semester. (4 sem. hrs.)

MATH 151. Elementary Statistics

Fundamental techniques of applied statistics, descriptive statistics and data analysis, probability, population parameters, hypothesis testing, regression and correlation. Prerequisite: three years of high school mathematics. This course is designed for students with at least 3 years of high school mathematics. Students who have received credit for MATH 251 may not enroll in MATH 151. Offered every semester. (3 sem. hrs.)

MATH 195. Tutorial in Trigonometry

Self-paced study of trigonometry topics, either as review or as an introduction. May be used as preparation for calculus or may be taken concurrently. Graded: S/U. Offered every semester. (1 semester hour)

MATH 211. Calculus III: Multivariable Calculus

Continuation of MATH 112. Infinite sequences and series. Vector functions, functions of several variables and applications. Multiple integrals and vector analysis. Prerequisite: MATH 112. Offered annually fall semester. (3 sem. hrs.)

MATH 212. Linear Algebra

Matrices, vector spaces, linear transformations, determinants, and eigenvalues, with applications. Prerequisite: MATH 112. Offered annually spring semester. (3 sem. hrs.)

MATH 213. Ordinary Differential Equations and Applications

Basic theory of differential equations with applications to continuous models. Focus on analytic methods with introduction to numerical methods. Introduction to computer tools in determining symbolic and numerical solutions. Prerequisite: MATH 112. Offered annually spring semester. (3 sem. hrs.)

MATH 251. Mathematical Statistics

Descriptive and exploratory data analysis, one variable and two. Designing experiments and sampling. Examples of probability distributions, random variables, means and standard deviations. Central Limit Theorem. Correlation and regression. Confidence intervals and hypothesis testing. Other topics as time allows. Prerequisite: MATH 111 or permission of instructor. Offered alternate years. (3 sem. hrs.)

MATH 267. Discrete Mathematics

An introduction to the foundations of mathematics and computer science through the study of discrete structures. Topics include logic, methods of proof, set theory, functions, relations, number systems, and algorithms. Prerequisite: one mathematics course or CS 131 or permission of instructor. Offered annually fall semester. (3 sem. hrs.)

MATH 290. Internship in Mathematics

Individually arranged participation in the work of a computer laboratory, statistical office, or industrial research office. The student must submit a report or paper on an appropriate topic approved by the instructor. Prerequisite: background in mathematics appropriate to the project, and permission of instructor. Graded: S/U. Offered as needed. (2-4 sem. hrs.)

MATH 300. Probability Theory

Densities and cumulative distributions of discrete and continuous random variables. Mathematical expectation, independence. Sums of random variables, analysis of Central Limit Theorem. Multivariate distributions. Application of mathematical probability tools in statistical estimation and testing concepts such as power, error types, regression, maximum likelihood principle. Prerequisite: MATH 112 or permission of instructor. Offered alternate years. (3 sem. hrs.)

MATH 301. Applied and Computational Mathematics

This course will emphasize the mathematical formulation of "real world" problems along with common computational techniques used for their solution. Numerical methods and computer use will be emphasized. Prerequisite: MATH 112, PHYS 111L, and a 200-level MPS course, or permission of instructor. Offered alternate years. (3 sem. hrs.)

MATH 305. Operations Research

Theory and application of representative methods in operations research including linear programming, network analysis, dynamic programming, game theory, and queuing theory. Prerequisite: MATH 212 or permission of instructor. Offered alternate years. (3 sem. hrs.)

MATH 312. Real Analysis

Topological aspects of the real line, sequences and series of numbers, convergence, power series, properties of continuous functions, derivatives and their properties, Riemann integration, and the Fundamental Theorem of Calculus. Prerequisite: MATH 267. Offered alternate years. (3 sem. hrs.)

MATH 313. Abstract Algebra

Properties and examples of groups, rings and fields. Emphasis on common categorical notions such as homomorphisms, quotients and isomorphism theorems. Prerequisite: MATH 267. Offered alternate years. (3 sem. hrs.)

MATH 385. Topics in Mathematics

In-depth study of a selected topic in mathematics. Past topics have included: History of Mathematics. Possible future topics include: Topology; Complex Analysis; Number Theory. May be repeated for credit with different topics. Offered as needed. (2-4 sem. hrs.)

MATH 390. Internship in Mathematics

Individually arranged participation in the work of a computer laboratory, statistical office, or industrial research office designed primarily for more advanced students. May be repeated for credit. Prerequisite: MATH 290 or permission of instructor. Graded: S/U. Fee will be variable, living expenses at site. Offered as needed. (2-4 sem. hrs.)

MATH 395. Tutorial in Mathematics

In-depth study of an area of special interest. Topic determined jointly by a faculty member and student(s) in consultation. Meets weekly for one hour. May be repeated for credit. Offered as needed. (1 semester hour)

MATH 399. Independent Study in Mathematics

Prerequisite: permission of instructor and approval. May be repeated for credit. Offered every semester. (1-3 sem. hrs.)

MUSEUM STUDIES

MSEU 100. Introduction to Museum Studies

An introduction to the theories and practices of museum governance and exhibition design. Students will learn approaches pertaining to museum work appropriate to a variety of audiences, including science, anthropology, history, and art. Offered every Fall semester. (3 sem. hrs.)

MSEU 290/390. Internship in Museum Studies

Individually arranged participation in the work of an institution devoted to Museum Studies. May be repeated for credit. Graded: S/U. Offered every semester. (2-4 sem. hrs)

MUSIC

MUS 108. Musical Theatre in American Society

The evolution of musical theatre from the 19th century to the present day, and how society affected or was affected by this evolution. A survey of the best musicals in chronological order, including units on World War II, ethnic, and "Great Books" musicals. (3 sem. hrs.)

MUS 112. Listening: A Survey of Western Music

A survey of Western classical musical styles in historical perspective including compositions by Bach, Mozart, Beethoven, and Stravinsky. (3 sem. hrs.)

MUS 121. Beginning Class Guitar

Group instruction on acoustic guitar for beginning students. Graded: S/U. May be repeated. Offered each semester. (1 semester hour)

MUS 141. Beginning Class Piano

Class lessons at the beginning level using the electronic keyboard lab. Students will learn basic symbols, terms, and rhythms, and to play simple solo and ensemble pieces. Graded: S/U. May be repeated. Offered annually fall semester. (1 semester hour)

MUS 145. Introduction to Music Theory

Introduction to Music Theory is designed to teach students with little or no formal music training the elements of music theory. These elements include reading and writing music notation, learning to use the piano keyboard, identifying intervals, learning the structure of major and minor scales, identifying and building chords, analyzing chordal harmonies, understanding melodic structure, and harmonizing melodies. This course furthers students' understanding of musical principles and practices that have been used in Western music from the seventeenth century through the 20th century. (3 sem. hrs.)

MUS 150. Concert Choir

A performance-based course, Concert Choir is open by audition. Members prepare for a culminating performance of appropriate choral music for a live audience at the end of each semester. Students may sing without registering for credit if desired. Prerequisite: audition. Graded: S/U. May be repeated for credit. Offered every semester. (2 sem. hrs.)

MUS 210. World Music

An introduction to the great diversity of traditional musics worldwide including units selected from Africa, Asia (China, Japan, Indonesia), the Indian subcontinent, Latin America, and Native American music; some consideration of theatre and dance as well. Includes recorded music, videos, and guest presentations. (3 sem. hrs.)

MUS 220. Wells College Jazz Band

Students learn to perform the standard jazz repertoire on their instrument of expertise. They also learn improvisation technique. Prerequisite: audition or permission of instructor. Graded: S/U. May be repeated for credit. Offered every semester. (.5 sem. hrs.)

MUS 242. Music Theory I

A study of the language of music and its construction. Includes part writing in 4 part vocal style and analysis of Western music and harmony with some composition. Electronic keyboard lab is used for practice and assignments. Prerequisite: MUS 145 or permission of instructor. (3 sem. hrs.)

