

Sustainability Perspectives

Challenges to Cayuga Lake and Opportunities to Protect It

Liz Kreitinger, steward and executive director for the Cayuga Lake Watershed Network, will explain the work of the organization to identify key threats to Cayuga Lake and its watershed, and its efforts to advocate for solutions that support a healthy environment and vibrant, sustainable communities. The Watershed Network empowers private landowners, recreational users, and visitors to take action and make informed decisions about care of the lake and watershed.
