

Oscar Nominated director Josh Fox continues his deeply personal style, investigating climate change – the greatest threat our world has ever known. Traveling to 12 countries on six continents, the film acknowledges that it may be too late to stop some of the worst consequences and asks, what is it that climate change can't destroy? What is so deep within us that no calamity can take it away?

Running time: 127 minutes; Campus Greens will lead a discussion following the film.

Wednesday, October 24, 2018 ~ 7:00PM
deWitt Lecture Room, 106 Zabriskie Hall

Free organic popcorn with organic butter will be served.

Free and open to the public.