MUS 253. Chamber Orchestra

Instrumental musicians rehearse and perform orchestral works from the Renaissance period to the present. Two weekly rehearsals and at least one performance on campus each semester. Prerequisite: permission of instructor and musical and technical proficiency to match other members of the orchestra. May be repeated for credit. Graded: S/U. Offered every semester. (1 semester hour)

OFF-CAMPUS STUDYOCS 110. January at the Art Students League — New York City

Thorough instruction in drawing, painting, sculpture, graphics, and illustration. The Art Students League is the oldest, and one of the most respected, art schools in the United States. Classes Monday-Friday. Afternoon visits to galleries, museums, and artists' studios. Graded: S/U. May be repeated for credit. Offered January. (3 sem. hrs.)

OCS 215. London Theatre

Offerings in London theatre. Attendance at approximately 10-15 performances will sample the range of venues, types of drama, and styles of production from the Royal Shakespeare and National Theatre and fringe and pub companies; reading of selected plays, discussion, and written reviews of performances. Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Offered alternate years. (3 sem. hrs.)

OCS 271. Cross-Cultural Preparation

Topics include culture, cultural differences, culture shock, cross-cultural conflict, safety while abroad, and re-entry shock. Offered B-session of the semester before going abroad. Required for study abroad. Graded: S/U. Offered every semester. (.5 semester hour)

OCS 272: Cross-Cultural Reflection

Required during and after studying abroad, this course addresses and reflects on and discusses concepts introduced in OCS 271. Classroom application of new perspectives learned abroad will be one of the topics discussed. Graded: S/U. Offered every semester. (.5 semester hour)

OCS 275: Women and Public Policy Seminar

Week-long seminar with women leaders in public service. Formal and informal sessions include policy issues and political institutions, including the Supreme Court, think tanks, Congress, the Executive Branch, and nongovernmental organizations — all from women's perspectives. Graded: S/U. May be repeated once. Offered every January. (1 semester hour)

OCS 280. Women and Science/Technology Policy Seminar

Week-long seminar with women leaders working in the fields of science and technology, held in Washington, DC. Speakers are drawn from a variety of agencies and organizations. Graded S/U. May be repeated once. Offered every January. (1 semester hour)

OCS 285: Topics in Experiential Learning

Week-long experiential learning in a variety of settings, including community service, with opportunities to apply and test studies in the liberal arts. Past offerings have included: American Genealogical Resources; Navajo Nation Experience; Environmental Restoration and Protection in the FL Everglades; and Southern Adventures of Fanny Kemble. Graded: S/U. Offered as needed. (1-3 sem. hrs.)

OCS 300: The Anthropological Experience in Hawaii

This course will involve 2 to 3 weeks of experiential learning and fieldwork in the Islands of Hawaii. Students will explore issues such as Native Hawaiian culture and history, cultural resource management, environmental preservation, agricultural development of sugar cane and coffee, archaeology, multiculturalism, and the impact of tourism. Prerequisite: ANTH 250 and permission of instructor. Offered alternate years. (3 sem. hrs.)

OCS 305: The Anthropological Experience in Belize

This is a two week intensive course in the multicultural nation of Belize doing fieldwork among Garifuna, Maya, Creole and American ex-patriots. Issues covered include land rights, education, cultural survival, tourism, archaeology and preservation of natural resources. Experiential learning opportunities are available. Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Offered occasionally. (3 sem. hrs.)

PHILOSOPHY

PHIL 100. Philosophy

Philosophy is an ongoing and open-ended conversation about basic questions of human existence. This course introduces students to the conversation through the works of major philosophers. Offered annually. (3 sem. hrs.)

PHIL 114. Logic and Critical Thinking

Introduction to the art of sound reasoning. Emphasis is placed on informal logic and practical applications, although some formal proofs are also considered. Offered at least annually. (3 sem. hrs.)

PHIL 230. Ancient and Medieval Philosophy

Survey of works by significant classical and medieval writers such as Plato, Aristotle, Augustine and Aquinas. Offered alternate years. (3 sem. hrs.)

PHIL 235. Modern and Post-Modern Philosophy

A study of philosophy from the 17th to the 20th century. Focus on major philosophers such as Descartes, Pascal, Kant, Hegel, Mill, Derrida and Foucault. Offered alternate years. (3 sem. hrs.)

PHIL 240. Ethics

Introduces concepts and methods of philosophical ethics. Discussion of basic analytic tools, and theoretical answers to fundamental ethical questions; also considers contemporary moral problems such as animal rights, abortion, and euthanasia. Offered at least annually. (3 sem. hrs.)

PHIL 245. Meaning

This course focuses on philosophical perspectives on the human quest for meaning. We will discuss existentialist themes in philosophy, film, literature, and psychoanalytic theory. Prerequisite: PHIL 100 or permission of instructor. Offered annually. (3 sem. hrs.)

PHIL 285/385. Topics in Philosophy

In-depth study of a selected topic in philosophy. For example, a topic in ethics such as the family, abortion or war, or a topic on human nature or religion, such as philosophy of mind, Buddhist philosophy, or existentialism. Prerequisite: PHIL 240 (for ethics topics) or permission of instructor. May be repeated for credit with different topics. Offered occasionally. (2-4 sem. hrs.)

PHIL 300. Philosophy of Religion

A critical examination of various approaches to the philosophical study of religion and analysis of specific topics such as evil, death, revelation, knowledge of God. Prerequisite: PHIL 114 or PHIL 240. Offered alternate years. (3 sem. hrs.)

PHIL 310. Ethics, Law, and Social Policy

Examination of issues at the interface of ethics, law, and policy. Topics such as free speech, separation of church and state, equality, and sex and reproductive rights. Prerequisite: PHIL 240. Offered as needed. (3 sem. hrs.)

PHIL 325. Belief and Knowledge

This course explores philosophical perspectives on belief and knowledge. Sociological, psychoanalytic and historical perspectives also will be considered. Some topics to be examined include the ethics of belief, the meaning and significance of scepticism, theories of knowledge, the social construction of reality, and faith versus reason. Prerequisite: one PHIL course or permission of instructor. Offered alternate years. (3 sem. hrs.)

PHIL 329. Aesthetics

Special attention to the philosophy of creativity, aesthetic value judgments, and the relation between imagination and knowledge. Prerequisite: one course in philosophy or one course in arts or literature. Offered occasionally. (3 sem. hrs.)

PHIL 331. Mind

What is it to have a mind? What is the mind's relation to the brain? Do we ever have free will? In this course, we consider multiple perspectives on these questions and others in the philosophy of mind. Prerequisite: PHIL 100 or permission of instructor. Offered annually. (3 sem. hrs.)

PHIL 342. Sexual and Reproductive Ethics

Investigation of moral and political issues raised by the separation of sex and reproduction, and new reproductive technologies. Consideration of such topics as contraception, abortion, autonomy in birthing, egg donation, surrogacy, stem cell research, designer babies, and gay parenting. Prerequisite: PHIL 240 or permission of instructor; recommended: one biology course. Offered alternate years. (3 sem. hrs.)

PHIL 385. Topics in Philosophy

Past topics have included: What is Philosophy? Offered as needed. (3 sem. hrs.)

PHIL 395. Tutorial in Philosophy

Opportunities are offered for advanced tutorial study in subjects of special interest to individual students or small groups of students. The number of such courses offered in any single semester must be restricted. Examples of the range and variety of such offerings are individual philosophers, schools of philosophy, and philosophical issues. Prerequisite: permission of instructor. May be repeated for credit. Offered as needed. (1 semester hour)

PHIL 399. Independent Study in Philosophy

Prerequisite: permission of instructor and approval. May be repeated for credit. Offered as needed. (1-3 sem. hrs.)

PHIL 402. Research and Thesis in Philosophy

Preparation of a thesis based on individual research. Prerequisite: senior PHIL major. Offered annually spring semester. (3 sem. hrs.)

