

Sustainability Perspectives

The League of Women Voters and Effective Citizenship: Informed Work on Legislation, Lobbying and Educating the Public

Kay Wagner chairs the Natural Resources committee of the League of Women Voters of Tompkins County. The League of Women Voters has a long history of studying and taking positions on environmental issues. The talk will cover a brief history of this work and some of the League's successes. This will be followed by a discussion of current local, state and federal legislation that is of interest and actions the LWV is taking. There will also be some discussion of how a large national organization such as the League reaches agreement on positions and actions.

Monday, April 17, 2017 ~ 12:20 – 1:20PM
deWitt Lecture Hall, Zabriskie Hall Room 106

All Sustainability Perspectives series events are free and open to the public.
The series explores the concept of 'sustainability' from a variety of viewpoints.

Wells is committed to providing access to all events; anyone needing assistance should contact Marian Brown, Center for Sustainability and the Environment, at 315-364-3304 or by email at mbrown@wells.edu, as soon as possible.

Arrive curious ∴ Graduate prepared.

