

Mariah Davis, Senior Policy & Campaigns Manager

As Senior Policy & Campaigns Manager of the Choose Clean Water Coalition, Mariah manages outreach, grassroots advocacy, and civic engagement efforts to support the Coalition's policy priorities. Mariah coordinates conservation organizations efforts in Maryland, Virginia, Pennsylvania, Delaware, New York, West Virginia and the District of Columbia. This includes working with conservation organizations at the local, state and regional level to enact sound state policies to ensure progress in the Chesapeake Bay restoration effort.

Mariah is an active member in the Chesapeake community. She is deeply committed to efforts that foster diversity, equity, inclusion, and justice. She is passionate about environmental justice issues and played an active role in the formation of Virginia's Advisory Council on Environmental Justice established under Governor McAuliffe. She served as a founding board member of Annapolis Pride and chaired the city's first Pride Parade and Festival.

Mariah is a graduate of the Congressional Black Caucus Institute's Political Leadership Program. In 2020, she earned her master's degree in Public Management from the University of Maryland. In 2013, she earned her bachelor's degree in Environmental Studies, with a minor in Chemistry from Virginia Commonwealth University.