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

PE 105. Meditation for Stress Reduction and Relaxation

This introductory level class will explore various forms of meditation for stress reduction and relaxation including seated meditation, walking meditation, and mindfulness-based meditation. Simple yoga postures and breathing techniques will be included as appropriate to class needs. Graded: S/U. May be repeated for credit. Offered every semester. (.5 semester hour)

PE 110. Beginning Swimming

Course designed primarily for those students who do not pass the Wells swimming test. Emphasis on basic stroke technique. Graded: S/U. Offered every semester. (.5 semester hour)

PE 115. Aerobic Kickboxing

This course will explore aerobic kickboxing and fitness training using "Seven-Minute Interval-Fire Functional Fitness®" routines. In each session new aerobic and kickboxing sequences will be presented and practiced working up a great sweat and stoking your metabolic furnace with a routine that is not only a great workout but customizable to your personal goals. Graded: S/U. May be repeated for credit. Additional fee. Offered every semester. (.5 semester hour)

PE 118. Beginning Sailing

Emphasis will be on understanding how to use the wind to sail a boat in a set direction. In addition, how to rig a Sunfish sailboat, take care of equipment in and out of the water, and water safety will be taught. The many different ways a sailboat can be used for personal enjoyment will also be presented. Graded: S/U. May be repeated for credit. Offered annually fall semester. (.5 semester hour)

PE 119. Canoeing and Kayaking

Emphasis will be on learning basic strokes used to control and power these boats. Also, care of equipment, both in and out of the water and water safety will be taught. How these boats are used for personal enjoyment in many different ways will also be presented. Graded: S/U. May be repeated for credit. Offered annually fall semester. (.5 semester hour)

PE 121. Water Aerobics

Low-impact exercises designed to tone your body, increase strength and flexibility, and improve your cardiovascular endurance. Graded: S/U. May be repeated for credit. Offered annually. (.5 semester hour)

PE 123. Yoga

Yoga is a dynamic system of balance that leads to a healthy mind and body. The course contains various techniques of concentration, proper breathing, posture, cleansing and relaxation. Topics covered encourage knowledge of simple hygiene and nutrition. Graded: S/U. May be repeated for credit. Offered every semester. (.5 semester hour)

PE 124. Toning

Exercises designed to increase strength and flexibility of the various body parts. Challenging. Low impact. Graded: S/U. May be repeated for credit. Offered every semester. (.5 semester hour)

PE 125. Exercise and Weight Training

Introduction to weight training and exercise principles. Instruction in proper technique and maintenance of a weight training program utilizing the Universal unit. Graded: S/U. May be repeated for credit. Offered every semester. (.5 semester hour)

PE 129. Beginning Horseback Riding

This course explores the sport of horseback riding mounted and un-mounted. Beginner students will learn to control a horse at a walk and trot. Experienced students can explore pattern work and transition in either hunt seat or saddle seat disciplines. Additional fee. Graded: S/U. May be repeated for credit. Offered every semester. (.5 semester hour)

PE 130. Beginning Tennis

Emphasis placed on skill acquisition of the basic strokes: forehand, backhand, serve, and volley. Introduce rules and scoring. Graded: S/U. May be repeated for credit. Offered every semester. (.5 semester hour)

PE 135. Golf

Instruction in basic techniques from beginning through more advanced levels of play. Opportunity for videotaping and course play. Graded: S/U. May be repeated for credit. Offered every semester. (.5 semester hour)

PE 175. Scuba Diving

This course prepares the student for safe and enjoyable participation in recreational scuba diving. Successful completion of classroom, pool and open water dives results in lifetime international certification. All scuba equipment furnished. Additional fees.. Graded: S/U. Offered every semester. (1 semester hour)

PE 180. Self-Defense

This course presents basic techniques against a weaponless attacker. Self-defense techniques and escapes against grabs, chokes, punches, and kicks are emphasized along with physical skills to avoid injury, strategies applying the psychology of victim/attacker, and tactics to create effective defense. Graded: S/U. May be repeated for credit. Offered every semester. (.5 semester hour)

PE 185. Beginning Shorin-ryu Karate

This course will introduce students to the basic movement skills and concepts of Shorin-ryu karate. Students will learn elementary hand and foot techniques that will be applied in prearranged movement exercises and beginning-level sparring. Graded: S/U. May be repeated for credit. Offered every semester. (.5 semester hour)

PE 190. Nutrition and Women's Health

Through lecture/discussion, independent research, and personal introspection, students will identify personal nutrition and wellness issues and learn to discriminate between external sources of nutritional information and their own internal nutritional wisdom. Topics include diets and weight loss, body image, and the role of diet in chronic diseases relevant to women's health, including osteoporosis, breast cancer, and eating disorders. Graded: S/U. Offered occasionally. Does not meet PE activity requirement. (1 semester hour)

PE 199. Independent Study in Physical Education

With approval and under special extenuating circumstances, a student may elect an independent course of study for seven weeks in the area of her or his choice. Minimum requirements include seven weeks of activity, five times weekly, for a minimum duration of 30 minutes. A journal is to be submitted upon course completion. Graded: S/U. May be repeated for credit. Offered every semester. (.5 semester hour)

PE 223. Intensive Yoga

Yoga is a dynamic system of balance that has received scientific documentation for leading to a healthy mind and body, and also having enabled students to combine natural law with practical sense of well-being. The course contains various techniques of concentration, proper breathing, posture, cleansing and relaxation. Topics covered encourage knowledge of simple hygienic and nutritional hints. Graded: S/U. May be repeated for credit. Offered every semester. (.5 semester hour)

PE 290/390. Internship in Physical Education

Individually arranged participation in activities related to physical education and athletics, at institutions such as YM-YWCAs, high schools, health clubs, or similar sports facilities. Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Graded: S/U. May be repeated for credit. Offered as needed. (2-4 semester hour)

PE 315. Lifeguard Training

American Red Cross certification. Instruction in advanced rescues and escape techniques. Prerequisite: swimming endurance required. Standard First Aid and CPR/BLS required for certification. Additional fee. Graded: S/U. Offered every semester. (2 sem. hrs.)

PE 410. Intercollegiate Swimming

Prerequisite: tryout. Graded: S/U. Students register for the course during the spring semester and receive a grade at the end of spring semester, but practices begin in the fall. Offered annually spring semester. (1 semester hour)

PE 414. Intercollegiate Baseball

Prerequisite: tryout. Graded: S/U. Offered annually spring semester. (1 semester hour)

PE 415. Intercollegiate Softball

Prerequisite: tryout. Graded: S/U. Offered annually spring semester. (1 semester hour)

PE 416. Water Safety Instructor

This course is dedicated to developing the skills necessary to instruct and plan courses in the American Red Cross Swimming and Water Safety program. Students are expected to be proficient in the following strokes: front crawl, back crawl, elementary backstroke, breaststroke, and sidestroke. Additional Fee. Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Graded: S/U. Offered annually spring semester. (2 sem. hrs.)

PE 420. Intercollegiate Volleyball

Prerequisite: tryout. Graded: S/U. Offered each semester. (1 semester hour)

PE 430. Intercollegiate Tennis

Prerequisite: tryout. Graded: S/U. Offered annually fall semester. (1 semester hour)

PE 435. Intercollegiate Cross-Country

Prerequisite: tryout. Graded: S/U. Offered annually fall semester. (1 semester hour)

PE 440. Intercollegiate Field Hockey

Prerequisite: tryout. Graded: S/U. Offered annually fall semester. (1 semester hour)

PE 442. Intercollegiate Soccer

Prerequisite: tryout. Graded: S/U. Offered annually fall semester. (1 semester hour)

PE 445. Intercollegiate Lacrosse

Prerequisite: tryout. Graded: S/U. Offered annually spring semester. (1 semester hour)

PE 446. Intercollegiate Basketball

PHYSICS

Of the physics offerings, one course, PHYS 106 Introductory Astronomy, is of general interest and is intended for students majoring outside the sciences. This course meets the College laboratory science requirement.

