

Theresa Church is the Assistant Director of the Global Justice Ecology Project and is the coordinator of the Campaign to STOP GE Trees. She is a 2019 graduate of Naropa University's M.A. Resilient Leadership program with a concentration in Climate Justice studies. Her academic training includes intensive study of living systems theory, ecopsychology, sustainability, climate justice, human rights, environmental policy, nonprofit management, entrepreneurship and mindfulness. She earned her B.A. in English from Buffalo State College. Theresa is a 500-hr registered yoga teacher.