

Sustainability Perspectives

Decolonizing Textiles

Join Sarah Gotowka, visual and textile artist, for a lively class where we talk about the oppressive systems and colonialist histories of cloth, dye and plants. We will look at some of the textiles we use daily, get to know their roots, and discuss the hidden pathways in which they came to be. We will also look at contemporary artists who are subverting and transforming cloth, and brainstorm on ways we can challenge exploitation and racism through our relationship with cloth.

Monday, November 7, 2022 12:30 – 1:30PM

Zoom #: 859 7740 8776 passcode: 74ki$Qz9

All Sustainability Perspectives series events are free and open to the public. The series explores the concept of 'sustainability' from a variety of viewpoints.

Wells is committed to providing access to all events; anyone needing assistance should contact Marian Brown, Center for Sustainability and the Environment, at 315-364-3304 or by email at mbrown@wells.edu, as soon as possible.

Arrive curious ∴ Graduate prepared.