Fundamentals of Physics I-II (111L, 212L) form a two-semester sequence and are designed to emphasize the fundamental principles of classical physics and to develop in the student a quantitative understanding of these principles. A third course, PHYS 302 Modern Physics, is an introduction to the revolutionary ideas of 20th century physics.

PHYS 221L Principles of Electronics provides an introduction to the fast-changing science of information and signal processing. They are appropriate for students in the sciences.

The course MATH 301 Applied and Computational Mathematics is designed for a student with a major in mathematical and physical sciences. It concentrates on a variety of mathematical and computer-related tools with applications in physical science.

The remaining courses are designed for the mathematics and physics majors and offer more concentrated study of particular areas of physics and pre-engineering.

PHYS 104. Why Music Matters: The Science of Sound

Music appeals to all people, and has done so for thousands of years. We will apply scientific principles to the art of music to show why music evokes an emotional response. It will include occasional hands-on activity. (3 sem. hrs.)

PHYS 106. Introductory Astronomy

This course covers the basic ideas and techniques of astronomy, The night sky; star physics and evolution; contents and structures of galaxies; black holes and cosmology. Nighttime telescope work, weather permitting. Meets natural laboratory science distribution requirement. Offered alternate years fall semester. (3 sem. hrs.)

PHYS 111L. Fundamentals of Physics I

A calculus-based introductory course for all science, mathematics, and pre-engineering students. Particle kinematics; vectors; Newton's law; forces and their effects; energy conservation; systems of particles; momentum conservation; rotational kinematics. Prerequisite: four years of high school mathematics and MATH 111 or equivalent. Offered annually spring semester. (4 sem. hrs.)

PHYS 212L. Fundamentals of Physics II

A continuation of PHYS 111L. Traveling and standing waves; Electrostatics in vacuum and in materials (Coulomb's and Gauss's laws); Magnetostatics (Biot-Savart's and Ampere's laws); Faraday's law of induction; lenses and mirrors; interference and diffraction of light. Prerequisite: PHYS 111L, MATH 112. Concurrent registration in MATH 211 is encouraged. Offered annually fall semester. (4 sem. hrs.)

PHYS 221L. Principles of Electronics

Introduction to analog and digital electronics. DC and AC circuit theory, impedance, filters, transistor operation and amplification, operational amplifiers, simple logic gates, counters, D/A converters. Prerequisite: PHYS 111L or permission of instructor. Offered alternate years. (4 sem. hrs.)

PHYS 290. Internship in Physics

Individually arranged participation in research with industry or a university. This course will not satisfy any requirement in the mathematics/physics major or minor. Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Graded: S/U. Offered every semester. (2-4 sem. hrs.)

PHYS 302. Modern Physics

This course completes the introductory sequence in physics. Topics: the photoeffect; black-body radiation; early results in atomic physics; Schrodinger equation in one and three dimensions; hydrogen atom; atomic spectroscopy; introduction to quantum statistical mechanics, and applications. Prerequisite: PHYS 111L, MATH 112. (3 sem. hrs.)

PHYS 307. Special Relativity and Intermediate Quantum Mechanics

An in-depth study of the two pillars of 20th Century physics. Einstein's special relativity revolutionized humanity's understanding of space and time, and we will study its treatment of kinetics and energetics, with consideration of length contraction, time dilation and mass-energy equivalence. We then turn to, initially, Schrodinger's quantum mechanics as applied to bound and free states, culminating in the hydrogen atom.

Finally we consider an alternative formulation, using operator methods, which allow for understanding of spin and angular momentum, or single and multi-electron systems. Prerequisites: MATH 111; PHYS 302, or POI. (3 sem. hrs.)

PHYS 340. Experimental Physics

Advanced laboratory work in the physical sciences, using a variety of specialized equipment (examples: Cavendish torsion balance; frequency response analysis of mechanical systems using Fourier methods; hyperfine splitting of rubidium vapor using Doppler methods; measurement of the e/m ratio). (3 sem. hrs.)

PHYS 351. Research in Physics and Computing

Collaboration with physics and related faculty in specialized work. Ongoing projects include: automated data acquisition and analysis, molecular order in liquid crystals, computing languages, and computer modeling and simulations. May be repeated for credit. Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Offered as needed. (2 sem. hrs.)

PHYS 385. Topics in Physics

In-depth study of a selected topic in physics. A course in selected advanced topics in Physics such as Electricity and Magnetism, Quantum Mechanics, or Thermal and Statistical Physics. Prerequisite: junior and senior majors and permission of instructor. May be repeated for credit with different topics. Offered as needed. (3 sem. hrs.)

PHYS 390. Advanced Internship in Physics

Individually arranged participation in research with industry or a university. This course will not satisfy any requirement in the mathematics/physics major or minor. Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Graded: S/U. Offered as needed. (2-4 sem. hrs.)

PHYS 398. Supplementary Advanced Work in Physics

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Offered as needed. (3 sem. hrs.)

POLITICAL SCIENCE

POLS 155. American Politics

An introduction to the institutional and behavioral foundations of American politics. Offered every semester. (3 semester hour)

POLS 210. The United Nations Simulation

Students who participate actively in the Model U.N. Club may receive credit for work done in conjunction with the club's activities. May be repeated for credit. Offered in the spring semester as needed. (1 semester hour)

POLS 230. Democratic Theory

Explores the central themes of democratic thought in political theory, including classical democracy, social contract theory, and current issues. Both classical and contemporary readings address citizenship, equality, and political participation. Prerequisite: POLS 155 or permission of instructor. Offered alternate years. (3 sem. hrs.)

POLS 235. The U.S. Congress

Introduces students to the development of public policy in the United States by focusing on Congress as an institution, congressional policy roles, and relations between the legislative and executive branches. Prerequisite: POLS 155. Offered annually spring semester. (3 sem. hrs.)

POLS 255. American Parties and Elections

A detailed look at the nature of political parties in the United States including organization, electoral considerations and government functions. Independent research by students regarding the health of the party system. Prerequisite: POLS 155 or permission of instructor. Offered alternate fall semesters. (3 sem. hrs.)

POLS 262. Politics in Developing Countries

An analysis of political institutions, dependency, militarism and democratization in developing countries. Prerequisite: POLS 155 or INTL 151. Offered alternate years. (3 sem. hrs.)

POLS 267. International Organization

Examination of the goals, nature, and problems of international organizations with specific focus on the role of the United Nations and its related agencies and programs. Prerequisite: INTL 151 or POLS 155 or permission of instructor. Offered alternate years. (3 sem. hrs.)

POLS 268. Comparative Governments and Politics: Cases of Predominantly Black Nations

The study of the structures of the major political and social institutions and the struggle for power in predominantly black nations. Prerequisite: POLS 155 or INTL 151. Offered alternate years. (3 sem. hrs.)

POLS 285/385. Topics in Public Policy and Politics

In-depth study of a selected topic in political science. Study of participation, public policy and policy making in industrial societies. Topics may include: poverty, housing, education, job training, health care, unemployment, welfare, conservation, political participation, elections, and campaigns. Prerequisite: POLS 155 or sophomore standing. May be repeated for credit with different topics. Past topics have included: U.S. Social Welfare Policy; Race, Public Policy and Democracy in the U.S.; The Politics of Terrorism; and Politics and Whiteness in the U.S. Offered as needed. (3 sem. hrs.)

POLS 290/390. Internship in Political Science

Students may submit proposals for internships in any governmental or political office or in a legal office. Prerequisite: one course in political science or permission of instructor. Graded: SU. May be repeated for credit. Offered as needed. (2-4 sem. hrs.)

POLS 299/399. Independent Study in Political Science

Prerequisite: permission of instructor and approval. May be repeated for credit. Offered as needed. (1-3 sem. hrs.)

