

Sustainability Perspectives

Opening More Sustainable Doors (and Windows)

Deb Callahan '85 is the chief executive officer of the National Fenestration Rating Council, a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that serves the public by providing objective ratings for the energy performance of windows, doors, and skylights. NFRC works closely with EPA's ENERGY STAR® program, and its members include architects, government and code officials, manufacturers, researchers, laboratories and other not-for-profit organizations. Deb will speak about the NFRC's origins during the late 1980s energy crisis, its current role in the green building arena, and why efficient doors and windows matter.

Monday, October 22, 2018 from 12:20 – 1:20PM
deWitt Lecture Hall, Zabriskie Hall Room 106

All Sustainability Perspectives series events are free and open to the public. The series explores the concept of 'sustainability' from a variety of viewpoints.

Wells is committed to providing access to all events; anyone needing assistance should contact Marian Brown, Center for Sustainability and the Environment, at 315-364-3304 or by email at mbrown@wells.edu, as soon as possible.
