

Sustainability Perspectives

Local Bugs, Local Jobs

Carol Glenister, founder and president of IPM Laboratories, Inc., will offer a brief history of a 35-year-old business producing, buying and selling beneficial insects in the Finger Lakes. Ms. Glenister will discuss what it is like to build a sustainable business focused on pest management. Ms. Glenister is strongly dedicated to the study and promotion of biological control; she holds a B.S. from SUNY College of Environmental Science and Forestry and a Master's in Entomology from Cornell University.

Monday, March 28, 2016 ~ 12:20 – 1:20PM
Stratton Hall Room 209

All Sustainability Perspectives series events are free and open to the public.
The series explores the concept of sustainability from a variety of viewpoints.

Wells is committed to providing access to all events; anyone needing assistance should contact Marian Brown, Center for Sustainability and the Environment, at 315-364-3304 or by email at mbrown@wells.edu, as soon as possible.