POLS 307. Contemporary Political Ideologies

Introduces political theory by examining the ideologies that have most influenced modern, political institutions, movements, and arguments. Refund Policy

No refunds of fees are made in the case of suspension or dismissal.

If a student receives financial aid, tuition refunds will be calculated based on the Student Status Determination (below), the Withdrawal Date (below), the Wells College Tuition Refund schedule (below), and the Federal Title IV Financial Aid refund calculation (below).

Student Status Determination

A student's status (full-time, part-time, or less than part-time) will be determined at the end of the drop period. A student cannot change her or his status after this date. After the drop deadline a student can withdraw from a course(s) through the 8th week, but the student will retain the course(s) on her or his academic record with a grade of a "W".

Withdrawal Date

A student's withdrawal date is 1) the date the student officially notifies the school of withdrawal by completing the Withdrawal Form and Exit Survey and returning it to the Dean of Students Office, or 2) if the student drops out without notifying the school, the last recorded date of class attendance by the student, or 3) if a withdrawal cannot be determined based on the above, the date will be established as the midpoint of the enrollment period.

Wells College Tuition Refund

Students who drop or withdraw from the College are entitled to a refund of tuition in accordance with the following schedule:

Refund during:
1st - 10th day	100%
11th - 17th day	70%
18th - 24th day	50%
25th - 30th day	25%
over 30 days	0%

The first day of the semester is considered the first day of class sessions, regardless of when a given course actually meets the first time.

Financial Aid Refunds

Department of Education regulations govern the return of federal financial aid (Title IV funds) for students that withdraw from the College before the end of the semester. Title IV funds include all federal Direct Loans, Perkins Loans, Parent Loans, Federal Pell Grant, Federal SEOG Grants, and Federal TEACH Grants. Federal Work-Study is excluded. A student earns his or her Title IV financial aid based on the period of time he or she remains enrolled. During the first 60% of the enrollment period, a student earns funds in direct proportion to the length of time he or she remains enrolled. A student withdrawing before the 60% point in the semester may have Title IV financial aid reduced. A student who remains enrolled beyond the 60% point earns all aid for the period and has incurred full-tuition liability.

If you did not receive all of the funds that you earned, you may be due a post-withdrawal disbursement. If your post-withdrawal disbursement includes loan funds, the College must get your permission before it can disburse them. You may choose to decline some or all of the loan funds so that you don't incur additional debt. The College may use all or a portion of your post-withdrawal grant disbursements for tuition, fees, and room and board charges. The College needs your permission to use the post-withdrawal grant disbursement for all other school charges. If you do not give your permission, you will be offered the funds, however, it may be in your best interest to allow the College to keep these funds to reduce your debt to the school.

If you receive (or your parent on your behalf) excess Title IV program funds that must be returned, the College must return a portion of the excess equal to the lesser of (1) your institutional charges multiplied by the unearned percentage of your funds or (2) the entire amount of excess funds. When the institution has determined that a portion of aid is unearned, the unearned aid to be returned is processed in the following order: Unsubsidized Direct Stafford Loan, Subsidized Direct Stafford Loan, Perkins Loan, Federal/Direct PLUS Loans, Federal Pell Grant, Federal SEOG Grant, and Federal TEACH Grant.

The requirements for Title IV program funds when you withdraw are separate from any refund policy that the College may have. Therefore, you may still owe funds to the College to cover unpaid institutional charges. The College may charge you for any Title IV program funds that we are required to return. College scholarships and grants are awarded on the basis of full-time enrollment for the full semester.

Students that withdraw early lose institutionally-funded scholarships and grants. The College reserves the right to consider a proration of institutional funds to assist with billing costs after the semester drop/add period has lapsed. The proration will be similar as that for Title IV funds. Please note that a student who withdraws during the first 10 class days of the enrollment period will not have earned institutional funds and all institutional funds (grants and scholarships) will be returned. The financial aid office and the billing office will be able to inform students of the financial consequences of withdrawing from the College before the semester is completed.

Room and Board and Fees

After a student has registered and occupies a room, 50% of the room fee will be charged. In addition a per-diem board charge shall be calculated from the first day of occupancy until the 30th day. After the 30th day no refund of room and board will be granted.

There will be no refund of fees after the first day of classes.

If the student withdraws from the College prior to the first day of classes all tuition, room and board and fees will be refunded and any dispersed financial aid cancelled.

Transcript and Diploma Hold

Academic transcripts and diplomas will not be issued for current or former students whose College debts are unpaid.

Members of the graduating class are required to settle all financial commitments before graduation.

FINANCIAL AID

Private colleges are expensive, but financial assistance is available to students demonstrating need. Wells College, through its endowment, gifts, and grants, provides financial assistance to eligible students. To find out if you are eligible for financial aid YOU MUST APPLY. In no way does an application for financial assistance affect your admission to Wells College. Complete information on Wells College financial aid policies can be found at global.wells.edu under the "student tab" and then click Financial Aid Homepage.

New Student Application Process

To apply for federal and institutional financial assistance a student and their family must file the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Our federal school code is #002901. You can complete one of the two application processes:

- Complete the FAFSA electronically. Filing electronically shortens the time it takes schools to receive your information and lessens the chances for errors. The federal application web site is www.fafsa.gov. You and, if dependent, one parent must each have an FSA ID that will serve as your signature. The FSA ID is your identifier to let you access personal information in various U.S. Department of Education systems. Your FSA ID serves as your electronic signature and should not be given to anyone. Students and parents cannot share the same FSA ID. If you do not have an FSA ID, you can print out the signature page of the FAFSA and mail it to the federal processor. The FSA ID can be completed at any time at fsaid.ed.gov.
- Complete the paper FAFSA. Forms are available by contacting the Central Processing Center at 1-800-433-3243. Allow 4-6 weeks to process a paper application.

Renewal FAFSA for Returning Students

If you are a renewal-eligible student who had a valid application the year before, when you enter your personal identifiers on the FAFSA website the federal processor will ask you if you want to pre-fill some of the application with data from the prior year. If you choose this option you can review each pre-filled item, correct any that has changed, and provide new information as needed.

Each year most students will automatically receive a renewal reminder by email from the federal government if they provided an email address in the previous application year, or by regular mail if they did not. The reminder tells students that they can reapply for aid on the Web. Wells College also will send a reminder to all students in January who applied for aid in the current year.

Transfer Students

Transfer students are considered a special asset to the Wells College community. They enroll after completing at least one semester's work at another institution, joining the Wells community either in the fall or spring. Transfer students bring breadth and depth of experience that enriches and add value to the Wells experience. As with all students, transfers apply for federal, state, and institutional financial aid by completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at www.fafsa.gov. The federal school code for Wells is #002901. You and your parent, if appropriate, will need to obtain an FSA ID to serve as your electronic signature. You can apply for your FSA ID at fsaid.ed.gov.

International Students

Wells College recognizes the special financial needs of many foreign students; however, we are unable to help all foreign students who enter the country on a student visa. The College does not offer any scholarships, grants, or loans that cover the full cost of attending. Students who do not meet US Citizenship status are not eligible for any need-based financial aid funds. The College does not have institutional grant or loan funds to award international students. The Admissions Office at Wells College will determine if an international student is eligible for our Foreign Student Scholarship upon acceptance to the institution. Realizing that foreign students are only eligible to work on campus, they are eligible to apply for campus employment with the Office of Career Services and Experiential Learning upon their arrival to campus. Due to the limited number of available work opportunities Wells College cannot guarantee all students will be employed in their work study programs.

Deadline Dates

- Freshmen Applicants: Recommended filing date of December 15
- Returning Applicants: May 1 for the upcoming academic year (Verification completion date is June 1)
- Early Decision Applicants: December 15
- Fall Transfer Applicants: Recommend August 1
- Spring Transfer Applicants: Recommend December 15

Students can submit applications beyond these dates. Wells College reserves the right to penalize any returning student with a reduction in their institutional grant if they apply beyond the deadline date. The federal government requires that students must have a processed federal aid application with an official expected family contribution on file before the student ceases enrollment to receive financial aid funds.

Billing Cycle

Bills are generated on or about July 1 for the fall semester and January 9 for the spring semester. Payment or payment arrangements are due August 1 and January 1, respectively. To coincide with our two-semester enrollment and billing cycle, student financial aid is disbursed in two equal disbursements. Federal regulations do not allow the financial aid office to disburse federal financial aid funds to student billing accounts any earlier than 10 days prior to the beginning of each semester. Please note that financial aid will not be disbursed until the student has returned their signed financial aid award letter and completed all verification, loan counseling, and loan promissory note requirements.

State Grant Application

New York State students initiate their TAP grant application when they file the FAFSA. If you did not successfully complete your TAP application at the time you filed your FAFSA you will receive in the mail a postcard from the state processing center outlining the application instructions. The TAP application can be completed online at www.tapweb.org. Our New York State TAP code is #1050.

Students from Vermont can have their state grants transferred to Wells College. Application procedures for these grants may vary so we recommend you contact your state processing center for application instructions.

Part-Time Students

Wells College does not offer institutional merit or need-based aid to part-time students. If eligible under federal and state guidelines, a student may receive some forms of federal and state assistance.

Independent Student Definition

Not living with your parents or not being claimed by them on tax forms, or your parents' ability or willingness to pay does not determine your independent status. You must meet one of the following conditions to be considered an independent student:

- You are 24 years old.
- You will be enrolled in a master's or doctorate program.
- You are married.
- You have children who will receive more than half of their support from you during the school calendar year.
- You have dependents (other than children or spouse) who live with you and receive more than half of their support from you now and during the school calendar year.
- You are currently serving on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces for purposes other than training.
- You are a veteran of the U.S. Armed Services. You are considered a veteran if you have engaged in active duty or are a National Guard or Reserve enlistee who was called to active duty for purposes other than training, or were a cadet or midshipman at one of the service academies, and was released with an honorable discharge.

- From the time you turned 13, both your parents were deceased and you were in foster care or was a dependent or ward of the court. This condition applies even if you are no longer in foster care or a dependent or ward of the court.
- You had no living parent (biological or adoptive) since you turned age 13, even if you are now adopted.
- You are or you were an emancipated minor as determined by a court in your state of legal residence. You must be able to provide a copy of a court's decision that as of today you are an emancipated minor or are in legal guardianship or you were an emancipated minor or were in legal guardianship immediately before you reached the age of being an adult in your state. The court must be located in your state of legal residence at the time the court's decision was issued.
- You were at any time from July 1 of the previous year determined by your high school or school district homeless liaison that you were an unaccompanied youth who was homeless or were self-supporting and at risk of being homeless.
- You were at any time from July 1 of the previous year determined by a director of an emergency shelter or transitional housing program funded by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development that you were an unaccompanied youth who was homeless or were at risk of being homeless.
- You were at any time from July 1 of the previous year determined by a director of a runaway or homeless youth basic center or transitional living program that you were an unaccompanied youth who was homeless or was self-supporting and risked being homeless.

"Homeless" means lacking fixed, regular and adequate housing, which includes living in shelters, motels, cars, or temporarily living with other people because you had nowhere else to go. "Unaccompanied" means you are not living in the physical custody of your parents or guardian. "Youth" means you are 21 years of age or younger or you are still enrolled in high school.

The application of each student applying for independent status will be considered individually. Wells College distinguishes between voluntary and involuntary independence for the purpose of institutional aid eligibility. If a student enters Wells College as a dependent student they will be considered dependent for all the years they attend unless an exception is granted by the director of financial aid in consultation with the dean of students.

Eligible Noncitizen Students

The following students are considered eligible noncitizens and will be considered for financial assistance and should file a Free Application for Federal Student Aid:

- U.S. Nationals
- U.S. Permanent Residents with alien registration receipt cards (I-551 or I-551C)
- Permanent Residents of the Northern Mariana Islands
- Other eligible noncitizens with one of the following documents from the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service: Arrival-Departure Record (I-94) showing (a) "Refugee," or (b) "Asylum Granted," or (c) "Parolee," or (d) "Cuban-Haitian Entrant," or (e) the holder of a valid certification or eligibility letter from the Department of Health and Human Services showing a designation of "Victim of human trafficking."
- An official statement that shows you have been granted asylum in the U.S.

If you only have a Notice of Approval to Apply for Permanent Residence (I-171 or I-464), you are not eligible for federal student aid. If you are in the U.S. on certain visas, including F1 (or F2) student visa or a G series visa, you are not eligible for federal financial aid.

SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS FOR FEDERAL AND STATE FINANCIAL AID PROGRAMS

Full-time and Part-time Students

Wells College is required to have Standards of Satisfactory Academic Progress to comply with the federal and state regulations governing financial aid programs. These standards are in reference to financial aid programs. They are not the academic standards defined by the faculty of Wells College. This means that a student can be placed on academic probation and still receive financial aid as long as they are in compliance with the financial aid standards outlined below. These regulations are subject to change by both federal and state legislative action at any time.

Wells College's academic progress policy for financial aid includes a qualitative and quantitative measure in reviewing a student's academic progress. To ensure that a student is making both qualitative and quantitative progress throughout her or his course of study, Wells College will assess the student's progress at the end of each semester for New York State TAP requirements and at the end of each academic year for federal aid purposes.

Part-time students shall be evaluated by the same standards as full-time students from the date they first matriculate. However, part-time students need only to accrue courses at one-half the rate of full-time students.

The following regulations will apply when reviewing a student's program pursuit:

- A student must earn 120 credit hours to graduate.
- A student is eligible to receive institutional and federal financial assistance for 180 attempted credit hours in her or his pursuit of the Baccalaureate Degree. A student is eligible under federal guidelines to receive (12) semesters of a Pell Grant and in the New York State TAP program to receive (8) semesters of aid. However, a student has (7) years in which to complete her or his degree requirements, regardless of her or his eligibility for financial aid.
- Grades at Wells College are recorded in terms of the letter A, B, C, D, F with additional gradation for the letters A through D, indicated by plus or minus signs. The numerical equivalent of these letter grades for the computation of academic standing is as follows: A+ = 4.3, A = 4.0, A- = 3.7, B+ = 3.3, B = 3.0, B- = 2.7, C+ = 2.3, C = 2.0, C- = 1.7, D+ = 1.3, D = 1.0, D- = 0.7, and F = 0.
- Certain courses are graded as U (Unsatisfactory), S (Satisfactory), and Pass/Fail. These courses will not be used in the calculation of a student's grade point average with the exception of F and U = 0. However, all courses passed can be applied to the total number of credits successfully completed.

New York State Student Aid

In order to maintain eligibility for New York State financial aid awards, students must meet minimum requirements for academic progress. These requirements are both qualitative (minimum GPA) and quantitative (minimum courses successfully completed). Eligibility is reviewed prior to the start of each semester using cumulative GPA and courses completed. Students must attempt a minimum number of credits and must have successfully earned a certain number of credits for each payment period. These requirements are outlined in the chart below.

Semester Payment	Minimum # of Credits Attempted	Total # Earned Credits	GPA
2	6	6	1.5
3	6	15	1.8
4	9	27	1.8
5	9	39	2.0
6	12	51	2.0
7	12	66	2.0
8	12	81	2.0
9	12	96	2.0
10	12	111	2.0

Note: All students who have received four semester payments of New York State TAP must have a 2.0 GPA and earn a minimum of 12 credits per semester. This includes students who may have received TAP payments at another college prior to enrolling at Wells College.

Repeated Courses

New York State regulations mandate that if a student repeats a course in which a passing grade acceptable to the institution has been received previously, the course cannot be included as part of the student's minimum full-time course load for New York State financial aid purposes. However, in the following instances repeated courses may count toward full-time or part-time study: (1) when a failed course is repeated and (2) when a grade received is passing at the College, but is not acceptable in a particular student's major field of study.

Incomplete Courses

A student with incomplete courses at the end of the semester must complete the coursework prior to the start of the next semester or may lose state financial aid eligibility. Incomplete courses will not be used to evaluate a student's academic progress as indicated in the chart above. If a student completes these courses during the next semester and regains satisfactory academic progress, state aid may be reinstated upon the student's written request.

Withdrawals and Leave of Absence

A grade of "W" does not indicate whether the student passed, failed, or completed all work in a course, and therefore cannot be counted toward meeting either qualitative or quantitative standards. Students who received New York State aid for a semester from which they withdraw or take a leave of absence and do not earn any academic credits are not considered to be meeting the state's pursuit of program requirements and will not be eligible to receive state aid the following semester. A student who withdraws from the College and is readmitted will be eligible for state financial aid provided they were in compliance at the end of their last semester of attendance.

Loss of State Financial Aid

Students who have not fulfilled the chart requirements listed above in a term when they received a state grant or scholarship are not eligible for an award for the next semester. The financial aid office will notify all students at the end of each semester who have been determined to be ineligible for state financial aid. All students have the right to appeal their loss of state financial aid by following the appeal process below.

Reinstatement of State Financial Aid

Students who have lost their state financial aid and have not been granted an appeal may restore aid eligibility in one of the following ways:

- Make up past academic deficiencies by completing one or more semesters of study without receiving any state grants or scholarships.
- Students who lose state aid for not maintaining a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or better after four semester payments of state aid cannot regain eligibility for state aid by sitting out two semesters. Students who have received four semesters of payment can only regain eligibility by acquiring a GPA of 2.0.
- Students who lose state aid because they did not attempt the minimum number of credits required and choose to attend the following semester without state aid, will regain their eligibility if they complete the number of credits that were deficient.
- Be readmitted to the College after an absence of at least one year (two semesters). This is not allowed if a student has a cumulative GPA of less than 2.0 after attempting 60 credit hours.
- Transfer to another institution and earn credits that could be transferred back to Wells.

Appeal Process for State Aid

The satisfactory academic progress requirements for state aid may be waived for undue hardship based on: 1) the death of a relative or student; 2) the personal injury or illness of the student; or 3) other extenuating circumstances. The appeal is intended only to accommodate extraordinary or unusual cases directly related to academic performance and the student's failure to achieve the requirements. The appeal process does not exist to provide one additional term of eligibility for all students who fail to meet pursuit or progress requirements. It will not be granted automatically. Students will be asked in their appeal to explain the reasons the student failed to meet satisfactory academic progress. Appeals will not be automatically granted because a student accepts their learning contract. The appeal will be granted only when there is reasonable expectation that the student will meet future satisfactory academic progress requirements.

Please note that:

- A student may be granted only one waiver of New York State requirements for failing to meet the minimum requirements; whether the number of courses or the GPA requirement, before the fifth payment.
- A waiver of New York State requirements may be granted only once for failure to accrue the required number of courses in a student's undergraduate career.
- A student may be granted more than one waiver of New York State requirements for failing to meet the GPA requirement of 2.0 or higher after the fourth semester.
- A student's failure to achieve "good academic standing" shall be identified by the director of financial aid. The student will be notified before the beginning of the student's next semester if they have not met the standards of financial aid academic progress and are ineligible for financial aid funds. Notification will also be sent to the provost, dean of students, and registrar.

All students have the right to request an appeal of the determination that they are not making satisfactory academic progress. The student should request an appeal in writing within the time frame outlined by the director of financial aid. Students should be specific in outlining those mitigating circumstances and provide any documentation which they would like taken into consideration upon their reviews. The provost, dean of students, director of financial aid, and registrar and director of academic advising and success shall review the student's appeal. Notification of their decision and any specific requirements that must be fulfilled will be sent to the student in writing. Copies of the student's appeal letter and decision will be retained in the student's permanent financial aid file.

Federal Student Aid

Students must meet minimum requirements for satisfactory academic progress in order to maintain eligibility for federal financial aid awards as well. These requirements are also both qualitative (GPA) and quantitative (maximum time for program completion). The financial aid office will review a student's satisfactory academic progress annually. The chart below outlines the minimum number of credits a student must earn and the minimum cumulative GPA required for each payment period.

Academic Year	Total AY Earned	Total Cumulative Credits Earned	Cumulative GPA
AY1	21	21	2.0
AY2	21	42	2.0
AY3	21	63	2.0
AY4	21	84	2.0
AY5	21	105	2.0

Repeated Courses

For students who repeat a course, only the highest grade earned will be calculated into the cumulative GPA average. Students can only receive financial aid funds for one repeated attempt to achieve a passing grade or an improved grade in a course.

Incomplete Courses

A student with incomplete courses at the end of the academic year must complete the coursework prior to the start of the next academic year. If a student completes these courses during the next academic year and regains satisfactory academic progress, federal aid may be reinstated upon the student's written request.

Withdrawals and Leave of Absence

When evaluating a student's annual satisfactory progress, grades of "W" do not constitute grades which indicate that a student passed, failed, or completed all work in a course and cannot be counted toward meeting program pursuit requirements. If a student withdraws from all courses during a semester or takes a leave of absence and does not complete the semester for which they received federal aid, they will most likely not meet satisfactory academic progress and will not be eligible for federal aid.

Loss of Federal Aid Eligibility

Students who do not meet the standards listed above forfeit eligibility for federal financial aid awards for each subsequent academic year until academic progress standards are met. The financial aid office, at the end of each academic year, will notify all students who have been determined to be ineligible for federal financial aid. All students have the right to appeal their loss of federal financial. The student should request an appeal in writing within the time frame outlined by the director of financial aid.

The appeal process does not exist to provide one additional term of eligibility for all students who fail to meet progress requirements. It will not be granted automatically. Students will be asked in their appeal to 1) explain the reasons the student failed to meet satisfactory academic progress and 2) describe what actions the student plans on taking to ensure their academic success in the next semester. Appeals will not be automatically granted because a student accepts their learning contract. The appeal will be granted only when there is reasonable expectation that the student will meet future satisfactory academic progress requirements. If a student is appealing because of extenuating circumstances such as a death in the family or illness, they may not be required to sign a learning contract. However, they should submit supporting documentation to support these reasons.

The financial aid director will notify all students who have not met their satisfactory academic progress standards and are ineligible for financial aid funds by the beginning of the student's next semester. Notification will also be sent to the provost, dean of students, director of academic advising and success and registrar.

The student should request an appeal in writing within the time frame outlined by the director of financial aid. The Financial Aid Appeals Committee will review the student's letter of appeal and all supporting documentation. The provost, registrar and director of academic advising and success, dean of students, and director of financial aid shall review the student's appeal. Notification of their decision and any specific requirements that must be fulfilled will be sent to the student in writing. Copies of the student's appeal letter and decision will be retained in the student's permanent financial aid file.

Financial Aid Probation

If a student is granted a financial aid appeal, that student is placed on financial aid probation. They will be given an academic action plan with specific requirements that the committee feels would improve the student's academic status. Also, the committee will provide a new, revised schedule that outlines the student's requirement for cumulative number of credits earned and cumulative GPA that is to be achieved in a specific time period.

Students who fail the satisfactory progress check after the end of the probationary payment period may only continue to receive aid if the Appeals Committee grants a second appeal with a revised academic plan. Students will have an opportunity to present any documentation that explains reasons why they were unable to meet their original revised academic plan.

Reinstatement of Federal Financial Aid When Appeals Are Denied

Students who have lost their federal financial aid and have not been granted an appeal may restore their aid eligibility in one of the following ways:

- Attend Wells College without financial aid. The financial aid office will review the student's academic progress every semester and once the student has made up past academic deficiencies they can have their aid reinstated. Financial aid cannot be retroactively reinstated for semesters the student was not achieving satisfactory academic progress.
- If failed to achieve satisfactory academic progress based on earning the required number of credits, a student could attend another institution and earn credits that could be transferred back to Wells.

Transfer Student Eligibility

Transfer students will be considered using slightly different procedures than that of students in continuing status. For example, when a student transfers into Wells College from another institution, Wells College will evaluate the student's academic record and determine a certain number of credits it is willing to accept in transfer from the student's previous study. That assessment and the number of payments received by the student will be used to place the student at an appropriate point in the institution's schedule of academic progress. Placement for state aid purposes may be either in accord with the number of payments received or number of credits earned – whichever is more beneficial to the student. The point at which the transfer student is placed, and the number of payments she or he has received, may not line up. Students can receive TAP for a maximum of 8 semesters and Federal Pell Grant and Direct Loan funds for 12 semesters, regardless of the number of semesters needed to complete their degree requirements at Wells College. Placement for federal aid purposes is in accord with the number of credits attempted at previous institutions. Students can only receive federal aid for a maximum of 180 attempted credit hours. Students who have received four or more semesters of TAP or students who have earned junior standing must maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or greater.

STUDENT CONSUMER RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Student Rights

You have the right to ask a school:

- the names of its accrediting organizations;
- about its programs, its instructional, laboratory, and other physical facilities, and its faculty;
- what the cost of attending is, and what its policies are on refunds to students who drop out;
- what financial assistance is available, including information on all federal, state, local, private, and institutional financial aid programs;
- what the procedures and deadlines are for submitting applications for each available financial aid program;
- what criteria it uses to select financial aid recipients;
- how it determines your financial need (this process includes how costs for tuition and fees, room and board, travel, books and supplies, personal and miscellaneous expenses, etc. are considered in your budget, and what resources — such as parental contribution, other financial aid, your assets, etc. — are considered in the calculation of your need);

- how much of your financial need, as determined by the institution, has been met;
- how and when you will be paid;
- to explain each type and amount of assistance in your financial aid package;
- to choose your own lender for private education loans;
- if you have a loan, to know what the interest rate is, the total amount that must be paid, the length of time you have to repay your loan, when you must start paying it back, and any cancellation and deferment provisions that apply ;
- if you are offered a work-study job, to know what kind of job it is, what hours you must work, what your duties will be, what the rate of pay will be, and how and when you will be paid;
- to reconsider your aid package, if you believe a mistake has been made;
- how the school determines whether you are making satisfactory progress, and what happens if you are not;
- what special facilities and services are available to the handicapped;
- a description of the data compiled by Campus Security.

Student Responsibilities

It is your responsibility to:

- review and consider all information about a school's program before you enroll;
- pay special attention to your application for student financial aid, complete it accurately, and submit it on time to the right place (errors can delay your receiving financial aid);
- provide all additional documentation, verification, corrections, and/or new information requested by either the financial aid office or the agency to which you submitted your application;
- read and understand all forms that you are asked to sign and keep copies of them;
- accept responsibility for the promissory note and all other agreements that you sign;
- notify the loan service of changes in your name, address, or school status, if you have a loan;
- perform in a satisfactory manner the work that is agreed upon in accepting a College work-study job;
- know and comply with the deadlines for application or reapplication for aid;
- know and comply with your school's refund procedures;
- meet satisfactory academic progress requirements.

To receive federal, state, and institutional financial assistance, you must be enrolled as a full-time student. Full-time status according to the regulations governing most financial aid programs is 12 credit hours. Intersession credits can be applied to the spring semester.

FINANCIAL PLANNING

There are several services available to families that will help manage a student's educational costs.

Wells College Monthly Payment Plan

Wells College, recognizing that most parents finance at least a portion of their child's college education out of current earnings and that the traditional two-installment method does not meet the needs of all parents, offers a monthly payment plan. Under the payment plan, parents and students can pay the semester's tuition and room and board charges in four equal payments for a charge of $50 per semester. For the first semester, payments are due in August, September, October, and November, while for the second semester, payments are due in January, February, March, and April.

Parent Loans for Undergraduate Students (PLUS)

Parent loans (PLUS loans) are available to parents of financially dependent undergraduate students through the federal government. A parent may borrow up to the cost of education minus other aid, per dependent. The Direct PLUS Loan interest rate for 2017-2018 is 7.0%. Repayment of the amount borrowed plus interest begins two months after the loan is disbursed. The minimum monthly payment is $50 and repayment must be completed within 10 years.

MasterCard, VISA, DiscoverCard, and American Express

MasterCard, VISA, DiscoverCard, and American Express will be accepted for payment of College Store and tuition charges.

COLLEGE ORGANIZATION

WELLS FARGO
To The Attention: Administrators
Suite 11, 1985
N. 1st St., 1985
Denver, Colorado 80202, USA

COLLEGE ORGANIZATION

THE DIVISIONAL STRUCTURE

The faculty are organized into three divisions: arts and humanities, natural and mathematical sciences, and social sciences.

DIVISION OF THE ARTS AND HUMANITIES

With 29 major and minor areas of concentration, the Division of the Arts and Humanities is the heart of the liberal arts and the focal point of artistic activity on campus. New areas such as Film and Media Studies, Visual Communication, Books Arts, and Museum Studies belong to this division, as do more the familiar courses in Art, Art History, English, Philosophy, History, Creative Writing, Theater, Dance, Religion, Journalism, and Modern Languages. Through studies in these areas, students have many opportunities to engage with the great works of the western tradition as well as explore the rich diversity of human expression in its many forms across the globe. Courses offered by Arts and Humanities Division cultivate knowledge, creative skills, and ways of thinking that can provide a basis for understanding and success in other areas of the curriculum. This division also sponsors performances and exhibitions by students, faculty, and outside artists and writers.

DIVISION OF NATURAL AND MATHEMATICAL SCIENCES

The division of natural and mathematical sciences includes major programs in biological and chemical sciences, environmental science, and mathematical and physical sciences. Graduates with majors in the natural and mathematical sciences often pursue further study and careers in research, health professions, engineering, business, teaching, or computer applications.

Graduates with majors in the natural sciences are prepared to enter various professional programs including medicine, dentistry, and veterinary medicine, to pursue graduate study in biology, chemistry, physics, mathematics, computer science, engineering, or environmental science, or to seek employment in academic and industrial laboratories. Science majors who also complete teacher certification requirements at Wells are qualified to accept positions in primary and secondary education. Faculty help students individually plan academic programs that meet the students' interests and goals.

Logical and analytical thought is the basis for study in the mathematical and natural sciences. In the natural sciences the steps of observation, conjecture, experimentation, and evaluation lead to the development of new scientific theories or laws. In mathematics there is an analogous thought process, but experimentation and evaluation are replaced by logical proof from axioms. The studies of mathematics and the sciences are intertwined, for historically most mathematical developments have been motivated by the need for mathematical laws in the establishment of scientific theories. Conversely, mathematics provides the means for the sciences to formulate theories precisely and measure theories' predictions against the natural world. Thus students in all these fields learn explanations of natural phenomena and mathematical concepts, develop the tools needed to work with them, and learn techniques to enable them to establish results of their own.

DIVISION OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

The role of the social sciences in a liberal education is to contribute to an understanding of society through the study of human institutions and behavior. To this end, the division offers course work in anthropology, business, communication studies, economics, education, First Nations and Indigenous studies, international studies, political science, psychology, sociology, and women's and gender studies.

Wells students may spend a semester (usually in the junior year) enrolled at American University in Washington, D.C. This program offers a choice of study in American national government and politics, foreign policy, economic policy, arts and humanities, justice, journalism, urban affairs, and public administration. Wells students frequently combine a January internship in Washington with the spring semester at the university. Qualified social science majors may pursue an innovative experiential off-campus study option at the Salt Center for Documentary Field Studies (Portland, Maine). Pairs of students (one writer, one photographer) engage in in-depth field research in a variety of settings. International studies majors enroll in semester-long programs in Europe and Africa.
